

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

L O N D O N:

PRINTED BY BUNNEY AND GOLD,
BRANE COURT, FLEET-STREET,

FOR G. G. AND J. ROBINSON, PATERNOSTER-ROW,

THIS Tenth Volume comprehends and closes the different Heads of pleading and practice of which I originally ventured to give the outline, and it seems necessary to open a more explicit view of the contents of the whole by way of general Direction, to make them plain and useful to the Practitioner.

It will be sufficient to apprise the Student that I have entirely thrown out the old antiquated Heads farther than they are now in practical use, as ANNUITY, Proceedings in AUDITA QUERELA, and others (for it might seem by the Preface to my first Volume I meant to include the former Head, with other old Proceedings, which I since thought better not to do, to the exclusion of more useful matter) ; and that there is a slight disarrangement in this Volume, namely, in ERROR, which ought strictly to follow every other head. My reason for it is, that I had completed it after the personal Actions, before mixed and real actions ; and it was convenient to me, to prevent stopping the press. Having then in the preceding nine Volumes disposed of personal Actions, and in this Volume Proceedings in ERROR ; the MIXED Actions are EJECTMENT and QUARE IMPEDIT : in the former I give but few Forms, because of Mr. Serjeant Runnington's very excellent book on that head, containing most correct and valuable Precedents ; in the latter they are sufficiently varied for all the common cases that happen, with a most ample INDEX, after great labour and difficulty in the execution of it. Then follow REAL Actions, the INDEX, such of my own Precedents, and the distribution of them in their order, will be found under the Head ACTIONS REAL in the GENERAL INDEX. The modern References follow their different Heads, and the more ancient would have swelled my Work to a greater extent than I at first proposed to myself ; or could I be persuaded they can be found at this day of much use to the Profession.

The PRACTICAL FORMS, or PARTES PLACITANDI (of the Record), is a part of the Work that I confess has been more troublesome, as it is my anxious wish to give it a clearness, that the Student might not be at a loss to find any Form, Writ, or Part of the Record, in any Action ; and the Mode I have attempted will shew my solicitude in a circumstance that at first almost deterred me from the attempt ; but after consideration I have led myself to believe will be highly favourable and auxiliary to my own Volumes. The Public are already in possession of Mr. Tidd's Practice of the Court of King's Bench, and that it is his intention to give an Appendix of Forms, from the Commencement to the End of a Suit. The luminous Method of his Book immediately suggests the order in which the Forms and Parts of the Record stand, and may be easily given ; but I was afraid to interfere with his work in a Plagiarism so palpable, especially much indebted as I am for his free communications ; and also in some sort as an Encourager of this Undertaking, it determined me therefore to adopt the following

Plan,

Plan, which I can venture with confidence to assure the Student he will find more and more easy, and justify my conjecture above, that the Gentleman's Book to which I allude may be made useful to my own.

Under the Head of PRACTICAL FORMS will be found all the Forms that may be reducible to small distinct Heads, and among them the Forms, particularly of PARTES PLACITANDI in the INDEX to FORMS, alphabetically disposed; so that by adverting to the part, such as Oyer, Retraxit, Cesset Executio (I instance these because they are Parts of the Record not connected), or any other, will be distinctly pointed out, with reference to the Page and the Part of Pleading. If, therefore, the Body of PRACTICAL FORMS are resolvable into these Heads, and the Partes Placitandi, or Forms, are arranged so as to give instantaneous Reference to it, it will follow, that, considering the Forms in their Commencement, in the intermediate, and final Stage of a Suit, will considerably assist the Practitioner. This I have also attempted, and, to my own mind, find it clear of all objection or difficulty; yet with proper deference to an enlightened and learned Profession.

In the Reference to the modern Books of Practice I have limited myself to one of the most useful of them in the King's Bench; for as all these Books are considered more for their use (in the history of running about to the different offices), than their authority, (unless it be the Practice of B. R. by Mr. Tidd, which may be called the Polar Star of the Practitioner in that Court), and the proceedings in the two courts vary so little, except those to be met with in my own Precedents, I have not indexed them.

To conclude with one plain Direction in all instances throughout the Work :—The GENERAL INDEX contains the Leading Titles, such as ABATEMENT, ACCOUNT, ASSUMPSIT, &c. and takes up such as are by accident omitted in the Work, and directs to the Volume, in which will be found an Analysis to each, with a copious Index to follow the Analysis under figures within crotchets on the left hand. In all the personal and mixed Actions, (to be more particular) for Declarations see the GENERAL INDEX, referring to the Heads in the different Volumes; such as are omitted will be found under the Head in the GENERAL INDEX. For Pleas, see that Head; in the GENERAL INDEX such as happen to be omitted in the Index to General Heads will be found. So Replications, Rejoinders, &c. So far as to the Declarations, Pleas, &c.: But for a Judgment in any Action, see JUDGMENTS in that Action in the GENERAL INDEX—DEMURRERS, &c.—POSTEAS, &c.; and for a Form, see PRACTICAL FORMS, added to the General Index. For the Writs, Forms of beginning and ending a Declaration in Courts above, and inferior Courts, Forms of Pleas in Courts below, the Partes Placitandi of the Record, and other miscellaneous Forms. ACTIONS REAL will be found only in the GENERAL INDEX under the Head of ACTIONS—the Heads that arise out of the Record, or, in most instances, the particular Parties to the Record—as Bankrupts—Insolvents, and their Assignees—Baron and Feme—Chancery—Clergymen—Corporations—even to Pleas—Replications—Rejoinders—in their Alphabetical Order; and under REAL ACTIONS in

in the General Index will be found DOWER, FORMER-
DON, PARTITION, &c.

To those who mistake multiplicity for confusion, and do not readily discriminate the Forms, multitudinous as they are, to such I repeat (who will be the only description of readers forward to object) this Volume must be eminently useful. To name only the small Head of Form of WRITS FINAL—the difference of the Courts—Jurisdiction—the Parties or the Persons to whom directed—the difference of Action suddenly evinces the necessity of the Form; and yet to a cursory view, or rather negligent mind, they will appear to be too similar. To the more discerning and distinguished Members of a truly honorable and dignified Profession I know full well how to leave the Propriety of my Remarks, and the merits (such as they are) of my Work.

This confidence not arising only from the vain conjecture of an experimental Author, but confirmed by the experience of the thing itself through the tardy progress of ten heavy Volumes, induces me to announce thus early my intention to engraft the Doctrine and Principles of Pleading upon the Precedent and Form itself; to make in pleading the necessary averment, and, assuming the shape of a legal Argument (inverting a little the ordinary course of reasoning from particulars to generals), to shew where the Form of the Action embodies the principle; and in the practical Forms to accompany it with the History and Reason of the Practice.

This

This is by no means a new idea; though never before attempted. The late Lord Mansfield frequently intimated how useful to the Profession (by any Gentleman of ability and leisure, who had influence to procure the suitable materials) such a Work, tolerably well executed, would be; and how much he would have availed himself, even on the Bench, of such a Work (with the peculiar liberality that distinguished that great man). And the late Mr. Bearcroft strongly intimated to me in different conversations I had with him respecting this Work, if I was confident enough to undertake it, the Precedents would form a Ground Work to raise, or rather to perfect and make more complete my SYSTEM OF PLEADING. I have that leisure and the influence to obtain the materials, and I only want the continuance of that Patronage under the Providence that has favoured the nine preceding Volumes, to make me confident in the accomplishment of my proposed Plan; the first Part of which has so far exceeded every expectation.

The future Part of this Work is now in Preparation for the Press, and I shall hope humbly, with the Encouragement I have reason to expect, to complete this SYSTEM OF PLEADING.

(PROCEEDINGS IN.)

AFTERWARDS, to wit; on Friday next after fifteen days of Saint Martin, in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of our lord the now king, before our lord the king at Westminster, the said Owel Jones and Edward Philips the younger came by A. B. their attorney aforesaid, and say, that in the said record and process, and also in giving of the said judgment, there is manifest error in this, to wit, that by the record aforesaid it appears that the said judgment in form aforesaid given was given for the said R. R. against the said O. J. and E. P. whereas by the law of the land judgment in the said plea ought to have been given for the said O. J. and E. P. against the said R. R.; and they pray that the said judgment for this error and others in the said record and process may be reversed, annulled, and entirely set aside, and that they the said O. J. and E. P. may be restored to all that they have lost by the said judgment, and that the said R. R. may rejoin to the said errors, &c. ^{Assignment of errors in ejectment.}

T. BARROW.

And hereupon afterwards, to wit, on the said Friday next after fifteen days of Saint Martin, in the said twenty-ninth year of the reign of our said lord the now king, the said R. R. by his said attorney, freely comes here into court, and says that there is no error either in the record and process aforesaid or in giving the judgment aforesaid; and he prays that the said court of our said lord the king now here may proceed to examine as well the record and proceedings aforesaid as the matters aforesaid above for error assigned, and that the judgment aforesaid in form aforesaid given may be in all things affirmed; but because the court of our lord the king now here is not yet advised what judgment to give of and concerning the premises, a day is therefore given to the parties aforesaid to come before the said lord the king in eight days of Saint Hilary, wheresoever, &c. to hear the judgment aforesaid, for that the court of the said lord the king now here is not yet advised thereof, &c. ^{Joinder.}

AFTERWARDS, on, &c. comes here the said J. T. L. by his said attorney, and says that the record and proceedings aforeaid, and the judgment thereon given as aforeaid, are vicious, erroneous, and defective in this, to wit, for that the declaration in the said record and proceedings mentioned and the matters therein contained are not sufficient in law to maintain the said E. E. in having his said action against the said J. T. L. in the following amongst other particulars, for that the said sum of money in the said first Count of the said declaration mentioned and therein alledged to have been had and received by the said J. T. L. to the use of the said E. E. is not there shewn or mentioned to have been had and received within the jurisdiction of the said county court held at J. aforeaid, which said matter should have been shewn in order to give the said court a cognizance thereof; and for that the said sum of money in the second Count of the said declaration mentioned and therein alledged to have been lent and advanced to the said J. T. L. is not there shewn or mentioned to be lent and advanced within the jurisdiction of the said county court, which said matters should have been shewn in order to give the said court a cognizance thereof; the same record and proceedings aforeaid and the judgment thereon given are also vicious, erroneous, and defective in this, for that by the record it appeareth that the judgment aforeaid in the plea aforeaid in form aforeaid given was given for the said E. E. against the said J. T. L. whereas by the laws of this realm judgment in the plea aforeaid ought to have been given for the said J. T. against the said E. E.; there is also error in this, to wit, for that in the said record and proceedings there are divers and very many miscontinuances and discontinuances in the plea and proceedings aforeaid, and the said record and proceedings and the said judgment are vicious, erroneous, and defective in this, for that the precept and venire facias therein mentioned ought by and in the record and proceedings aforeaid to have been continued from the said county court held the twenty-eighth day of March, A. D. 1787, to the twenty-fifth day of April then next following, whereas the same is not so continued, but wholly omitted, and nothing appears to have been done at the said county court held on the said twenty-eighth day of March 1787 either by continuance from the same or an appearance of the parties shewn to have been made thereat, or any day given at that court to the said parties; the same record and proceedings, and also the said judgment, are also vicious, erroneous, and defective in this, for that the several proceedings aforeaid are in the said record set out by way of recital, and not as done at the present time of holding the said courts in the said record and proceedings mentioned; the same are also vicious, erroneous, and defective in this, for that in the said judgment in the said plaint therein mentioned it is commanded, whereas it ought to have been considered, and not commanded by the court there that the said E. E. do recover of the said J. T. L. his damages, &c. therein mentioned; and so the said J. T. L. says, that the judgment aforesaid given in the said county court before the said sheriff is false and erroneous, and prays that the said judgment for the errors aforesaid and other errors in the said record and proceedings aforesaid being may be reversed, annulled, and held void, and that he the said J. T. L. may be restored to all things which he hath lost on occasion of the said judgment.

S. LE BLANC.

AFTERWARDS, to wit, on the said first day of the next general session of assize here at L. holden, to wit, on, &c. in the nineteenth year of the reign of his present majesty king George the Third, here cometh the said J. S. by A. B. his attorney, and saith, that false judgment was given against him in the plea aforesaid in this, that upon the trial of the issue aforesaid to swear the jurors aforesaid or to take down minutes of evidence adduced upon such trial, and make a proper record or entry of the verdict of the jurors aforesaid upon the trial aforesaid, but that some other person not duly and legally qualified or authorized attended the said court to try the said cause, who set down and recorded the verdict, but neglected to take down the minutes of the evidence given in the said cause to the jurors aforesaid, as is common and usual upon trials in the said court, to the great and manifest injury of the said J. S. and also that the jurors aforesaid upon the trial of the issue aforesaid were not unanimous, neither did they assent or agree in giving the verdict aforesaid, as by law they ought to have done, but that certain of the jurors aforesaid did dissent and vary upon the verdict aforesaid at the time the same was given and recorded, to wit, at, &c. in, &c. : And the said J. S. says that false judgment was given against him in the plea aforesaid, and prays that the judgment aforesaid, being as well illegal as unjust and false, may be revoked, annulled, and held for nothing, and that he may be restored to all things which he hath lost on occasion of the said false judgment.

AFTERWARDS, to wit, on Thursday the twenty-seventh day of May, in the fifteenth year of the reign of our sovereign lord George the Second, by the grace of God, of Great Britain, &c. before our lord the king and the peers of this realm, in the present parliament at Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, assembled, comes the said R. T. in his proper person, and says, that in the record and process aforesaid, as also in giving of the judgment aforesaid in the same court of our said lord the king before the king himself given there is manifest error in this, to wit, for that by the record aforesaid it appears that the judgment aforesaid in form aforesaid given was given for the said lord the king against the said R. T. nevertheless by the law of the land the same judgment ought to have been given for the aforesaid R. T. against the said lord the king, therefore in this it is manifest error; wherefore the said R. T. prays that the judgment aforesaid for that and other errors in the record and process aforesaid may be reversed, annulled, and set aside, and that the said R. T. may be restored to the said office, liberty, privileges, and franchises by him claimed as aforesaid, and that he may be dismissed and discharged of and from the premises above charged upon him, and that the aforesaid J. the record and proceedings aforesaid there is manifest error in this, to wit, for that by the record and proceedings aforesaid it appears that the judgment aforesaid in form aforesaid given is given for one C. B. against the said W. R. T. H. and W. H. whereas the said judgment ought to have been given for the said W. R. and T. H. against the said C. B. therefore in this there is manifest error; there is also error in this, for that it appears by the record and proceedings aforesaid that the judgment aforesaid is given against the said W. R. T. H. and W. H. when in fact the said W. R. after the exhibiting the bill in this said suit, and before the execution of the inquisition of damages mentioned in the said record and proceedings, to wit, on, &c. in the first year of the reign of our sovereign lord the now king, at, &c. died, and therefore the said W. R. ought to have been suggested on the record of the said proceedings, and the inquisition of damages should only have been taken, and the final judgment aforesaid been given against the said W. H. and T. H. therefore in this there is manifest error, and this they are ready to verify; wherefore they pray that the judgment aforesaid by reason of the aforesaid errors and of other errors appearing in the record and proceedings aforesaid be reversed and wholly had for nought, and that the said W. H. and T. H. be restored to all things which they have lost on occasion of the aforesaid judgment, and that the said C. B. may rejoin to the said errors.

Drawn by MR. WARREN.

AFTERWARDS, to wit, on, &c. in this same term, before our lord the king, at Westminster, comes the said I. A. by A. B. his attorney, and saith, that in the record and process aforesaid, and also in giving the judgment aforesaid there is manifest error in this, to wit, for that by the record aforesaid it appears that the judgment aforesaid, in the plea aforesaid given, was given for the said R. G. against the said I. A. whereas by the laws of the land of this kingdom judgment in the same plea ought to have been given for the said I. A. against the said R. G. therefore in that there is manifest error; there is also error in this, for that in and by the record aforesaid it appears that the said I. A. appeared by an attorney, whereas at the time of such his appearance and at the time of obtaining and recovering the judgment aforesaid, he the said I. A. was an infant under the age of twenty-one years, to wit, of the age of twenty years and no more, therefore in that there is also manifest error; therefore the said I. A. prays that the judgment aforesaid for the errors aforesaid in the record and proceedings aforesaid may be reversed, annulled, and held for nothing; and that he the said I. A. may be restored to all things he hath lost on occasion of the said judgment, and that the said R. G. may rejoin to the said errors, &c.

Assignment of errors in B. R. of matter of fact and matter of law (to wit, that judgment was erroneous, and that infant appeared by attorney), for which defendant in error demurs.

And the said R. G. saith, that the said assignment of errors, in manner and form as the same is above made and set forth, is insufficient in law to reverse or annul the said judgment, for that the said assignment of errors is double, and containing an assignment of errors in law and error in fact; wherefore the said R. G. prays judgment, and that the said judgment may be affirmed, &c.

W. H. ASHHURST.

The judgment upon this demurrer should be quod affirmetur, vide 1. Stra. 439.

Joinder.

And the said I. A. saith, that the said assignment of errors by him above made is sufficient in law to reverse and annul the said judgment, which said assignment he the said I. A. is ready to verify and prove, as the Court here shall direct; wherefore inasmuch as the said R. G. doth not answer or deny the same, he the said I. A. as before prays that the judgment aforesaid, for the errors in the record and proceedings aforesaid, may be reversed, annulled, and held for nothing; and that he the said I. A. may be restored to all things which he hath lost on occasion of the said judgment.

Assignment of errors, that the defendant's plea was not sufficient to bar the plaintiffs of their action, but was defective, and no answer to the plaintiff's declaration, &c. &c.

AND afterwards, to wit, on &c. in the twenty-fifth year of the reign of our sovereign lord George the Third, by the grace of God, of Great Britain, &c. before the said justices of the common bench and barons of the exchequer, come the said London Assurance of houses and goods from fire by the said A. B. their attorney, and say, that in the record and proceedings aforesaid, and also in giving the judgment aforesaid there is manifest error in this, for that it appears by the said record that the said plea so pleaded by way of reply to the said plea of the said I. S. and W. C. lastly above pleaded in bar, and the matters in the same contained, are sufficient in law for the said London Assurance to have and maintain their said action thereof against the said I. S. and W. C. yet the said plea so pleaded by way of reply appears to have been adjudged insufficient; there is also error in this, that it appears by the record aforesaid that the said plea so lastly above pleaded in bar by the said I. S. and W. C. and the matters therein contained, are not sufficient in law to bar the said London Assurance from having and maintaining their aforesaid action against the said I. S. and W. C.; but the said plea is defective and insufficient in this (amongst other particulars), to wit, that the said plea is no answer to the aforesaid declaration of the said London Assurance, nor is the damage or cause of action therein specified in any manner denied or avoided thereby, but on the contrary the said plea admits and confesses such damage and cause of action without sufficiently avoiding the same; and also for that no judgment is in the said plea alledged as stated to have been obtained or given upon the said verdict in the said plea mentioned; and for that it is not averred or shewn in the said plea that the said London Assurance were or are in any manner privy to, or concerned or interested in the said action or suit so alledged to have been brought by the said I. S. as aforesaid, or that the said

said action was brought or commenced in trust to or for the use or benefit of the said London Assurance, or for any other or greater damages than what the said I. S. had sustained, over and besides the said sum of sixteen hundred pounds so paid to him by the said London Assurance, nor is the said jury who gave the said verdict in the said plea set forth, alledged to have given or assessed any other than such extra damages beyond the said sixteen hundred pounds; but on the contrary it appears and stands admitted by the record aforesaid, that the said jury, by their said verdict found, assessed and gave to the said I. S. such extra damages only; and also for that it is not averred or alledged in the said plea that the said I. S. hath reimbursed, paid over, or in any manner whatsoever accounted with the said London Assurance for any part for which he obtained such verdict as aforesaid, or that he is liable or compellable so to do; but on the contrary it appears by the aforesaid record and proceedings, that the said verdict was obtained by the said I. S. for his own proper benefit alone; and also for that the said verdict, in the said plea mentioned, is not shewn or alledged to have been, or to be recovered, nor is the same offered to be verified or proved by any record thereof; there is also error in this, to wit, that the said judgment so given for the said I. S. against the said London Assurance when by the law of the land judgment ought to have been given in the plea aforesaid for the said London Assurance against the said I. S.; wherefore the said London Assurance pray that for the errors above assigned, and for other the errors in the record and proceedings aforesaid, the said judgment may be reversed, annulled, and held for nothing; and that they may be restored to all things which they have lost on occasion of the same.

I think the last assigned error would have been sufficient; but as the other errors cannot prejudice the plaintiff in error, and may in some measure open the nature of the case, and which I suppose was Mr. Baldwin's intention, I think they may remain as already drawn.

THOMAS WALKER.

Upon argument, the judgment of the court of K. B. was affirmed.

AND thereupon afterwards, to wit, on, &c. in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of our sovereign lord George the Third, by the grace of God, of Great Britain, &c. before the said justices of the common bench and the barons of the exchequer, comes the said W. D. by A. B. his attorney, and saith, that the record and proceedings aforesaid, and also in the matters recited and contained in the said bill of exceptions; and also in giving the verdict and judgment aforesaid there is manifest error in this, to wit, for that the said chief justice before whom, &c. at and upon the aforesaid trial of the said issue so joined between the parties aforesaid, did refuse to admit the said evidence so offered to him on the behalf of the said W. D. as in the bill of exceptions is mentioned, that the duty of excise due and payable to his majesty for the said brandy in the record aforesaid mentioned was fully satisfied and

paid before the said brandy was landed and put on shore out of the said ship or vessel in which the same was brought and imported as aforesaid according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, whereas by the law of the land the chief justice ought to have admitted the said evidence in this action, because the said writing or instrument of condemnation in the said bill of exceptions set forth is not conclusive evidence in this action to prove that the duty of excise had not been duly satisfied and paid before the said brandy had been landed and put on shore, nor of sufficient force and validity to exclude the true and real evidence of the fact to enable the said W. D. to maintain his said action against the said E. C. for the trespass aforesaid; there is also error in this, for that by the record and proceedings aforesaid it appears that the verdict given on the said trial of the said issue between the parties aforesaid was given for the said E. C. against the said W. D. whereas by the law of the land in case the said evidence had been admitted as it ought to have been the verdict upon the said issue should and ought to have been given for the said W. D. against the said E. C.; there is also error in this, that by the record and proceedings aforesaid it appears that the judgment aforesaid in form aforesaid was given for the said E. C. against the said W. D. whereas by the law of this realm judgment should and ought to have been given for the said W. D. against the said E. C.; and thereupon the said W. D. prays that the judgment aforesaid for the error aforesaid and others in the record and proceedings aforesaid may be reversed, annulled, and held for nothing, and that he may be restored to all things he hath lost on occasion of the same.

That by the sheriff's return it appears that one of the three said proclamations was at the Old Bailey, and it is not shewn that the Old Bailey aforesaid is in London, and the said J. by the said sheriff, ought not to be proclaimed out of London, and so outlawry void, Re. Dec. 284.

That there is not any continuance of the plea of the term of St. Michael, A. R. 43, 44, till the term of the Holy Trinity A. R. 44, nor a new original assised in said term of Trinity to warrant the declaration, and judgment thereon, so the judgments on the declaration and the judgment of execution and publishing the outlawry aforesaid thereon are erroneous and void, 374.

Error in outlawry in appeal, Re. 304. On inquisition in B. R. Reg. 133. Before a magistrate, Ibid.

That plaintiff in writ of error died pending the writ, new writ pleaded by administrator, who alledges error in the outlawry, Co. Ent. 153.

That there is another named in the same original, when plaintiff brought another scire facias to hear errors, and defendant was not sued thereon, and prays that outlawry be reversed for the errors assigned, and it is, Ra. 295. Non omittas scire facias awarded on error in outlawry, Jud. 330.

Judgment that outlawry be reversed for the errors assigned and others in the proceedings, Ra. 303. 311. That outlawry after judgment be reversed, and judgment stand, Co. Ent. 154. That judgment and outlawry be reversed after nihil returned to two scire facias, Jud. 263.

That immediately on the award of the said writ of certiorari, before any certificate thereon made and returned, a writ of scire facias is now awarded to make known to R. that he be before our lord the king on the octave of Hilary then next, wheresoever, &c. to hear the record and proceedings aforesaid, the record not then being sent to our lord the king, Ibid.

That the court of our lord the king in Ireland proceeded to revoke judgment rendered without certifying the original, or any other certificate or answer of the said justices of the bench aforesaid thereto as above appears of record, 357.

That

- That the court in Ireland revoked judgment by said R. S. against the said P. C. when the judgment aforesaid ought to have been affirmed, Ibid.
- That plaintiff in his declaration does not shew with certainty the number of acres demised, but declares generally of lands in K. when it should have been shewn with certainty, so that the said P. may answer with certainty, Ibid. That plaintiff, by his declaration, does not shew for what cause, thing, or matter defendant was indebted, and that no good and sufficient consideration is specified, and judgment thereupon bad, erroneous, and void, 362.
- For that the precept of scire facias was only against one bail, and not the other, 362. That it appears of record, &c. that the said defendant, by his certain bill obligatory produced in court, confesses himself to owe, &c. and no writing-obligatory mentioned in the count or record, 363.
- That the attachment pleaded in bar of the action was made p. ndentelise, and so the attachment and judgment thereupon, and plea thereon pleaded, and the said judgment in the said town of L. R. thereon rendered erroneous, void, and of no effect in law, 364. That the mayor and burgesses of the town of L. R. by virtue of a certain writ of procedendo directed to them, bearing date as by the record of the 9th. of June, A. Regni 40. gave judgment aforesaid at their court held 17th. October, Anno 39. Ibid. 364.
- That the mayor, &c. gave judgment in part against the said John, when judgment ought to have been for the whole for the said John, Ibid.
- Error in parliament, that in reversing judgment in the court of the hustings in London rendered, and also in the rendition of the judgment aforesaid in the said court of hustings of L. thereupon by the said H. C. against F. G. by virtue of a commission, in this, that it appears that the issue first was tried by a jury returned from four wards, namely, &c. and by the record aforesaid it also appears that by ancient custom of the city said trial ought to have been made by a jury returned from the four wards adjoining the place wasted, &c. Law Err. 317. Bro. R. 373. 2. San. 351.
- Upon venire facias and habeas corpus jur. that the sheriff in the pannel, with the names of the jury to the habeas corpus, annexed one T. S. who was not returned upon the principal pannel by the late sheriff to the writ of venire facias, and the writs of record are not certified, Re. Dec. 371. Clif. 328.
- That declaration is not sufficient, for that it is not alledged that defendant being executor, had assets at the time of the promise, and the consideration alledged for forbearance is nudum pæctum, and insufficient, Re. Dec. 389.
- That plaintiff brought his bill against defendant as executrix, and that plaintiff will recover damages of defendant herself, without stating the goods and chattels of testator, if so much in the hands, &c. Ibid.
- That declaration is uncertain and insufficient, and defendant, an infant, appears by attorney, when he ought to appear by guardian, Mo. Int. 284. Like on a judgment by non sum informatus, Clif. 327. Re. Dec. 262. 303.
- Errors assigned upon a writ of false judgment in the county court; first, for want of a warrant of attorney; second, that in praying imparlance it doth not appear by the record that day was given over until the next court, and so the action became discontinued; third, it doth not appear by the record that the plaintiff is executor of W. C. for that she did not produce the will in court, Bro. Vad. 276.
- Upon a false judgment in county court in case; first, that it is not shewn before whom the first court was held; second, damages laid forty pounds, when court could not hold plea of forty shillings; third, court held before the steward, and ought to be before the suitors; four, want of warrants of attorney, 2. Mo. Int. 260. Re. Ent. 314. 317. 321. &c.
- Upon a writ of right; first, that the record does not state in what county the manor of H. is, nor that the manor and tenements in the writ specified were held domino regent or dominico regent as of his manor of H. aforesaid; second, that by the writ of right close it manifestly appears that one and the same court upon one and the same day, on the appearance of W. himself gra'is, that C. and A. counted against him, &c. and judgment was given, and execution served on all, and executed when the judgment ought to have been sued out and obtained at several courts held on several days, and not on one court on the same day, &c. 2. Mo. Int. 265.

On false judgment, that it does not appear that any legal writ of venire facias was awarded, and that judgment for plaintiff ought to have been given for defendant, Clif. 346. and declaration is insufficient, &c.

Error assigned, that one defendant died before trial, 2. Mo. Int. 257. After last continuance, Clif. 324. 331. That plaintiff in the first action died before verdict, Law Err. 56. Bro. R. 373.

That issue was in plea of debt and jurata in trespass on the case, Law Err. 58.

That in record the several sums of money are written in figures instead of at large, 59.

No pledges to prosecute, want of attorney, original, and issue in debt, and jurata in trespass, and sums in figures, Bro. R. 371.

Error assigned for insufficiency of the return of the writ of enquiry, for "that it appears by the writ, was returnable on Monday next after the quindenis of Holy Trinity, when the quindenis was on Monday, and that in the same term in said court, before the king himself, there was no certain day returned, and so the plaint wholly discontinued before judgment, Law Err. 131. Bro. R. 370.

That there is a manifest variance between original and declaration, 1. Bro. 214. Not stated who was the mayor of the city of C. and that the name of the mayor is left out of the record, 122. For variance between the first declaration of the plea and declaration on which judgment was given against defendant, 2. Bro. 122.

In the exchequer, for that plaintiff, as debtor of our lord the king, brought his bill against defendant before the barons when he was not debtor, as he ought, 123.

That the attorney named for the parties was not attorney at the time of the trial of the plea, Ibid. That the jury found C. a defendant, also guilty, and in the rendition of the judgment of recovery no mention is made of that C. Ibid. That the issue whether plaintiff was a freeman or a villain of defendant belonging to his manor of S. in the county of L. was tried by men of the city of London, Re. Dec. 261. That defendant demanded judgment if plaintiff ought to be answered to his writ; and plaintiff, in reply, says, that he, by the said objection, ought not to be barred when from his action, when he ought to have said that he ought not to be barred from answering his writ, Ibid. 262.

Defendant says, that within age, could not be assigned for error, for that the jury gave a verdict to the contrary. Plaintiff says, that it could be assigned that he had no notice of trial of the issue taken against him by default. Demurrer, and after several continuances plaintiff pleads release of errors after last continuance, and defendant non est factum, and issue, Ibid. 305, 306.

Error assigned, that defendant being within age ought not to be taken, fined, or imprisoned, and the entry ought to be nihil de fine, &c. 2. T. Ind. 143.

Error in detinue of one bond, for that by the record it does not appear of what date the bond was, and it does not appear if there was any condition in the bond for the payment of any sum or sums of money or otherwise, as it ought, Re. Dec. 268.

That it does not appear on what day, and when the said J. S. in his lifetime requested the said W. to deliver the said bond to the said J. or on what day the said K. after the death of J. was sole, or the said B. and K. after their nuptials celebrated between them, requested the said bond, 269.

In detinue, that there is no writ of scire facias issued against T. P. to shew whether the

- the conditions therein above-mentioned on the part of T. himself was performed or not, 295.
- That when the said L. brought into court the said writing, and the writing at the time of the said verdict, and judgment thereon remained to be delivered to him, or whom the court should consider the jury impannelled by their verdict, did not find damages for the detention of the writing, Ibid.
- For variance between the original and writ of capias, for that R. in his addition in the said original named esquire, and in his addition in the said writ of capias thereon issued, is named knight, Ibid. 301.
- Where plaintiff counted by Gibson, his attorney, and the name of baptism of the said G. wholly omitted, Ibid. That neither the said J. M. had warrant to prosecute by said F. A. in said plea, or did said R. G. ever have any warrant to appear for R. G. in the plea, 302. 324. Law Err. 57. Clif. 324. Bro. R. 371.
- That it is not certified by the record that plaintiff brought his original against defendant in his plea aforesaid of the debt aforesaid in the record as above specified, so that it does not appear that the justices had any legal warrant to hold said plea, Re. Dec. 323.
- That the continuance of the plea is not certified by any record or return from the term of St. Michael till the term of the Holy Trinity, so that was wholly discontinued before judgment, 324.
- That the original writ of the plaint aforesaid was before the justices of our lord the king of the bench is filed, and is not returned nor sent before our lord the king, Re. Dec. 351.
- That the writ is not sufficient in law, for that in the same writ it does not appear before whom or what justices, nor in what court of our said lord the king it is returnable, Ibid.
- That the original writ in the plea aforesaid was not entered or purchased until after the verdict given by the jury in the said plea of the day of the entry of the judgment, and that the said being so insufficient, remains of record before the justices of our lord the king of the bench, Ibid.
- That there was no original to warrant the summons in the declaration mentioned, Law Err. 58. Clif. 325. 2. San. 104.
- That there are not fifteen days between the day of the teste of the said writ of error returnable before our lord the king in Ireland and the return thereof, and therefore all proceedings thereon is without legal warrant, and void in law, Re. Dec. 355.
- That on the adjudication of a writ of cartiorari, &c. it is commanded to the same justices that that writ be sent to our said lord the king without delay, together with this writ, where the adjudication of the said writ was not that writ, but a warrant only to make out the writ and mandamus in form aforesaid, 356.
- That the declaration is insufficient, and judgment on the verdict insufficient, Law, Err. 88.

EJECTMENT.—NOTICE.

MR. IRELAND,

Notice in ejectment.

I am informed that you are in possession of or claim title to the premises in this declaration of ejectment mentioned, or some part thereof, and I, being sued in the action as a casual ejector, and having no claim or title to the same premises, do advise you to appear next Michaelmas term in his majesty's court of king's bench at W. by some attorney of that court, and then and there by rule of the same court to cause yourself to be made defendant in my stead, otherwise I sha'l suffer judgment to go against me, and you will be turned out of possession.

I am your friend,

R. ROE.

Case on the above declaration for opinion, how to lay demises where there is a minor, a trustee, and dowager. Whether notice to quit is necessary to be given to an under tenant who holds over after the original tenant has quitted? On whom such notice is to be served where such under-tenant is a bankrupt? Whether such under-tenant would be liable to double rent under the statute?

COSENS was lessee of a messuage, yard, backside, and premises, in the parish, &c. for a term of years which expired the 15th of May last; at Lady-day 1788, he let the premises to Thomas Ireland, who has ever since occupied them as his undertenant. Ireland is now become a bankrupt, and the landlord wants to let the premises to another person; but Ireland became determined to continue the occupation till he is forced to quit, and the assignees do not care to interfere in the matter. The landlord is trustee for a young man who is a minor, and has power to sell the estate, except the dower of testator's widow, which is Mrs. Harvey, to whom they have paid rent. The lease expiring on the sixteenth day of May last, and no further agreement or rent having been made or paid since, I apprehend no notice is necessary to be given to Cosens or his under tenant to quit, but that a declaration in ejectment may be delivered immediately. As Cosens is a tenant at sufferance, Cosens is desirous that Ireland should be compelled to quit, and will not enter appearance to the ejectment. J. M. is the name of the trustee of this house; E. H. the widow entitled to dower; Cosens, the tenant; Thomas Ireland, the undertenant, now a bankrupt, &c.; Crokes and Chalmot, assignees under the commission.—If you think with me that an ejectment might be maintained without notice, please to fill up a declaration with the proper parties and send me, and let me know if the declaration should be delivered to both assignees, and one of them lives at Bristol. The assignee at Bristol sends me word that they shall part the rent to Michaelmas and then leave the premises to the bankrupt. But as the bankrupt took them at Lady-day, can the assignees discharge themselves at that period? We do not mean to charge double rent of Cosens, and the undertenant is not liable to it.

OPINION.—I have perused the case on which this action is founded, and am of opinion that in order to prevent any surprise or miscarriage in a more advanced state of the proceedings, on account of the actual vesting of the legal estate in the premises in question it will be prudent to lay as many demises in the declaration as there are parties who have an interest. For this reason I have declared upon the demise of the trustees, the minor, and the dowager; so that whichever of them has the legal estate the plaintiff must succeed.

A copy of the declaration must be served upon the tenant in possession only, whoever he is, and he will be bound under the penalty of three years improved rent of the premises to give notice thereof forthwith to his landlord, under the statute of 11. Geo. 2. c. 19. s. 12. Now it appears by the case that Ireland is the only tenant in possession, therefore it is not necessary to deliver copies of the declaration either to Cosens or Ireland's assignees. Notice to quit before ejectment brought is only necessary where such notice is to determine the term; but here Cosens's time being expired, and no rent received since, nor any act done to justify the possession of Ireland or of Cosens, the continuance in possession of Ireland is in my opinion tortious, and he is liable to be ejected without any previous notice to quit. If any benefit could arise by giving Ireland notice to quit or pay double rent, I should think

if such was given, and he should continue and hold over, he would be liable to pay at the rate of double the yearly value, equally with Consens or any other tenant holding over under the like circumstances, by force of the statute 4 Geo. 2. c. 28 s. 1. which extends to sub-tenants.

Opinion to the above declaration.

I have perused the state of the facts in this case, and have re drawn the declaration according to my own idea of the plaintiff's case, and to meet the wish of the parties to recover the whole of the mesne profits in case of a verdict in their favour. As tenants in common cannot join in one demise, their estates being several and distinct, it becomes necessary to insert six several Counts to include the whole of their six undivided shares; but as great part of the mesne profits of the whole estate accrued due to Mrs. Beebee, in her lifetime, and of Isaac Thompson's sixth part since her death in his lifetime, it struck me as likewise requisite and necessary to add Counts upon their several demises, in order to recover the whole of the mesne profits; for without these Counts the intermediate times in which the rent of the estate during these periods of time, will necessarily form a chasm upon the record upon which no damages can be given at common law, can by a subsequent action for mesne profits, inasmuch as the day of the demise of each person's interest cannot be laid anterior to the commencement of that interest: but with respect to all the tenants in common their title did not accrue till Mrs. Beebee's death, for the last three years of her life, that is from 83 to 86, John Parks the tenant in possession, received the profits of the whole estate, which, in case of a verdict against him, he will have no right to retain. And as to Abraham's sixth share of the estate devolving to him upon the death of his father Isaac, that did not spring till after the decease of the latter. Thomas Parks has likewise received the profits of Isaac's estate under the same defective title. Now by thus connecting the title of the plaintiff by the insertion of the second Count last noticed I presume I have enabled him to use the judgment in this ejectment (if he recovers) as complete evidence of his right to all the mesne profits in a subsequent action of trespass for them. That the person representing Mrs. Beebee and Isaac Thompson will be entitled to the rents of their estate accrued in their respective lifetimes, is no objection I conceive to the plaintiff's right to recover them, because he will appear upon the record to be legally entitled to the whole, and when recovered these representatives, and the present plaintiff may divide them according to their respective shares. I did not think it worth while to declare in the name of Abraham Thompson's next friend on account of his infancy, because a demise by an infant is good to try a title in ejectment if unobjected to by the adverse party; and it is not likely that the objection should be taken here, as the defendant will be sufficiently severed in his costs by the other defendants, which is the only reason for objecting at all; but if he does object it may be done then as well as now.

T. BARROW.

EJECTMENT.

CASE FOR OPINION.

How far one tenant in common is bound by the act of the other in letting the premises without his consent? and how to proceed to recover his money by entry or ejectment?

A. B. and C. D. are severally entitled to an estate in fee of an estate in, &c. the tenant to which at Lady-day last, by the permission of C. D. but without the knowledge or consent of A. B. or his agent, quitted the same, and let another person into possession thereof as tenant. A. B. is desirous to have a tenant to the same estate that he approves, which is not the case in respect of the person who now occupies the estate, and would therefore be advised what step she is to take either to cause the present occupier to quit, or to enable him to name another person jointly to stock the farm with him if that can be effected; and if so, what notice is requisite to be given, and to whom? whether to the tenant who quitted at Lady day last or to the person who now occupies the farm? or to both of them? and what such notice should contain, and whether such notice, being subscribed by the agent, to wit, A. B. will be sufficient to ground any proceedings that may be necessary afterwards to be taken? John Case, the present occupier, who kept the doors and gates belonging to the farm locked after divers notices being given him either to quit or to admit a tenant to stock the farm jointly with him, can the tenant approved of by A. B. or can any other person, and whom, justifying forcing the locks? or what other remedy has A. B. or his tenant in that case? And if in putting his stock on the farm the same should be impounded or carried off by the present occupier, what steps would you advise to be taken, and by whom, to recover satisfaction for the injury? and upon the whole of the case how would you advise A. B. to act herein, as he is determined not to admit the present occupier to continue his tenant if it can be avoided?

OPINION.—It does not appear from the statement of this case what interest the former tenant had in the premises, nor when that interest is determined. If it be not, A. B. has no remedy against the present, who may justify his possession of the whole premises under the former tenant. But supposing the interest of the former tenant is determined, I am of opinion that A. B. and C. D. as tenants in common have each of them equal rights to enter and occupy the land themselves, or to let their respective moieties to under-tenants; and therefore if A. B. is not satisfied with C. D.'s tenant, he may, without giving any previous notice either to the former or present tenant, let his moiety of land to any other person, who will have a right under that letting to enter and stock it; or if he should be opposed in entering, or should be expelled from the possession after he has entered, he may maintain an ejectment; it being clearly settled that although one tenant in common take the whole profits the other hath no remedy by law against him for taking the whole profits in an ejectment: yet if he drive out of the land any cattle of the other tenant in common, or do not suffer him to enter or occupy the land, this is an ejectment or expulsion, whereupon he may have an ejectment maintained for the one moiety and recover damages. See Coke's Comment, 332. 12. Mod. 567. and 3. Will 18. — In case the present occupier should keep the gates and doors belonging to the farm locked, A. B. or his tenant will have a right to force them, so as it can be done peaceably. but he must not use any personal violence or be guilty of a breach of the peace. And if on putting on his stock the same should be driven off and impounded he will be entitled to maintain trespass or replevin; and if there be a complete ouster he may also maintain an ejectment.

THOMAS BARROW.

FURTHER CASE.—The former tenant was only such by parol agreement from year to year, and has occupied the farm under such agreement for a number of years. You will please therefore to reconsider this case and give your opinion respecting the notice necessary to be given in order to enable A. B. to recover the possession of his moiety, and to appoint a tenant of his own thereto.

OPINION.—Taking it for granted that the interest of the former tenant was determined upon his quitting the premises in favour of the present tenant, and that A. B. had never received rent from the latter, or otherwise acknowledged him to be his tenant. I am of opinion that no notice is necessary to be given in order to enable A. B. to recover the possession session of his moiety ; and indeed that such a notice would be improper, and prevent him from proceeding by ejectment till the expiration of it ; and even then supposing the latter to have been joint, it might be doubtful how far a separate notice from one of the tenants in common would be regular.

KENT, to wit. Charles Ward, late of Maidstone, in the county of Kent, esquire, John Luck, late of the same place, yeoman, and Thomas Howard, late of the same place, yeoman, were attached to answer unto John Denn in a plea; wherefore with force and arms they entered into one messuage, two stables, two barns, two gardens, two curtilages, eight acres of land, eight acres of meadow, and eight acres of pasture, with the appurtenances, in the parish of Westerham, in the said county, which Richard Hoddesden demised to the said John Denn for a term which is not yet expired, and ejected him from his said farm; and also wherefore with force and arms they entered into one other messuage, two other stables, two other barns, two other gardens, two other curtilages, eight other acres of land, eight other acres of meadow, and eight other acres of pasture, with the appurtenances, in the said parish of Westerham, in the said county, which which Thomas Hoddesden demised to the said John Denn for a term which is not yet expired, and ejected him from his said last-mentioned farm §: And also wherefore with force and arms they entered into one other messuage, &c. with the appurtenances, in the said parish of W. in the said county, which the said Richard Hoddesden demised to the said John Denn for a term which is not yet expired, and ejected him from his said last-mentioned farm: And also wherefore with force and arms they entered into one other messuage, &c. with the appurtenances, in the said parish of W. in the said county, which the said T. Hoddesden demised to the said John Denn for a term which is not yet expired, and ejected him from his said last-mentioned farm. [The recital of the writ as to the fifth and sixth Counts is a mere repetition of what follows this mark above §], and other wrongs to him did, against the peace of our lord the now king, and to the great damage of the said John Denn; and thereupon the said John Denn, by Henry Holt his attorney, complains, that whereas the said Richard Hoddesden, on the tenth of October A. D. 1768, at the said parish of W. in the said county, had demised to the said J. D. the tenements first above-mentioned with the appurtenances, to have and to hold the same tenements, with the appurtenances, to the said J. D. and his assigns, from the ninth of October to the full end and term of thirty-one years from thence next ensuing, and fully to be complete and ended; by virtue of which said demise the said John D. entered into the said tenements first above-mentioned, with the appurtenances, and was thereof possessed, and being so possessed thereof the said Charles W. John Luck, and Thomas Howard afterwards, to wit, on the said tenth of October in the year aforesaid, with force and arms entered into the said tenements first above-mentioned, with the appurtenances, which the said Richard Hoddesden demised to the said John D. in manner aforesaid for the term aforesaid, which is not yet expired, and ejected him from his said farm: And also that whereas the said Thomas Hoddesden, on the said tenth of October, A. D. aforesaid, at the said parish of W. in the said county, had demised to the said John D. the said tenements secondly above mentioned, with the appurtenances, to have and to hold the same tenements, with the appurtenances, to the said John D. and his assigns from the ninth of October aforesaid to the full end and term of thirty-one years from thence next ensuing, and fully to be complete and ended; by virtue of which said last-mentioned demise the said John Denn entered into the said tenements secondly above-mentioned, with the appurtenances, and was thereof possessed; and being so possessed thereof, the said Charles W. John Luck, and Thomas H. afterwards, to wit, on the said tenth of October A. D. aforesaid, with force and arms entered into the said tenements secondly above-mentioned, with the appurtenances, which the said Thomas Hoddesden demised to the said John D. in manner aforesaid for the term last aforesaid, which is not yet expired, and ejected him from his said last-mentioned farm: And also that whereas the said Richard Hoddesden on the sixteenth "twelfth" day

day of November A. D. 1777 “1787,” at the said parish of W. in the said county, had demised to the said John D. the said tenements thirdly “fifthly” above-mentioned, with the appurtenances, to have and to hold the same tenements, with the appurtenances, to the said John D. and his assigns from the fifteenth “eleventh” day of November “last” aforesaid to the full end and term of twenty-one years from thence next ensuing and fully to be complete and ended; by virtue of which said last-mentioned demise the said John D. entered into the said tenements thirdly “fifthly” above-mentioned, with the appurtenances, and was thereof possessed; and being so possessed thereof, the said Charles W. John L. and Thomas H. afterwards, to wit, on the said sixteenth “twelfth” day of November A. D. last aforesaid, with force and arms entered into the said tenements thirdly “fifthly” above-mentioned, with the appurtenances, which the said Richard Hoddesden demised to the said John Denn in manner aforesaid, for the term last aforesaid, which is not yet expired, and ejected him from his said last-mentioned farm: And also that whereas the said Thomas Hoddesden, on the said sixteenth “twelfth” day of November A. D. last aforesaid, at the said parish of W. in the said county, had demised to the said John Denn the tenements fourthly “lastly” above-mentioned, with the appurtenances, to have and to hold the same tenements, with the appurtenances, to the said John D. and his assigns from the fifteenth “eleventh” day of November “last” aforesaid, to the full end and term of twenty-one years from thence next ensuing, and fully to be complete and ended; by virtue of which said last-mentioned demise the said John D. entered into the said tenements fourthly “lastly” above mentioned, with the appurtenances, and was possessed thereof, and being so thereof possessed, the said Charles W. John L. and Thomas H. afterwards, to wit, on the said sixteenth “twelfth” day of November A. D. last aforesaid, with force and arms entered into the said tenements fourthly “lastly” above-mentioned, with the appurtenances, which the said Thomas Hoddesden demised to the said John D. in manner aforesaid for the term last aforesaid, which is not yet expired, and ejected him from his said last-mentioned farm [The fifth and sixth Counts were exactly like the third and fourth, except what is in Italic, and inserting what is within inverted commas], and other wrongs to him did, against the peace of our lord the now king; wherefore the said John D. says that he is injured, and hath sustained damage to the value of five hundred pounds, and therefore he brings suit, &c.

Plea.

And the said Charles W. John L. and Thomas H. by John Parker their attorney, come and defend the force and injury, and say, that they are not guilty of the several trespasses and ejectments above laid to their charge, in manner and form as the said John Denn hath above thereof complained against them; and of this they put themselves upon the country, &c. and the said John D. doth the like; therefore it is commanded to the said sheriff

Sheriff that he cause to come before our lord the king on the morrow of the Holy Trinity, wheresoever he shall then be in England, twelve, &c. by whom, &c.; and who neither, &c. to recognize, &c. because as well, &c. [Here followed two continuances by virecomes non misit breve; the one to the morrow of All Souls, the other to eight days of St. Hilary]; at which day, before our lord the king at Westminster, come the parties aforesaid by their attornies aforesaid, and the sheriff doth not send the said writ, nor hath he done any thing thereupon, and upon this the said Charles W. John L. and Thomas H. relinquishing so much of their said plea by them above pleaded as relates to the said tenements fifthly and lastly bove-mentioned, with the appurtenances, say, that they cannot deny the said action of the said John Denn in respect of those trespasses and ejectments, nor but that they are guilty thereof in manner and form as the said John Denn hath above thereof complained against them: And thereupon the said John Denn acknowledges that he will not further prosecute against the said Charles W. John L. and Thomas H. in respect of the trespasses and ejectments in the several tenements firstly, secondly, thirdly, and fourthly above-mentioned, with the appurtenances: And he further saith and acknowledgeth that he hath sustained damages by reason of the trespasses and ejectments above confessed by the said Charles W. John L. and Thomas H. in the said tenements fifthly and lastly above mentioned, besides his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf expended to one shilling and no more; and because the said Charles W. John L. and Thomas H. do not deny the said allegation, but admit the same to be true, the said John Denn prays judgment and his damages so acknowledged in form aforesaid, together with his costs and charges aforesaid to be adjudged to him, &c.; therefore it is considered that the said John Denn recover against the said C.W. J. L. and T. H. his several terms yet to come and unexpired of and in the said tenements fifthly and lastly above-mentioned, with the appurtenances, and the damages in form aforesaid acknowledged, and also ten pounds sixteen shillings and threepence for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf expended by the court of our lord the king now here adjudged to the said John D. with his assent, which said damages, costs, and charges amount in the whole to ten pounds seventeen shillings and threepence, and let the said John Denn be in mercy for his false complaint against the said C. W. J. L. and T. H. as to the trespasses and ejectments the said tenements firstly, secondly, thirdly, and fourthly above-mentioned, with the appurtenances, and let the said C. W. John L. and T. H. go thereof without day, &c.; and the said John Denn prays the writ of the lord the king to be directed to the sheriff of the said county, to cause him to have full possession of the several terms yet to come of and in the said tenements fifthly and lastly above-mentioned, with the appurtenances, and it is granted to him returnable before our lord the king in

HAMPSHIRE, to wit. John Doe complains of Sarah Mitchell being in the custody of the marshal of the Marshalsea of our lord the now king before the king himself; for that the said Sarah, on, &c. in the nineteenth year of the reign of our said lord the now king, with force and arms broke and entered into one messuage, one curtilage, and one rood of land, with the appurtenances, in the parish of, &c. in the county of H. aforesaid of the said John, and ejected, put out, and amoved the said John from his possession and occupation thereof for a long time, to wit, from thence until the day of exhibiting of this bill, and during all that time had, received, perceived, and took all the issues and profits of the said tenements being of the yearly value of five pounds to his own use, whereby the said John not only lost all the issues and profits of the said tenements during all that time, but was forced and obliged to lay out and expend, and did necessarily lay out and expend divers sums of money, amounting in the whole to forty pounds, in and about the obtaining possession of the said tenements, to wit, at, &c. in, &c. and the said Sarah then and there did other injuries to the said plaintiff, against the peace of our lord the now king, and to the damage of the said John of forty pounds, and therefore he brings his suit.

MIDDLESEX, to wit. John Denn puts in his place A. B. his attorney against Fenton Robinson, in a plea of trespass and ejectment: Middlesex, to wit. Fenton Robinson puts in his place C. D. his attorney, at the suit of the said John Denn in the plea aforesaid.
Middlesex, to wit. [Here insert the declaration, plea, award of venire, down to second placita verbatim, then go on]; at which day, before our lord the king at Westminster, came the parties aforesaid by their attornies aforesaid, and the Sheriff of Middlesex did not return the said writ, nor did he do any thing thereupon; therefore, as before, let a jury thereupon come before our lord the king wheresoever he shall then be in England, in eight days of St Hilary, by whom, &c. and who neither, &c. because as well, &c. to recognize, &c. the same day is given to the parties aforesaid at the same place, at which day, &c. [Here insert a continuance to Easter term]; afterwards the process thereof being continued between the parties aforesaid of the plea aforesaid, by the jury aforesaid being respited between them before our said lord the king wheresoever, &c. on the morrow of the Holy Trinity, unless the right honourable William, earl of Mansfield, his majesty's chief justice, assigned to hold the pleas before the king himself, shall first come on Friday the ninth day of May, at Westminster Hall, in the said county, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, for default of the jurors, because none of them appeared; at which day, before our lord the king at Westminster, the said J. D. and F. R. came by their respective attornies aforesaid, and the said chief justice hath sent hither his record had in these words, to wit: Afterwards, that is to say, on the day and at the place within contained before William, earl of Mansfield, chief justice within named, John Way, gentleman, being associated to the said chief justice by force of the statute in that case made and provided, came as well the within named J. D. as the within named F. R. by their respective attornies also within named, and the jurors of the jury whereof mention is within made being called likewise come, who to say the truth of the premises within contained, being elected, tried, and sworn, say, that the said F. R. is not guilty of the trespass and ejectment within laid to his charge, in manner and form as the said J. D. hath within complained against the said F. R.; therefore it is considered that the said J. D. take nothing by his writ aforesaid, but for his false complaint against the said F. R. in mercy, and that the said F. R. go thereof without day, &c.; and it is further considered, that the said F. R. recover against the said J. D. for his costs and charges by him laid out and expended in and about his defence in this behalf sustained to the said F. R. by the court of our said lord the king now here with his assent, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and the said F. R. may have execution thereof, &c.

sent a fit person to the rectory of the parish church of K. in the said county of C. which is now vacant, and belongs to her presentation; and whereupon the said Ann, by T. H. her attorney, complains, that whereas one sir James Dalston, baronet, now deceased, was in his lifetime, to wit, on, &c. seised of the manor of K. with its appurtenances, to which manor the advowson of the said rectory, with its appurtenances then belonged, in his demesne as of fee; and being so seised thereof as aforesaid, he the said sir J. D. afterwards, to wit, on, &c. at, &c. presented to the said church, being then vacant, one G. G. his clerk, who on the presentation of the said sir J. D. was admitted, instituted, and inducted into the same in the time of peace, in the time of our sovereign lord George the Second, late king of Great Britain; and being so seised thereof afterwards, to wit, on, &c. at, &c. in, &c. by a certain indenture of bargain and sale then and there made between the said sir J. D. (by his name and description therein mentioned) of the one part, and Thomas Metcalfe, clerk (by his name and description therein mentioned) of the other part; one part of which said indenture, sealed with the seal of the said sir George, the said Ann now brings here into court, the date whereof is the day and year last aforesaid, for the consideration therein mentioned, the said sir J. bargained and sold to the said T. M. the said advowson of the rectory aforesaid, with the rights, members, and appurtenances thereof, to have and to hold the same unto the said T. M. from the day of the date of the said indenture unto the full end and term of one year from thence next ensuing, and fully to be complete and ended, as by the said indenture more fully appears, by virtue whereof the said T. M. was possessed of the said advowson for the said term; and being so possessed thereof, and the reversion thereof belonging to the said sir J. as aforesaid, he the said sir G. afterwards, to wit, on, &c. at, &c. in, &c. by a certain other indenture then and there made between the said sir G. (by his name, &c.) of the one part, and the said T. M. by, &c. of the other part (one part of, &c.) granted and released to the said T. M. his heirs and assigns for ever, the reversion of the said advowson of the rectory aforesaid, with the appurtenances, to have and to hold the same unto the said Thomas, his heirs and assigns for ever, to the use of the said Thomas, his heirs and assigns for ever, as by the said last-mentioned indenture more fully appears; by virtue whereof, and by force of the statute made for transferring uses into possession, he the said Thomas was seised of and in the said advowson as in gross by itself as of fee and right; and being so seised thereof, he the said Thomas afterwards, to wit, on, &c. at, &c. died seised of his said estate therein, upon whose death the said advowson of the said rectory descended to one W. M. as the son and heir of the said T. M. whereby the said W. M. was seised of the said advowson of the said rectory as in gross by itself as of fee and right; and the said W. M. being so seised thereof afterwards, to wit, on, &c. by a certain indenture then and there made between the said W. M. (by his, &c.)

&c.) of the one part, and the said A. M. mother of the said W. M. (by her, &c.) of the other part, (one part of, &c.) the said W. M. for the consideration in the said last-mentioned indenture mentioned, did bargain and sell to the said Ann the said advowson of the said rectory, with the appurtenances, to have and to hold the same to the said Ann from the day of the date of the said last-mentioned indenture unto the full end and term of one whole year from thence next ensuing, and fully to be complete and ended, as by the said last-mentioned indenture more fully appears, by virtue whereof the said Ann was possessed of the said advowson for the said last-mentioned term; and being so possessed thereof, and the reversion thereof belonging to the said W. M. as aforesaid, he the said W. M. afterwards, to wit, on, &c. by a certain other indenture then and there made between the said W. M. (by, &c. of the one part), and the said Ann, (by, &c.) of the other part (one part of, &c.) granted and released to the said Ann and her heirs his said reversion of the said advowson of the rectory aforesaid, with the appurtenances, to have and to hold the same unto the said Ann and her heirs for ever, as by the said last-mentioned indenture more fully appears; by virtue whereof and by force of the statute made for transferring uses into possession, she the said Ann was seised of and in the said reversion of the said advowson of the said rectory as aforesaid as in gross by itself as of fee and right; and the said Ann being so seised thereof, the said church afterwards, to wit, on, &c. became vacant by the death of the said G. G. whereby it then and there belonged and now belongs to the said Ann, to present a fit person to the said church, so being vacant as aforesaid, but the said bishop and earl will not permit her, but unjustly hinder her; wherefore she the said Ann saith she is injured, and hath sustained damage to the value of one thousand pounds, and therefore she brings her suit, &c.

And the said John, bishop of Carlisle, by A. B. his attorney, Plea by bishop. comes and defends the wrong and injury, when, &c. and saith that he hath nothing, nor doth he claim to have any thing in the rectory of the church aforesaid but the admission, institution, and induction of the rectors of the same church, as ordinary of the same church; and this, &c.; wherefore, &c. if the said Ann, without assigning a special impediment in the said bishop, ought to have or maintain her said action against him, &c.: And the said James, earl of L. by A. B. his attorney, comes and defends Plea by pseudo patron. the wrong and injury, when, &c. and says, (actio non); because he says, that the said sir J. D. deceased, in his lifetime, and before the making of the said indenture of lease and release to the said T. M. in the said declaration mentioned, to wit, on, &c. was seised in his demesne as of fee of and in the manor of K. in the county of C. with the appurtenances, to which said manor the said advowson of the said rectory, with the appurtenances, was then appendant, and being so seised as aforesaid, he the said sir J. D. afterwards, and whilst he was so seised, to wit, on, &c. presented to the same church, the same being then vacant, the said

G. G. his clerk, who on the said presentation of the said sir J. D. was admitted, instituted, and inducted into the same, and by virtue of the said presentation remained and continued in the possession of the said church from thence until the same became vacant by his death, as in the said declaration is alledged; and the said sir J. D. being so seised of the said manor as aforesaid, with the appurtenances, and the said advowson being so appendant to the same as aforesaid, whilst he was so seised, and whilst the said advowson was so appendant as aforesaid, and before the making of the said indenture of bargain and sale and release to the said T. M. in the said declaration mentioned, to wit, on, &c. at, &c. by a certain indenture of bargain and sale then and there made between the said sir J. D. (by his, &c.) of the one part, and Joshua Wilson, (by his, &c.) of the other part, which said indenture is now in the possession of the said Ann, so that the said earl cannot bring the same into court here; he the said sir J. D. for the considerations therein mentioned, bargained and sold to the said J. W. the said manor, together with the said advowson of the rectory aforesaid, so being dependant thereto as aforesaid, and all other the appurtenances thereto belonging, to have and to hold the same unto the said J. W. from the day of the date of the said indenture unto the full end and term of one whole year from thence next ensuing, and fully to be complete and ended, as by the said indenture more fully appears; by virtue whereof the said J. W. became and was possessed of the said manor and advowson, with the appurtenances, for the said term; and being so possessed, and the reversion thereof belonging to the said sir J. D. as aforesaid, he the said sir J. D. afterwards, to wit, on, &c. by a certain other indenture then and there made between the said said sir J. D. (by his, &c.) of the one part, and the said J. W. (by his, &c.) of the other part, which said last-mentioned indenture, sealed with the seal of the said sir J. D. is in the possession of the said Ann, so that the said earl cannot bring the same into court here, granted and released to the said J. W. his heirs and assigns for ever the said reversion of the said manor and advowson, with the appurtenances, to have and to hold the same unto the said J. W. his heirs and assigns for ever, to the use of the said J. W. his heirs and assigns, as by the said last mentioned indenture more fully appears; by virtue whereof, and by force of the statute made for transferring uses into possession, he the said J. W. then and there became and was seised in his demesne as of fee of and in the said manor, and as of fee and right of and in the said advowson, so being appendant thereto as aforesaid, with the appurtenances, and so remained and continued from thence until and at the time of making the indenture of lease and release thereof to W. M. as hereinafter mentioned: And the said earl in fact further says, that the said J. W. being so seised of the said manor and advowson as aforesaid respectively, and the said advowson being so appendant to the said manor as aforesaid, whilst the said J. W. was so seised, and whilst the said advowson was so appendant to the said manor as aforesaid, to wit, on, &c. by a certain other other indenture of bargain and sale then and there made between the said J. W. (by his, &c.) of the one part, and W. M. (by his, &c.) of the other part, which said last-mentioned indenture is now in possession of the said Ann, so that the said earl cannot bring the same into court here, he the said J. W. for the considerations therein mentioned, bargained and sold to the said W. M. the said manor, together with the aforesaid advowson of the rectory aforesaid, so being appendant thereto as aforesaid, and all other the appurtenances thereto belonging, to have and to hold the same unto the said W. M. from the day of the date of the said last-mentioned indenture unto the full end and term of one whole year from thence next ensuing, and fully to be complete and ended, as by the said last-mentioned indenture more fully appears, by virtue whereof the said W. M. became and was possessed of the said manor and the advowson, with the appurtenances, for the said last-mentioned term; and being so possessed thereof, and the reversion thereof belonging to the said J. W. as aforesaid, he the said J. W. afterwards, to wit, on, &c. by a certain other indenture then and there made between the said J. W. (by his, &c.) of the one part, and the said W. M. (by his, &c.) of the other part, which said last-mentioned indenture sealed with the seal of the said J. W. is in the possession of the said Ann, so that the said earl cannot bring the same into court here, granted and released to the said W. M. his heirs and assigns for ever the said reversion of the said manor and advowson, with the appurtenances, to have and to hold the same unto the said W. M. his heirs and assigns for ever, as by the said last-mentioned indenture more fully appears, by virtue whereof, and by force of the statute made for transferring uses into possession, he the said W. M. then and there became and was seised in his demesne as of fee of and in the said manor, and as of fee and right of and in the said advowson, and so being appendant thereto as aforesaid, with the appurtenances, and so remained and continued from thence until and at the time of the making of the said indenture of lease and release thereof to the said earl as hereafter mentioned: And the said earl in fact further saith, that the said W. M. being so seised of the said manor and advowson as aforesaid respectively, and the said advowson being so appendant to the said manor as aforesaid, whilst the said W. M. was so seised, and whilst the advowson was so appendant to the said manor, to wit, on, &c. in, &c. at, &c. by a certain indenture of bargain and sale then and there made between the said W. M. and Jane his wife, (by their names, &c.) of the one part, and the said earl, (by his name, &c.) of the other part, which said last-mentioned indenture is now in the possession of the said Ann, so that the said earl cannot bring the same into court here, he the said W. M. for the considerations therein mentioned, bargained and sold to the said earl the said manor, together with the aforesaid advowson of the rectory aforesaid so being appendant thereto as aforesaid, and all other the appurtenances thereto belonging, to have and to hold the same unto the said earl from the day of the date of the said indenture until the full end and term of one whole year from thence next ensuing and fully to be complete and ended, as by the said last-mentioned indenture more fully appears; by virtue whereof the said earl became and was possessed of the said manor and the advowson, with the appurtenances, for the said last-mentioned term; and being so possessed thereof, and the reversion thereof belonging to the said W. M. as aforesaid, he the said W. M. afterwards, to wit, on, &c. by a certain other indenture then and there made between the said W. M. and Jane his wife (by, &c.) of the one part, and the said earl (by, &c.) of the other part (which said, &c. as before), granted and released to the said earl, his heirs, and assigns, for ever, the said reversion of the said manor and advowson, with the appurtenances, to have, &c. the same unto the said earl, his heirs, and assigns, as by the last-mentioned indenture more fully appears; by virtue whereof, and by force of the statute made for transferring uses into possession, he the said earl then and there became and was, and from thenceforth hitherto hath been, and still is seised in his demesne as of fee of and in the said manor, and as of fee and of right of and in the said advowson so being appendant thereto as aforesaid, with the appurtenances, for which reason he the said earl prevented, and at present hinders the said Ann from presenting a fit person to the said church; and this, &c.; wherefore, &c. if, &c.; and he also thereupon prays a writ to the bishop, &c.

bishop's plea.

And the said Ann, as to the said plea of the said bishop (inasmuch as he hath not nor claimeth to have any thing in the said church, or in the advowson thereof, except the admission, institution, and induction of parsons to the said church, and what other rights belong to an ordinary, as ordinary of that place), prays judgment against the said bishop, and a writ to the said bishop, &c.; therefore it is considered that the said Ann recover against the said bishop her presentation to the said church, and that she have a writ to the said bishop, that notwithstanding his disclaimer, he admit a fit person to the said church on the presentation of the said A.; and the said bishop is not amerced, because he hath excused himself of any particular disturbance, but let execution thereof be stayed until the said plea between the said Ann and the said earl be determined, &c.: And the said Ann, as to the plea of the said earl by him above pleaded in bar, says, that by reason of any thing therein alledged she the said Ann ought not to be barred from having and maintaining her aforesaid action against the said earl; because he as before says, that the said sir J. D. deceased, in his lifetime, and before the presentation of the said G. G. to the church aforesaid by the said sir J. G. in the said declaration of the said Ann mentioned, was seised of the said manor of K. with its appurtenances, to which manor the advowson of the said rectory then belonged in his demesne as of fee, and being so seised of the said manor, with the advowson appendant thereto, until the said sir

J. D.

J. D. bargained and sold the said advowson to the said T. M. his heirs, and assigns for ever, in manner and form as the said Ann hath in her said declaration above alledged; without this, that the said sir J. D. bargained and sold the said manor, with the appurtenances, and granted or released the reversion thereof to the said J. W. in manner and form as the said earl hath in his said plea above alledged; and this, &c.; wherefore inasmuch as the said earl hath above acknowledged that he hath hindered, and still doth hinder the said Ann from presenting to the said church, the said Ann prays judgment and her damages by reason of the said hindrance, together with a writ to the bishop, to be adjudged, &c.

Traverse of grant of manor.

C. RUNNINGTON.

And as to the said plea of the said Ann by her above pleaded by way of reply to the said plea of the said earl by him above pleaded in bar, he the said earl says (actio non); because he says as before, that the said sir J. D. bargained and sold the said manor, with the appurtenances, and granted and released the reversion thereof to the said J. W. in manner and form as the said earl hath above in his said plea alledged; without this, that the said sir J. D. being so seised of the said manor with the said advowson appendant thereto as aforesaid, remained and continued so seised of the said manor with the advowson appendant thereto until the said J. D. bargained and sold the said advowson to the said T. M. his heirs, and assigns for ever, as the said Ann hath in her said declaration above alledged; and this, &c.; wherefore, &c. if, &c.; and that he may have a writ to the bishop, &c.

Traverse that sir J. D. continued seised of manor till, &c.

GILES ROOKE.

And the said earl says nothing in bar or preclusion of the said action in bar or preclusion of the said plea of the said Ann by her above by way of reply pleaded to the plea of the said earl by him above pleaded in bar, but departs in contempt of the court, whereby the said Ann remains therein undefended against the said earl; therefore it is considered that the said Ann do recover against the said earl her presentation to the rectory aforesaid, and that she have a writ to the bishop of Carlisle, the ordinary of the said rectory, that he notwithstanding his disclaimer or the claim of the said earl do on the presentation of the said Ann admit a fit person to the rectory aforesaid, &c.; and the said earl be in mercy, &c.; but because it is unknown whether the said church is still vacant, and whether six months have passed since the death of the said G. G. and what is the value of the said church by the year; therefore it is commanded to the sheriff of the said county of C. that by the oath of twelve good and lawful men of his bailiwick he diligently enquire whether the said church is vacant or not, and if it is not vacant upon whose presentation it is full, and whether the space of six months has elapsed since the death of the said G. G. and what is the value of the said church by the year according to the true value thereof, and that the inquisition that he shall

and inducted into the same in time of peace, in the time of her said late majesty queen Anne; and the said George Barber being so seised of the advowson aforesaid, the said church became vacant by the death of the said William Elseley the last incumbent thereof, and still is vacant as in the said declaration is above alledged, and by reason thereof it belongeth to the said George Barber to present a fit person to the said church being vacant as aforesaid; without this, that the said sir Michael Warton granted the said advowson of the said church to the said Michael Warton, esquire, in manner and form as the said attorney general hath in declaring above alledged, and this the said George is ready to verify; wherefore he prays judgment if the said lord the king ought to have his aforesaid action against him, &c.

Imparlances.

And the said sir Dudley Ryder, knight, attorney general of our said lord the king, who, &c. prays day to imparl to the said several pleas of the said Charles Hayes and George Barber, and it is granted to him, &c.; and thereupon day is given, as well to the said sir Dudley Ryder, knight, attorney general of the said lord the king, who, &c. as to the said Charles Hayes and George Barber here until from the day of Easter in fifteen days, to wit, for the said sir Dudley Ryder, knight, attorney general of the said lord the king, who, &c. to imparl to the said pleas, and then to reply to the said pleas, &c. at which day come here as well the said sir Dudley Rider, knight, attorney general of our said lord the king, who, &c. as the said Thomas, archbishop of York, by his attorney, and the said Charles Hayes and George Barber, by their attorney, and the said Thomas, archbishop of York, by his attorney aforesaid, prays leave thereupon to imparl here until on the morrow of the Holy Trinity, and he hath it, &c.; and the same day is given to the said sir Dudley Ryder, knight, attorney general of the lord the king, who, &c. prays further day to imparl to the said several pleas of the said Charles Hayes and the said George Barber, and it is granted to him, &c.; and thereupon day is given as well to the said sir Dudley Ryder, knight, attorney general of the said lord the king, who, &c. as to the said Charles Hayes and George Barber, here until the morrow of the Holy Trinity, to wit, for the said sir Dudley Ryder, knight, attorney general of the said lord the king, who, &c. to imparl to the said pleas, and then to reply to the said pleas, &c. at which day come here as well the said sir Dudley Ryder, knight, attorney general of the said lord the king, who, &c. as the said Thomas, archbishop of York, by his said attorney, and the said C. Hayes and George Barber, by their said attorney, pray further leave thereupon to imparl here until from the day of Saint Michael in three weeks, and he hath it, &c.; and the same day is given to the said sir Dudley Ryder, knight, attorney general of the said lord the king, who, &c.; and the said sir Dudley, &c. prays further day to imparl to the said several pleas of the said Charles Hayes and George Barber, and it is granted to him, &c.; and thereupon

thereupon a day is given as well to the said sir Dudley Ryder, knight, attorney general of the said lord the king, who, &c. as to the said Charles Hayes and George Barber, until from the day of Saint Michael in three weeks here, to wit, to the said sir Dudley Ryder, knight, attorney general of the said lord the king, who, &c. to imparl to the said pleas, and then to reply to the said pleas, at which day come here as well the said sir Dudley Ryder, knight, attorney general of the said lord the king, who, &c. as the said Thomas, archbishop of York, by his said attorney, and the said Charles Hayes and George Barber, by their said attorney; and the said Thomas, Archbishop of York, by A. B. his attorney, defends the wrong and injury when, &c. and says, that the aforefaid church is within his diocese of York, and that he hath not any thing, nor claims to have any thing in the said church, nor in the advowson of the said church, save the admission, institution, and displacing of the parson of the said church, and other the matters which belong to, and are incumbent on the ordinary, as ordinary of the same place, and this he is ready to verify; wherefore he prays judgment if the said lord the king, without assigning some special disturbance in the person of him the said archbishop in this behalf, ought to maintain the said action against him.

Bishop's plea, where the ordinary is made party to the writ he cannot present by lapse, nor can the metropolitan, if other six months pass, for he has no title but where the ordinary might have presented, and loses his opportunity.

And the said lord the king, in that the said archbishop hath not any thing, nor claims to have any thing in the said church, nor in the advowson of the same church, but the admission, institution, and displacing of parsons of the same church, and other the matters which belong to, and are incumbent on the ordinary, as ordinary of that place, prays judgment against him the said archbishop, and a writ to the said archbishop, &c.; therefore it is considered that the said lord the king recover against the said archbishop his presentation to the said church, and that the said lord the king have a writ to the said archbishop, that notwithstanding the disclaimer of him the said archbishop, the said archbishop admit a fit person to the said church upon the presentation of the said lord the king, but let execution thereof cease until the plea between the said lord the king and Charles Hayes and George Barber is determined, &c. (and says nothing of mercy of the said archbishop, i. e. that the said archbishop be not amerced because he excuses himself of the special impediment.)

And the said sir Dudley Ryder, knight, attorney general of the lord the king, who for the same lord the king in this behalf further says, that the said lord the king, by any thing by the said Charles Hayes above in pleading alledged, ought not to be precluded from having his said action against the said Charles Hayes, for that the said last-mentioned in form aforefaid levied and had, was as to the said manor, with the appurtenances, to which, &c. levied and had, to such uses as he the said attorney general of the said lord the king hath in his declaring above alledged; and this

And the said sir Dudley Ryder, knight, attorney general of the said lord the king, who, &c. says; that the said lord the king ought not to be precluded from having his said action against him the said George Barber, because he saith, that the said sir Michael Warton granted the said advowson of the said church to the said Michael Warton, esquire, in manner and form as the said attorney general of the said lord the king hath in declaring above alleged; and this the said attorney general of the said lord the king, who for the said lord the king in this behalf sues, prays may be enquired of by the country.

And the said Charles Hayes and George Barber severally pray further leave thereupon to imparl to the said several replications of the said sir Dudley Ryder, knight, attorney general of the said lord the king, who, &c. and it is granted to them, &c.; and thereupon a day is given as well to the said Charles Hayes and George Barber, as to the said sir Dudley Ryder, knight, and the attorney general of the said lord, who, &c. here until in eight days of Saint Hilary, to wit, for them the said Charles Hayes and George Barber severally to imparl to the several replications, and then to rejoin, &c.; the same day is given to the said sir Dudley Ryder, knight, attorney general of the said lord the king, who, &c. at which day come here as well the said Charles Hayes and George Barber, as the said sir Dudley Ryder, attorney general of the said lord the king, who, &c.; and the said sir Dudley Ryder, knight, attorney general of the said lord the king, who, &c. prays that the said Charles Hayes and George Barber severally do answer to the said several replications of the said sir Dudley Ryder, knight, attorney general of the said lord the king, who, &c.; and the said Charles Hayes likewise puts himself upon the country, and the said George Barber likewise puts himself upon the country; therefore to try the several issues above joined,

Sylvester of the one part, and Wm. Cock of the other. Assigned over the remainder of his term to said Wm. Cock, by virtue of which assignment, W. Cock was possessed of the said manor to which, &c. and being so possessed made his will and appointed Simon Aris and Robert Temple his executors. That the said Wm. Cock died so possessed thereof after whose death the executors proved his will.

By reason to which, &c. with the appurtenances, and became and were whereof Simon Aris and Robt Temple, executors, were possessed thereof for the residue of the said term of years then to come and unexpired, and the said Simon Aris and Robert Temple afterwards, to wit, on the third of June 1731, being so possessed of the said manor, to which, &c. with the appurtenances, for the residue of the said term of years then to come and unexpired, at Burnham, &c. aforesaid, by a certain indenture quadrupartite then and there made between the said Simon Aris and Robert Temple of the first part, one Elizabeth Hancock, the then wife of one Gustavus Hancock, esquire, of the second part, the said Thomas Harris of the third part, and John Anstis, esquire, now deceased, late father of the said John Anstis the now plaintiff of the fourth part, (the first part of which said indenture, sealed with the seal of the said Simon Aris and Robert Temple, the said John Anstis the now plaintiff brings here into court, the date whereof is the day and year last mentioned), for the consideration therein mentioned did assign all their estate, right, title, interest, and term of years which they then had to come and unexpired, of and in the aforesaid manor, to which, &c. with the appurtenances, unto the said John Anstis in his life time, now deceased, late father of the said John Anstis the now plaintiff, by virtue of which last-mentioned assignment the said John Anstis, esquire, late father of the said John Anstis the now plaintiff, entered into the said manor, to which, &c. with the appurtenances, and became and was possessed thereof, and being so possessed thereof, and the said church being full as aforesaid, he the said John Anstis, esquire, the now plaintiff's late father, afterwards, to wit, on the twenty-first of November 1734, at Burnham, &c. aforesaid, made his last will and testament in writing, and thereby made and constituted the said John Anstis the now plaintiff executor of his said will; and afterwards, to wit, on the same day and year aforesaid, there died so possessed of the said manor, to which, &c. with the appurtenances, for the residue of the said term of years then to come and unexpired, after whose death the said John Anstis the now plaintiff took upon himself the burthen and execution of the said will, and proved the same in due form of law, to wit, at Burnham, &c. aforesaid, by reason of which premises the said John Anstis the now plaintiff entered into the said manor, to which, &c. with the appurtenances, and became and was possessed thereof for the residue of the said term of years then to come and unexpired, and yet is possessed thereof; and being so possessed thereof, the said church of Burnham, &c. became vacant by the death of the said Thomas Green the last incumbent thereof, and yet is vacant, and by reason thereof it belongeth to the said John Anstis the now plaintiff as executor aforesaid to present a fit person to the said church so being vacant, and the said Thomas, bishop then plaintiff, of Norwich, Elizabeth Money, and Humphrey Christian unjustly hinder him; wherefore the said John Anstis the now plaintiff for the residue of the said term of five hundred years, and the said church became void by the death of the incumbent, and that therefore it belonged to him to present to it.

tiff says that he is injured, and hath damage to the value of five hundred pounds, and therefore he brings suit, &c.; and the said The plaintiff John Anstis the now plaintiff brings here into court, as well proferit in curiam the letters testamentary of the said William Cock, which suffi- both the letters testamentary of Wm. Cock, and his late father John Anstis. ciently testify to the court here that the said Simon Aris and Robert Temple are executors of the last will and testament of the said William Cock, and have administration thereof, as also the letters testamentary of the said John Anstis, esquire, the now plaintiff's late father, by which it appears to the court here that the said John Anstis the now plaintiff is executor of the last will and testament of the said John Anstis, esquire, his late father, deceased, and thereof hath administration, &c.

And the said bishop of Norwich, by A. B. his attorney, and Bishop's plea. the said Elizabeth Money, and Humphrey Christian, by C. B. their attorney, come and defend the wrong and injury when, &c. and the said bishop saith, that the aforesaid church is within his diocese of Norwich, and that he hath not any thing, nor claims to have any thing in the said church, nor in the advowson of the said church, except the admission and institution of parsons into the said church and amoval of them therefrom, and all such other things as belong to the ordinary as ordinary of that place, and this he is ready to verify; wherefore he prays judgment if the said John Anstis the now plaintiff without assigning some special disturbance in the person of him the said bishop, ought to maintain his action aforesaid against him, &c. The bishop claims nothing but as ordinary.

And the said Elizabeth Money saith, that the said John Anstis Patron's plea. the now plaintiff ought not to have his action aforesaid against her, because protesting that the said John Harris was not seised of and in the said manor of Poulstead Hall, alias Westgate, with the said advowson of the church of Burnham Deepdale thereto appendant in his demesne as of fee as is above supposed; for plea she the said Elizabeth saith, that Thomas Stoughton, clerk, was seised of and in the manor of Burnham Deepdale, with the appurtenances, in the said county of Norfolk, to which manor the advowson of the said church of Burnham, &c. did belong in his demesne as of fee, and being so seised thereof, and the said church being full and provided with Henry Spurling, clerk, incumbent thereof, he the said Thomas Stoughton on the tenth of January 1676, at Burnham, &c. aforesaid, did grant unto the said John Harris and his assigns the then next advowson, donation, nomination, and presentation of the said church, by virtue of which grant the said John Harris was possessed of the said advowson of the said church for the said next presentation to the same which should afterwards happen to become vacant; and the said John Harris being so possessed of the said advowson of the said church for the said next presentation thereto, (the reversion of the said advowson of the said church belonging to the said Thomas Stoughton and his heirs)

That T. S. granted the next presentation to J. H.

The said church became vacant by resignation. the said church became vacant by the resignation of the said Henry Spurling, which said advowson of the said church was the next avoidance thereof after the making of the said grant by the said Thomas Stoughton unto the said John Harris and his assigns as aforesaid; whereupon the said John Harris presented to the said church being so vacant the said George Green, his clerk, who upon the presentation of the said John Harris was admitted, instituted, and inducted into the same in the time of peace, in the time of the said lord James the Second, late king of England; and the said Thomas Stoughton being so seised of the said manor of Burnham Deepdale, to which, &c. and the church aforesaid so being full and provided with the said Thomas Green, he the said Thomas Stoughton afterwards, to wit, on the first of March 1676, at Burnham, &c. aforeaid, made his last will and testament in writing, and thereby gave and devised the said manor of Burnham, &c. with the appurtenances, to which, &c. unto his son Henry Stoughton and his heirs; and afterwards, to wit, at Burnham, &c. aforeaid, died so seised of such his estate therein, after whose death the said Henry Stoughton entered into the said manor of Burnham Deepdale, with the appurtenances, to which, &c. and was seised thereof in his demesne as of fee, and the said Henry Stoughton being so seised thereof in his demesne as of fee, and the said Henry Stoughton being so seised thereof, afterwards, to wit, on the fourth day of October 1689, at Burnham, &c. aforeaid, made his last will and testament in writing, and thereby gave and devised the said manor of Burnham Deepdale, with the appurtenances, to which, &c. to his wife, Anne Stoughton, for and during the term of her natural life, and from and after the decease of the said Anne, unto his son Thomas Stoughton and his heirs for ever; and afterwards, to wit, at Burnham Deepdale aforeaid, died seised of such his estate therein, after whose death the said Anne entered into the said manor of Burnham Deepdale, with the appurtenances, to which, &c. and was seised thereof in her demesne as of freehold, and being so seised thereof, (and the reversion thereof belonging to the said Thomas Stoughton the son, and his heirs as aforeaid) he the said Thomas Stoughton the son afterwards, viz. on the thirteenth of October 1703, at Burnham Deepdale aforeaid, died seised of such his estate therein without any issue of his body issuing, upon whose death the said reversion of the said manor of Burnham, &c. with the appurtenances, to which, &c. descended unto his brother Henry Stoughton and his heirs, as brother and heir of the said Thomas last above mentioned, by virtue whereof the said last Henry was seised of the said reversion in his demesne as of fee, and being so seised thereof, the said Anne afterwards, to wit, at Burnham, &c. aforeaid died, after whose death he the said Henry Stoughton the brother entered into the said manor of Burnham Deepdale, with the appurtenances, to which, &c. and was seised thereof in his demesne as of fee, and being so seised of the said manor of Burnham Deepdale, with the appurtenances, to which, &c. as aforeaid, afterwards, to wit, on by a certain indenture then and there made between the said Henry Stoughton the brother of the one part, and one Benjamin Money of the other part, he the said Henry Stoughton the brother, for and in consideration of a certain sum of money in hand paid as therein mentioned, did bargain and sell unto the said Benjamin Money the said manor of Burnham Deepdale, with the appurtenances, to which, &c. to have and to hold the same unto the said Benjamin Money and his assigns, from the day next before the day of the date thereof for and during the term of one whole year thence next ensuing, by virtue whereof, and also by force of the statute for transferring of uses into possession, he the said Benjamin Money was possessed of the said manor of Burnham Deepdale, with the appurtenances, to which, &c. (the reversion thereof belonging to the said Henry Stoughton the brother and his heirs) and being so possessed thereof, and the said Henry Stoughton the brother being seised of the reversion thereof in his demesne as of fee as aforesaid afterwards, to wit, on the nineteenth of April in the said year 1743, by a certain other indenture made at Burnham Deepdale Deed of release.

 aforesaid, at Burnham Deepdale aforesaid, he the said Benjamin died seised of such his estate therein, after whose death the said Elizabeth entered into the said manor of Burnham Deepdale, with the appurtenances, to which, &c. and was seised thereof in her demesne as of freehold determinable as aforesaid, and the said Elizabeth hath never since been married, and the said Elizabeth being so seised thereof as aforesaid the said church became vacant by the death of the said Thomas Green the last incumbent thereof, by reason thereof it then belonged to the said Elizabeth to present a fit person to the said church so being vacant, and thereupon The said church became vacant. Said Elizabeth, (the wife of said B. M.) presented H. C. who was admitted, and is parson.
 the said Elizabeth, to the church being so vacant, presented the afore-

Traverse that the said advowson belongs to the said manor of P. H.

saïd Humphry Christian, clerk, to the saïd bishop of Norwich, ordinary of the same place, as it was lawful for her to do, and upon the saïd presentation of the saïd Elizabeth Money the saïd Humphry Christian, before the issuing of the saïd writ of the saïd John Anstis now plaintiff was admitted, instituted, and inducted therein, and by reason thereof, from thence hitherto hath been and still is parson of the saïd church, imparsoned in the same on the saïd presentation of the saïd Elizabeth Money, without this, that the saïd advowson of the saïd church of Burnham Deepdale doth belong to the saïd manor of Poulstead Hall, alias Westgate, with the appurtenances, as the saïd John Anstis now plaintiff hath in declaring above alledged, and this the saïd Elizabeth is ready to verify; wherefore she prays judgment if the saïd John Anstis now plaintiff ought to have his action aforesaid against her, &c.

Clerk's plea.

And the saïd Humphry Christian saith, that he is parson of the saïd church of Burnham Deepdale, imparsoned in the same on the presentation of the saïd Elizabeth Money, and that the saïd John Anstis now plaintiff ought not to have his action aforesaid against him, because protesting, &c. (the same plea as Elizabeth Money.)

Replication to bishop's plea.

And the saïd John Anstis the now plaintiff as to the aforesaid plea of the saïd bishop above pleaded, since that the saïd bishop claims nothing in the saïd church, nor in the saïd advowson thereof, but the admission and institution of parsons into the same church and amoval of them therefrom, and all such other things as belong to the ordinary of that place, prays judgment and a writ to the same bishop, &c.; it is therefore considered that the saïd John Anstis the now plaintiff do recover against the saïd bishop his presentation to the saïd church, and that he have a writ to the saïd bishop, that notwithstanding the disclaimer of him the saïd bishop, he admit a fit person to the church aforesaid at the presentation of the saïd John Anstis the now plaintiff, &c. and no amercement of the saïd bishop because he excuseth himself of any special impediment, &c. but let the execution thereof stay until the aforesaid plea between the saïd John Anstis the now plaintiff, and the saïd Elizabeth Money be determined, &c.

Replication to patron's plea; issue joined, whether the church of Burnham Deepdale was appendant to the manor of Burnham Deepdale, or the manor of Poulstead Hall, alias Westgate.

And the saïd John Anstis the now plaintiff as to the aforesaid plea of the saïd Elizabeth Money above pleaded in bar saith, that he by any thing before alledged by the saïd Elizabeth in the saïd plea ought not to be barred from having his saïd action against her, because he as before saith, that the saïd advowson of the saïd church of Burnham Deepdale doth belong to the saïd manor of Poulstead Hall, alias Westgate, with the appurtenances, as the saïd John Anstis the now plaintiff hath in, declaring above alledged, and this he prays may be enquired of by the country, &c. and the saïd Elizabeth Money doth the same, &c.

And

And, &c. because he as before saith, that the said advowson of the church of Burnham Deepdale doth belong to the said manor of Poulstead Hall, alias Westgate, with the appurtenances, as the said John Anstis the now plaintiff hath in declaring above alleged, and this also he prays may be enquired of by the country; and the said Humphrey Christian doth the same; therefore, &c.

Bishop's plea,

And the said bishop of Durham, Matthew Bell, and John Ansley, by Hugh Watson, their attorney, come and defend the force and injury when, &c. and the said bishop saith, that the said church of Elsdon is within the diocese of Durham, and that he neither hath nor claims to have any thing in the said church nor in the advowson thereof, except the admission, institution, and induction of parsons to the said church, and other the matters which belong to him as ordinary of the said church, and this he is ready to verify; wherefore he prays judgment if the said William Howard without a special impediment in the person of the said bishop in this behalf to be assigned ought to have his action aforesaid thereof against him.

Patron and
clerk's plea.

And the said Matthew Bell and John Ansley, by A. B. their attorney, come and defend the force and injury when, &c. and the said attorney saith that he is not informed by the said Matthew Bell and John Ansley, or either of them, of any answer to be given for them, or either of them, to the said William Howard in the plea aforesaid, and saith nothing further thereupon, by reason whereof the said William Howard remains against the said Matthew and John without defence.

archbishop Sandcroft in 1679 collated Timothy Puller; that the church became vacant by the death of Puller, and archbishop Tillotson, in 1693, as in his second term, collated Samuel Bradford, who was afterwards created bishop of Rochester, and the church thereby became vacant, whereby king Geo. 1. by his prerogative, dated the tenth of July 1720, Dr. Samuel Lisle to Bow Church, with the other two churches, who was admitted, &c. and afterwards created Bishop of St. Asaph, whereupon king Geo. 2. on the tenth of April 1744, presented Dr. Newton in like manner, who was admitted, &c. and that after the church became vacant by resignation, and is yet void, by reason whereof it belongs to the plaintiffs in their turn, being the third, to present a fit person, but defendants hinder them. Demurrer by the archbishop, one of defendants generally to the declaration. Plea by the other defendant, that he is parson of the church on the presentation of the archbishop, that the plaintiffs ought not to have their action. Admits that plaintiff was seised of All-hallows, Honey-lane, and presented Hutchinson; that the archbishop was seised of Bow church, and collated Smallwood; archbishop seised of St. Pancras, Soper-lane, and collated Dillingham; that the three churches were burnt, and that thereupon the archbishop became seised and entitled to present as in the declaration, and that Bow Church became vacant by the death of Smallwood as in the declaration; but this defendant further says, that Bow Church was of greater value than either of the other two churches, and that the church of Allhallows, &c. was of greater value than St. Pancras, &c. viz. of so much respectively per annum, by reason whereof the archbishop for the time being became entitled to present to Bow Church in the first turn, the plaintiff in the second turn, and the archbishop in the third turn; and true it is that archbishop Sandcroft, on the death of Smallwood did in his first turn collate Puller, and that the church became vacant by the death of Puller, but that thereupon, according to the said statute, it belonged to the plaintiffs to present in their second turn, but that archbishop Tillotson collated Bradford by usurpation; that Bradford being in the said church, was created bishop of Rochester, and king George the First presented Dr. Lisle, who was admitted, &c. and Dr. Lisle being so clerk of the said church, was created bishop of St. Asaph, and king George the Second presented Dr. Newton, who was admitted, &c. and afterwards the church became vacant by the resignation of Dr. Newton, by reason whereof it belonged to the present archbishop to present in his third turn, and that thereupon he collated this defendant before the issuing of plaintiff's writ, by reason whereof this defendant is still parson imparsonce; and this, &c.; wherefore, &c. Joinder in demurrer with archbishop, and pray judgment and a writ to the bishop. Replication

to plea of the other defendant; say, they ought not to be barred, because protesting that Allhallows, &c. was not, at the time of making the said statute, of greater value than St. Pancras; protesting also, that archbishop Tillotson did not usurp upon plaintiffs. For replication plaintiffs say, that the church became vacant by the resignation of Dr. Newton, and it belongs to plaintiffs to present in their third turns, yet the defendants hinder them; without this, that it belonged to the plaintiffs to present at the second turn when the church became vacant by the death of Puller, as this defendant hath alledged in his plea. Demurrer by defendant (the incumbent) to the replication, and shews for special cause that the plaintiffs have not traversed any matter of fact alledged in the plea, but have traversed matter of law. Count in quare impedit sets forth that plaintiffs were seised of the advowson of the church in gross, and the same being vacant at the death of Dr. Burton; that in 1771 the church became vacant at the death of Dr. B. and is still void, and it now belongs to plaintiffs to present thereto, but defendants hinder them. Plea by bishop, that he claims no right but as ordinary. By incumbent, that he is parson imparsonne on the presentation of the present king, whose title is deduced from Car. 2. and that the church being vacant by the death of Dr. B. his present majesty presented the defendant, the incumbent; without this, that the plaintiffs were seised of the advowson as they have alledged. Lill. Ent. 344. to 346

Declaration in quare impedit by executors and devisees in trust, who entitle themselves to the advowson in question under the will of Caleb Lomax, whom the declaration states to have been seised in fee of the advowson, and to have presented on a former avoidance. Plea by defendant Edward Barker of four pleas; on the second and third issue is joined; the first plea states a title to the advowson in one Ellis, who presented in 1680, that Ellis conveyed it to Killigrew; that K. devised it to his wife Lucy for her life, and that the reversion, on the death of K. descended to his three daughters in coparcenary; then states an avoidance during the life of Lucy the widow, and a presentation by Lomax, the father of the testator usurping on Lucy; then that the living became vacant after the death of Lucy by the resignation of the incumbent Romney, and that the crown by usurpation on the right of the eldest coparcener presented again the same clerk; then an avoidance by the death of that presentee, and another presentation on that avoidance by Lomax, usurping upon the right of the second coparcener. A title is then deduced at considerable length to the defendant from the second and third coparcener, concluding with a claim to present on the existent vacancy in the third term. Replication states a purchase by Lomax of the right of L. K. the widow, and a presentation of the advowson made by him during the life of Lucy on an avoidance then happening. A fine is then set forth levied by the three coparceners of the advowson, and a conveyance to Lomax under that fine. Having stated this title in behalf of the plaintiff in answer to the plea, the replication concludes that the resignation was fraudulent and without notice, and traverses that upon that resignation it belonged to the eldest coparcener to present. Rejoinder, traverses the fine. Special demurrer, that it is a traverse upon a traverse. (See this more fully indexed, post.) - - - traverse of C. L. the father being seised. General demurrer to the 4th Plea, and joinder. Rejoinder to the first replication, protesting against the sufficiency of the replication, denies that there was any record supposed to be levied by J. C. E. B. the grandfather, and M. his wife, and J. K. to the use of C. L. the grandfather, and of this the said E. B. puts himself upon the record. Joinder in demurrer to the 4th Plea. Surrejoinder. Special demurrer to the rejoinder to first replication, for that plaintiffs traversed a material and issuable point, and so tendered a material issue, but the defendant hath not taken issue upon that traverse, or joined in issue with them thereupon, but hath passed by and taken no notice thereof, and hath denied another part of the said replication, and hath attempted to put another point in issue; and that the said rejoinder concludes with putting himself upon the record, which is inconsistent with the allegation that there is no such record, whereas the said defendant ought to have concluded his said rejoinder by offering to verify the negative allegation. Issue joined on the rejoinder to the 2^d replication.

- Archbishop claims as ordinary. Replication, church void by death of O. and plaintiff, within six months, presented clerk, and defendant presented another; per quod church became litigious. Archbishop awarded inquisition de jure patronatus, and verdict for plaintiff, and notice thereof to archbishop, who afterwards refused to admit plaintiff, and so hindered. Rejoinder protesting, &c.; for plea, that plaintiff was seised of two parts, and defendant of third part of advowson; that plaintiff presented J. in the first turn, and after the death of O. the last incumbent in the second turn, and now it belonged to defendant to present, and before plaintiff's request, having first notice of defendant's title, instituted his clerk. Rejoinder, defendant protesting that he did not refuse to admit said J. on presentation of plaintiff; for plea, confesses vicarage of O. void by W.'s acceptance of vicarage of L. and that plaintiff, within six months after the said vacation, presented said J. to him defendant (then and yet ordinary) to be admitted; but further says, that by the ecclesiastical laws every ordinary ought to have twenty-eight days probation of every clerk that is presented before he is admitted and instituted; and because defendant knew not (when said J. was presented) whether he was capable of being admitted, he made enquiry of his abilities, and having within twenty-eight days satisfied himself thereof on the presentation of plaintiff he did admit him to the vicarage of O. and caused him to be instituted and inducted therein, not having any notice of plaintiff's writ. his will, and gave the advowson, &c. to Elizabeth his wife, and her sons, by the said Edward; that afterwards T. M. on payment of the money by E. H. granted to E. H. and his heirs, the said advowson; E. H. again was seised, and had issue by Elizabeth the said R. H. and afterwards he and his wife died, and R. M. and E. H. of the said advowson to the use of the said T. M. and his heirs; that T. M. died so seised, and advowson descended to M. H. as his cousin and heir, and traverses that E. H. died seised. R. and Dorothy, by their guardians aforesaid; and the sheriff, to wit, Hugh Bateman, esquire, sheriff of Derbyshire aforesaid, now here returns a certain partition, made by and before him the said sheriff, between the parties aforesaid, of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, by virtue of the writ aforesaid, by the oath of twelve good and lawful men of his county, which partition follows in these words, to wit, Derbyshire to wit: J. Hugh Bateman, esquire, sheriff of the county aforesaid, by virtue of a writ of our lord the king to me directed, and to this indented partition annexed, in my own proper person, this twentieth day of June, in the thirty-second year, &c. and A. D. 1792, taking with me W. E. &c. (the twelve men of his county) twelve good and lawful men of the neighbourhood of Hilton, in my county, and in the presence of B. B. the elder and S. B. the elder, also all that piece or parcel of land, &c. &c. &c. WRIT OF DOWER.

(WITH THE PROCESS.)

GEORGE the Third, to the sheriff of Norfolk, greeting: We command A. B. C. that justly and without delay they render to J. L. widow, who was the wife of R. L. deceased, her reasonable dower which belongs to her of the freehold tenements which were of the said R. L. formerly her husband in the several parishes of , in the county of Norfolk, whereof she hath nothing, as she says, and whereof she complains that the said A. B. and C. unjustly deforce her, &c.

Drawn by MR. TIDD.

If the premises lie in two different counties, there must be two writs of dowers directed to the respective sheriffs of those counties. These writs should be brought against all the tenants of the freehold, and are issued by the curitor. The first process upon those writs is a summons by the sheriffs to his officers, which may be either served upon the tenants personally, or left at their houses or lands demanded by the writs.

In the latter case it is usual to set up a white stick or wand upon the premises, and by stat. 31. Eliz. c. 3. proclamations must be made at the door of the parish church on a Sunday fourteen days at least before the return of the writ. The tenants being summoned, either cast an essoin, appear, or make default; if they cast an essoin the demandant must adjourn till the fifth return; after if they appear at the return of the writ of summons, or appear upon the adjournment of the essoin, the demandant shall account; but if they make default, a grand cape issues to seize the lands and warn the tenants to appear to excuse their default, which if they do, or the demandant release it, he shall count; but otherwise he shall have final judgment.

Common Pleas, Easter Term, 33. Geo. III.

NORTHUMBERLAND, to wit. Mary, otherwise Maria Ilderton, widow, who was the wife of Thomas Ilderton, esquire, deceased, by Townley Ward her attorney, demands against Charles Ilderton the third part of ten messuages, ten barns, ten stables, four gardens, four orchards, one water corn mill, two thousand acres of land, two hundred acres of meadow, two thousand acres of pasture, two thousand acres of moor, and two hundred acres of wood land, with the appurtenances, in the parish of Ilderton, in the county of Northumberland, as the dower of the said Mary, otherwise Maria, of the endowment of the said Thomas, heretofore her husband, whereof she hath nothing, &c.

Declaration.

Plea, as inques
accouple.

And the said Charles Ilderton, by Richard Stewardson his attorney, comes and says that the said Mary, otherwise Maria, ought not to have her dower in this behalf as having been the wife of the said Thomas Ilderton deceased, because he says that the said Mary, otherwise Maria, never was accoupled to the said Thomas Ilderton deceased in lawful matrimony; and this the said Charles Ilderton is ready to verify; and therefore he prays judgment, if the said Mary, otherwise Maria, ought to have her dower of the messuages and tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances.

Replication.

And the said Mary, otherwise Maria, by the said Townley Ward her attorney aforesaid, says that she ought not by any thing in the plea of the said Charles above alledged to be barred from having her dower aforesaid in this behalf, because she says that she the said Mary, otherwise Maria, on the sixth day of September, in the year of Our Lord 1774, was accoupled to the said Thomas Ilderton, deceased, in lawful matrimony at Edinburgh, in that part of Great Britain called Scotland; and this she prays may be inquired of by the country, &c.

S. LE BLANC.

Demurrer.

And the said Charles saith that the said plea of the said Mary, otherwise Maria, in manner and form aforesaid above pleaded by way of reply to the said plea of the said Charles by him above pleaded, and the matters therein contained, are not sufficient in law for the said Mary, otherwise Maria, to have or maintain her said action thereof against him, and that he the said Charles is not bound or obliged by the law of the land to make answer thereto, and this he is ready to verify; therefore for want of a sufficient replication in this behalf, the said Charles as before prays judgment, and that the said Mary, otherwise Maria, may be barred from having her dower aforesaid in this behalf, and for causes of demurrer in law in this behalf, the said Charles, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, specially sets down, and shews to the Court here the causes following, that is to say, that the said supposed marriage in the said replication mentioned, and therein alledged to have been celebrated in that part of Great Britain called Scotland, is not a marriage whereby or by reason whereof the said Mary, otherwise Maria, can by law claim

That the said marriage alledged is not such whereby plaintiff can claim dower.

That plaintiff has not laid any place by way of venue where the marriage was had.

That she hath concluded to the country.

Hath attempted to draw to a trial by the court what is of ecclesiastical cognizance.

or entitle herself to have any dower of the tenements above mentioned, and also for that the said plaintiff has not laid any place by way of venue where the said supposed marriage was had, and also for that the said replication is ill concluded by being concluded to the country, and for that the said Mary, otherwise Maria, hath by her said replication and the conclusion thereof attempted to put in issue, and draw to a trial by a jury of the country, a matter that is not by law triable by a jury of the country, but which is of ecclesiastical cognizance, and which ought to be tried by the certificate of the bishop, to whom the right of certifying whether the said Mary, otherwise Maria, and Thomas Ilderton were or not accoupled in lawful matrimony belongs, and also that it does not appear

appear to the court here, by the said replication, to what bishop or other spiritual judge or person any writ can or ought to be directed or sent to enquire and certify whether the said Mary, otherwise Maria, was accoupled to the said Thomas Ilderton, deceased, in lawful matrimony or not, and also for that the said replication is in other respects defective, and wants form.

J. ADAIR.

And the said Mary, otherwise Maria, by the said Townley Joinder, Ward her attorney aforesaid, says, that the said plea of her the said Mary, otherwise Maria, in manner and form as the same is above pleaded by way of reply to the said plea of the said Charles by him above pleaded, and the matters therein contained, are sufficient in law for the said Mary, otherwise Maria, to have and maintain her said action against him the said Charles; which said replication, and the matters therein contained, the said Mary, otherwise Maria, is ready to verify and prove as the court here shall award; and because the said Charles hath not answered the said replication, nor in any manner denied the same, the said Mary, otherwise Maria, prays judgment and her dower of the messuages and tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, &c.; and because the justices of our said lord the king here will advise themselves of and upon the premises before they give their judgment thereon, day is given to the parties here until to hear judgment thereon, for that the said justices here are not yet advised thereof, &c.

Cur. adv. vult.

S. LE BLANC,

Pleas before sir James Eyre, knight, and his companions, justices of our lord the king of the bench of Trinity term, in the thirty-seventh year of the reign of our sovereign lord George the Third, king of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, defender of the faith, and so forth.

SARAH HARRIS, WIDOW, } SURREY, to wit. Sarah Harris, widow, who was the wife of Michael Harris, deceased, by C. H. her attorney, demands against John Westerman the third part of ten messuages, ten dwelling-houses, ten yards, ten backslides, ten workhouses, ten sheds, and ten acres of land, with the appurtenances, in the parish of Saint Olave, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surry, as the dower of the said Sarah of the endowment of the said Michael heretofore her husband, whereof she hath nothing, &c.

Proceedings in a writ of dower under nihil habet where the husband died seized.

And the said John, by B. D. his attorney, comes and saith that the said Sarah ought not to have dower of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, of the endowment of the said Michael; because he says, that the said Michael, late husband, &c. neither on the day he married the said Sarah, nor ever afterwards, was seized

seised of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, whereof, &c. of such an estate as he could thereof endow the said Sarah; and of this he puts himself upon the country, &c.; and the said Sarah doth so likewise; therefore the sheriff is commanded that he cause to come in twelve, &c. by whom, &c. and who neither, &c. to recognize, &c. because as well, &c.

Jury respited.

Surry, to wit. The jury between Sarah Harris plaintiff, and John Westerman defendant, in a plea of dower, is respited here until on the morrow of All Souls, unless his majesty's justices assigned to take the assizes in and for the county of Surry shall first come on Monday the seventh day of August at Croydon, in the said county, according to the form of the statute in that case made and provided for default of the jurors because none of them did appear; therefore let the sheriff have the bodies of the several persons mentioned in the pannel annexed to the writ of habeas corpus jurata; and be it known that the justices here in court in this same term delivered a writ thereupon to the deputy sheriff of the county aforesaid to be executed in due form of law.

Postea, finding that the husband was seised of part of the premises after the marriage.

Afterwards, that is to say, on the day and at the place within mentioned, before the right honourable sir James Eyre, knight, the chief justice of our sovereign lord the king of the bench, and sir Francis Buller, baronet, one other of the justices of our said lord the king of the bench, the justices of our said lord the king assigned to take the assizes in and for the county of Surry aforesaid, came as well the within-named Sarah Harris, by her attorney within named, as the within-named John Westerman, by his attorney within named, and the jurors of the jury whereof mention is within-named being summoned come, who to say the truth of the within contents being elected, tried, and sworn as to the three messuages, two work houses, one garden, and two back-sides, with the appurtenances, in the parish of Saint Olave, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surry, parcel of the tenements within specified, whereof, &c. upon their oath say that the within Michael Harris, late husband, &c. after the day when he married the said Sarah, was seised of the said three messuages, two work houses, one garden, and two back-sides, parcel of the tenements within specified, whereof, &c. of such an estate as he could thereof endow the said Sarah; and as to the residue of the tenements within specified, with the appurtenances, the jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, say, that the within-named Michael Harris, late the husband, &c. neither on the day when he married the said Sarah, nor ever after, was seised of the said tenements within specified, with the appurtenances, whereof, &c. of such an estate as he could thereof endow the said Sarah, as the said John Westerman has within in pleading alledged.

This cause came on to be tried before Justice Buller, at Croydon assizes, the seventh of August 1797, when the defendant obtained a verdict. Marryat for or the tenant contended that the plaintiff ought to have shewn such an estate in her husband as she was dowable of to support the issue; but Justice Buller took distinction, possession, and receipt of the rents as prima facie evidence of a fee simple estate, and if the party in possession had only a particular estate, it was incumbent upon, and in the power of the defendant to show it, upon which the plaintiff proved by a son of the defendant that his father was tenant of the premises in the lifetime of the demandant's husband, and paid rent to him.—Garrow and Barrow for plaintiff. Marryatt for defendant.

Therefore it is considered that the said Sarah do recover against Judgment for the said John her seisin of the said third part of the said three messuages, two work houses, one garden, and two back-sides, with the appurtenances, parcel of the tenements within specified, whereof, &c. to hold to her in severalty by metes and bounds; and the said John in mercy, &c.; and hereupon the said Sarah prays a writ of our lord the king to be directed to the sheriff of the county aforesaid to cause her to have full seisin of the said third part of the said three messuages, two work houses, one garden, and two back-sides, with the appurtenances, parcel, &c.; and it is granted to her, returnable here on, &c. demandant in dower.

I have considered, I think, every printed authority upon the subject of this case; and the short result is, that there must be judgment of seisin for a third part of the premises of which it is found by the posse that the demandant is dowable; and that upon that there must be an award of habere facias seisinam; but as the demandant's husband did not die seised, no damages can be recovered; for damages are only given by the statute of Merton 20. H. 3. where the husband dies seised; otherwise the next step would have been to have awarded an enquiry of those damages. A writ of habere facias seisinam must therefore now issue, which being upon a process by original writ, must have fifteen days between the teste and return, and must be returnable upon a general return day. With regard to the execution of this writ, it appears that regularly the sheriff ought only to deliver seisin of the third part recovered by metes and bounds whereby to enable the plaintiff to maintain an ejectment against the tenants in possession, who are entitled to defend that possession, if it admits of defence; but who have no other mode of doing it than in action of ejectment. Vide Lindsay v. Lindsay, 2. Ld. Raym. 1293. 1. Salk. 291. But by analogy to cases of tenancy by elegit, Jefferson v. Dawson, 3. Kel. 243. it appears that if the sheriff should deliver actual possession upon this writ of seisin in dower, he may do it legally, and the tenants in possession will be bound by it. Under these circumstances I have drawn the writ of seisin with a hope that the quiet possession will be surrendered without resorting to an action of ejectment, for such action can only be defended at a great expence, and as it appears to me in this case without a chance of success on the part of the defendants, the tenants in possession.

THO. BARROW.

GEORGE the Third, by the grace of God, of Great Britain, Writ of habere France, and Ireland, king, defender of the faith, and so forth, to faciat seisinam. the sheriff of Surry, greeting: Whereas Sarah Harris, widow, who was the wife of Michael Harris, deceased, hath lately in our court before sir James Eyre, knight, and his companions, our justices of the bench at Westminster, by our writ of dower, whereof she hath nothing, and by the judgment of the said court, recovered against John Westerman her seisin of the third part of three messuages

messuages, two workhouses, one garden, and two backslides, with the appurtenances, in the parish of Saint Olave, in the borough of Southwark, in your county, as the dower of her the said Sarah, of the endowment of the said Michael Harris, her late husband, whereof the said John Westerman is convicted, as by the record and proceedings thereof remaining in our said court of the bench at W. aforesaid more fully appears; therefore we command you, that you without delay deliver to the said Sarah seisin of the said third part of the said three messuages, two workhouses, one garden, and two backslides, with the appurtenances, to hold to her in severalty by metes and bounds according to the force, form, and effect of the said recovery, and how you shall execute this our writ certify to our justices at Westminster on, returning to us this our writ. B. afterwards, to wit, on the twenty-

twenty-fifth of September, in the said year of Our Lord 1756, at Sutton B. aforesaid, in the county of N. aforesaid, by a certain other indenture then and there made between the said Matthew B. and Elizabeth his wife of the first part, John Ludford of the second part, the said C. P. and T. A. of the third part, and Thomas Paget, of Ibitock, in the county of Leicester, gentleman, and Thomas Berridge, of Langor, in the county of Northumberland, yeoman, of the fourth part (one part of which said last-mentioned indenture, sealed with the seal of the said Matthew B. the said S. B. now brings here into court, the date whereof is the same day and year last aforesaid), the said M. B. for the considerations therein mentioned, did release and confirm unto the said C. P. and T. A., in their actual possession then being by virtue of the said bargain and sale, and the said statute for transferring uses into possession, and to their heirs and assigns, the tenements last aforesaid with the appurtenances, to have and to hold the same unto the said C. P. and T. A. their heirs and assigns, that is to say, to the use and behoof of the said Matthew B. and his assigns for and during the term of his natural life, without impeachment of or for any manner of waste, and from and after the determination of that estate to the use of the said C. P. and T. A. during the natural life of the said Matthew B. upon trust to support and preserve the contingent uses and estates thereafter limited from being defeated, barred, or destroyed, and for that purpose to make entries and bring actions as occasion should require; but nevertheless to permit and suffer the said Matthew B. and his assigns to receive and take the rents, issues, and profits thereof to and for his and their use and benefit, during the life of the said Matthew B. and from and after his decease, to the use and behoof of the said son of the body of the said Matthew B. on the body of Elizabeth his wife lawfully begotten or to be begotten, and to the heirs male of the body of such first son lawfully issuing, and for default of such issue to the use and behoof of the second, third, fourth, or fifth, and all and every other the son and sons of the body of the said Matthew B. on the body of the said Elizabeth his wife lawfully begotten or to be begotten, whether born in his life-time or after his decease, severally, successively, and in remainder one after another, as they and every of them should be in seniority of age and priority of birth, and the several and respective heirs male of the body and bodies of all and every such son and sons lawfully issuing, so as that the eldest of such sons and the heirs male of his body issuing should be always preferred and take before the youngest of such son and sons and the heirs male of his and their body and bodies lawfully issuing, and for default of such issue to the use and behoof of all and every the daughter and daughters of the body of the said Matthew B. on the body of the said Elizabeth his wife begotten or to be begotten, equally to be divided between such daughters, if more than one, share and share alike, and they to take as tenants in common and not as join-tenants, nor to accrue by survivorship, and to the heirs of the body and bodies of all and every such daughter and daughters

as lawfully issuing, and failing issue of any of the said daughters, then to the share or shares of such daughter or daughters whose issue should fail, to the use of all and every other such daughter or daughters, to take in like manner as tenants in common, and of the heirs of the body and bodies of such other daughter or daughters lawfully issuing, and in case all such daughters save one should die without issue, or if there should be but one such daughter, then to the use and behoof of such surviving or only daughter, and to the heirs of her body, as by the said last-mentioned indenture appears, by virtue of which said last-mentioned indenture, and by force of the statute for transferring uses into possession, the said Matthew B. became and was seised of the said last-mentioned tenements, with the appurtenances in his demesne, as of freehold, to wit, for the term of his natural life, in the time of peace in the time of our said lord George the Second, king of Great Britain, and by taking the esplees thereof to the value, &c. and being so seised, the said Matthew B. afterwards, to wit, on the thirtieth of October, A. D. 1774, at Sutton B. aforesaid, in the county of N. aforesaid, died without heirs male of the body of the said Matthew B. on the body of the said Elizabeth his wife begotten, leaving issue two daughters Elizabeth B. and the said Sarah B. on the body of the said Elizabeth his wife lawfully begotten, whereupon the said Elizabeth B. and the said Sarah Berridge, by form of the gift aforesaid, became and were seised each in an undivided moiety of the tenements last aforesaid, with the appurtenances, to wit, in their demesne as of fee tail in the time of peace in the time of the now king George the Third, by taking the esplees thereof to the value of, &c. and being so seised thereof as aforesaid, afterwards, to wit, by a certain act of parliament made at the parliament of our sovereign lord George the Third, now king of Great Britain, and holden at Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, in the fourteenth year of the reign of our sovereign lord the now king, intitled "An Act for dividing and inclosing all the open Fields, Meadows, Pastures, and commonable Grounds within the Township or Liberty of Sutton Saint Anns, otherwise Sutton B. commonly called Saint Ann End, in the county of Nottingham," reciting, that within the township or liberty of Sutton Saint Anns, otherwise Sutton B. commonly called Saint Ann's End, in the county of Nottingham, there were several open fields known and distinguished by the names of the Standard Fields, the Rundle Field, the Park Lane Field, and the Nether Field, and also certain meadow, pasture, and commonable grounds, consisting in the whole of fifty yard-lands and an half, and containing together about twelve hundred acres, and also reciting, that the lands and grounds of the several proprietors, thereby intended to be divided and inclosed, lay intermixed and dispersed in small parcels, and it would be advantageous to the several persons interested therein to have the same divided and inclosed; it was enacted, that Thomas Oldknow, John Davys, William Fox, John Watkinson, and William Fillingham, and their successors, to be elected in manner therein

therein mentioned, should be and were thereby appointed commissioners for the setting out, dividing, allotting, and inclosing the lands and grounds thereby intended to be divided and inclosed, and for putting the same act in execution; and it was further enacted, that all the lands and grounds thereby intended to be divided and inclosed, and also all the old inclosed ground within the said township or liberty of S. Saint Ann, otherwise Sutton B. commonly called Saint Ann's End, should be surveyed and measured by the said T. O. his agents or assistants, or by such other person or persons as the said commissioners or any three or more of them should order and direct; and it was thereby further enacted, that the said commissioners or any three or more of them should have full power and authority to set a value without partiality upon all the lands and grounds thereby intended to be divided and inclosed, and also as soon as conveniently might be after the said survey should have been laid before them, and the contents and value of the whole, and the contents and value of each and every part and parcel thereof should be ascertained, to make a division of the said lands and grounds thereby intended to be divided and inclosed, unto and amongst the several persons interested therein, according to certain rules and directions in the said act mentioned; and it was enacted, that the said commissioners or any three or more of them, after setting out, assigning, and allotting certain particular allotments therein expressed, should divide, set out, and allot all the residue of the said lands and grounds thereby intended to be divided and inclosed unto, between, and amongst the several persons entitled to the same, in proportion to their several and respective shares and interests therein; and it was further enacted, that nothing in that act contained should be deemed, adjudged, or taken to revoke, alter, extinguish, and annul, or make void any will or settlement, or to prejudice any person having or claiming any jointure, dower, portion, debts, rents, incumbrances, or other demand out of, upon, or affecting any of the lands or grounds thereby intended to be divided and inclosed, or any old inclosed houses or other buildings which might be exchanged by virtue of that act other than leases at rack or extended rent, but that each and every proprietor's allotment be made by virtue of that act, and the old inclosures, houses, or other buildings which might be exchanged as aforesaid, should stand charged and be chargeable with the same debts, rents, and incumbrances, as each and every proprietor's old inclosures, houses, buildings, lands, grounds, and estates respectively, was or were chargeable with, or affected by before the passing of that act; and it was thereby further enacted, that the lands to be assigned, allotted, and applied unto and for the several and respective persons interested in the lands thereby intended to be divided and inclosed, should within the space of six months next after the signing and sealing the said award, be taken and accepted by each and every of the persons interested therein in full satisfaction and compensation for their and each and every of their several and respective rights and interests therein, and that

guardians of any person or persons being minors should be enabled and required to accept thereof to the use of such minors, and such acceptance thereof should be valid and effectual as if the persons for whom the same should be made respectively were capable of acting for themselves; and it was further enacted, that within the space of six months next after the division and allotment of the lands thereby intended to be divided and inclosed should be completed and finished, the said commissioners, or any three or more of them, should form and draw up, or cause to be formed and drawn up an award or instrument in writing, which should express the quality and contents in statute measure of the acres, roods, and perches contained in the said lands and grounds thereby intended to be divided and enclosed, and the quality and contents of each and every part and parcel thereof assigned and allotted to each of the parties entitled to lands, tithes, common right, or other property, within the same, and a description of the situation, abuttals, and boundaries of such parcels and allotments respectively, which said award or instrument should be fairly engrossed upon parchment, and signed and sealed by the said commissioners, or any three or more of them, and should within six months next after the same should be so signed and sealed as aforesaid be enrolled in one of his majesty's courts of record at Westminster, or by the clerk of the peace for the said county of Northampton; and it was declared that the several allotments and divisions so to be made as aforesaid in or by such award or instrument should be binding and conclusive unto and upon all persons entitled to or claiming any property in the said lands and grounds thereby intended to be divided and enclosed; saving always to the king's most excellent majesty, his heirs, and successors, and to all and every other person or persons, bodies politic and corporate, his, her, and their heirs, executors, administrators, and successors, other than and except the several persons to whom any allotment or allotments should be made by virtue of that act and all claiming under them respectively, all such estate, right, title, and interest, as they, every, or any of them had and enjoyed in the lands and grounds thereby intended to be divided and enclosed before the passing of that act, or should or ought to have had or enjoyed therein in case the same had not been made, but no such other person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or successors, should have power to disturb any of the allotments or exchanges to be made in pursuance of that act, but should accept the respective allotments which should be made in lieu of the lands, tithes, common right, and other interest in the said lands and grounds thereby intended to be divided and enclosed, which he, she, or they would have been entitled to in case that act had not been made, and should be entitled to recover such allotments, and all such tenements, lands, and grounds as should be given in exchange for any other tenements, lands, and grounds as fully as he, she, or they would have been entitled to have recovered the lands, grounds, common right,

and tithes, in lieu whereof such allotments and exchanges should be made as aforesaid, as in and by the said act of parliament remaining on record at Westminster, relation being thereunto had, more fully may appear: And the said Sarah B. further says, that the said lands and grounds in the said indentures mentioned were and are part of the said residue of the said lands and grounds by the said act of parliament directed to be divided and enclosed: And the said Sarah B. further says, that the said T. O. J. D. W. F. John W. and William Jt having taken upon themselves the execution of the powers and authorities vested in them in and by the said act of parliament, and having had a survey and admeasurement with a plan of the said open fields, meadows, pastures, and commonable grounds, and also all the old enclosed grounds within the said township or liberty of Sutton Saint Anns, otherwise Sutton B. commonly called Saint Ann's End, duly taken, and having had the said plan and admeasurement laid before them, and it appearing to them by such survey and admeasurement that the lands and grounds intended by the said act to be divided and enclosed contained in the whole one thousand one hundred acres and five perches, or thereabouts, and that the said Elizabeth B. and Sarah B. were, amongst others, the owners and proprietors of the said open fields, meadows, pastures, and commonable grounds intended by the said act to be divided and enclosed, they the said T. O. J. D. W. F. J. W. and W. F. did according to the said act make a division and allotment of the lands and grounds thereby directed to be enclosed within the space of six months next after the said division and allotment was completed and finished, to wit, on the tenth of March, A. D. 1775, at Sutton B. aforesaid, did form and draw up an award or instrument in writing according to the direction of the said act of parliament, and did cause the same to be fairly engrossed on parchment, and did sign and seal the same, and did by such their award or instrument in writing under their hands and seals set out, allot, assign, and appoint unto Elizabeth B. the tenements above demanded by the description of one plot or parcel of land in the said Rundle Field, containing thirty acres, one rood, fifteen perches, or thereabouts, bounded by lands allotted to the said Joseph Smith, by lands allotted to Sarah B. by the turnpike road from Coleston to Rempstone, and by the high road leading from the said turnpike road to Westlake respectively, and was thereby allotted to the said Elizabeth B. in lieu of and full satisfaction of her undivided moiety of all the lands and common right in and upon the lands intended by the said act to be divided and enclosed, lately belonging to the said Sarah B. and Elizabeth B. daughters and coheirs of the said Matthew B. deceased, and did set out, allot, assign, and appoint unto the said Sarah B. one plot or parcel of land in the said Rundle Field, containing thirty-two acres, three roods, and twelve perches, or thereabouts, bounded by lands allotted to Joseph Smith, by lands allotted to Charles Allen and his successors, rector of the rectory of Sutton Saint A. by the liberty of Normanton upon Soar, by lands allotted to Thomas Bacon, by the turnpike road leading from Coleston to Rempstone, and five lands allotted to the said Elizabeth B. which was thereby allotted to the said Sarah B. in lieu of and in full satisfaction of her undivided moiety of all the lands and common right in and upon the lands intended by the said act to be divided and enclosed lately belonging to the said Sarah B. and Elizabeth B. daughters and coheirs of the said Matthew B. deceased, as by the said award more fully appears; which said award was within six months after the same was signed and sealed as aforesaid enrolled by the clerk of the peace of the said county of Northampton; which said lands so allotted as aforesaid to the said Elizabeth B. and Sarah B. respectively as aforesaid within six months next after the signing and sealing the said award, to wit, on the same day and year last aforesaid, at Sutton B. aforesaid, were accepted by Thomas Aftey, one Henry Cropper and William Hardy, then and there being the guardians of the said Elizabeth B. and Sarah B. who then and there were minors, for the use of the said E. B. and S. B. respectively, in full satisfaction and compensation for their and each of their several and respective rights and interests in the lands by the said act intended to be enclosed; by virtue whereof the said Elizabeth became seised of the lands allotted to her as aforesaid, being the tenements above demanded in her demesne as of fee tail, to wit, to her and the heirs of her body lawfully issuing; and being so seised the said Elizabeth afterwards, to wit, on the sixteenth of December, A. D. 1781, at Sutton B. aforesaid, died without any issue of her body issuing, whereupon the right remaineth to the said Sarah B. the now demandant by the form of the gift and allotment aforesaid, for that the said Elizabeth B. died without issue of her body lawfully issuing; wherefore the said Sarah B. brings suit, &c.

And the said Nicholas Buckley and John Wildey, by William Cradock their attorney, come and defend their right, when, &c. and say, that true it is that the said Elizabeth was in her life time seised of the tenements above demanded in her demesne as of fee tail in manner and form in the Count of the said Sarah above alledged; but they say, the said Elizabeth being so seised before the levying the fine hereinafter mentioned, to wit, on the first of January, A. D. 1778, at Sutton B. aforesaid, a marriage was had and solemnized between the aforesaid Elizabeth and one William Townley, whereupon the said William and Elizabeth, in right of the said Elizabeth, became seised of the tenements above demanded to themselves and the heirs of the body of the said E. and being so seised thereof afterwards a certain fine was levied in the court of our sovereign lord the king here, to wit, at Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, in fifteen days of Saint Martin, in the term of Saint Michael, in the nineteenth year of the reign of George the Third, by the grace of God, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, king, defender of the faith, &c.

Plea, that demandant was seised of premises as coheirs with her sister, who married, and levied a fine of premises to the use of her husband and his heirs for ever, and that the warranty descended upon demandant as collateral heir.

before William de Grey, Henry Gould, William Blackstone, and George Nares, justices of our lord the king, and others then and there present, between John Stokes, gentleman, plaintiff, and the said William T. and Elizabeth his wife the deforceants (amongst other things) of the tenements above demanded by the name of a moiety of eighty acres of land and ten acres of meadow, with the appurtenances, in Sutton B. otherwise Sutton Saint A. in the county of N. whereupon a plea of covenant was summoned between them in the said court, that is to say, that the aforesaid William and Elizabeth acknowledged the aforesaid moiety, with the appurtenances, to be the right of him the said John Stokes, as those which the said John Stokes had of the gift of the aforesaid William and Elizabeth and those they had remised and quit claimed from them the said William and Elizabeth and their heirs to the aforesaid John Stokes and his heirs for ever; and moreover the said William and Elizabeth granted for their and the heirs of the said Elizabeth that they would warrant to the aforesaid John Stokes and his heirs the aforesaid moiety, with the appurtenances, against them the said William and Elizabeth and the heirs of the said Elizabeth for ever: And the said Nicholas B. and John W. further say, that proclamations upon the fine aforesaid were made according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided in manner and form following, to wit, the first proclamation was made the twenty eighth of November, in the aforesaid term of Saint Michael, in the nineteenth year of his present majesty, and the said proclamation was made on the twelfth of February, in the term of Saint Hilary, in the nineteenth year of his present majesty, and the third proclamation on the eighth of May, in Easter term, in the nineteenth year of his present majesty, and the fourth proclamation was made on the nineteenth of June, in the term of the Holy Trinity, in the nineteenth year of his present majesty, as by the record of the fine and proclamations aforesaid remaining in the court of our lord the now king of the bench here, to wit, at Westminster aforesaid, in the county of Middlesex aforesaid, more fully appears: And the said Nicholas B. and John Wildey aver that the said fine in form aforesaid levied was levied to the use of the said William Townley and his heirs for ever, and that after the levying thereof the said William Townley entered into the tenements above demanded, and by virtue thereof, and by force of the statute for transferring uses into possession, became and was seised thereof in his demesne as of fee, and being so seised thereof afterwards, to wit, on the sixteenth of November, A. D. 1781, at Sutton B. aforesaid, the said William Townley enfeoffed the said Nicholas B. and John W. of the tenements above demanded, to hold to the said Nicholas B. and John W. their heirs and assigns for ever; by virtue whereof the said N. B. and J. W. afterwards, to wit, on the same day and year last aforesaid, at Sutton B. aforesaid, entered into the said tenements above demanded, and became and were, and from thence hitherto have been seised thereof in their demesne as of fee: And the said Nicholas B. and John W. say, that that after the levying the fine aforesaid, to wit, on the same day and year last aforesaid, the said Elizabeth died without issue, leaving the said Sarah the demandant her only sister and heir, upon whose death the warranty aforesaid contained in the said fine descended on the said Sarah the demandant as sister and collateral heir of the said Elizabeth; and this they are ready to verify; wherefore they pray judgment if the said Sarah ought to have and maintain her aforesaid action thereof against them, &c.

THO. WALKER.

And the said Sarah B. as to the said plea of the said Nicholas B. and John W. by them above pleaded in bar, says, that she by reason of any thing by the said Nicholas and John in that plea alleged ought not to be barred from having or maintaining her aforesaid action against them; because protesting that the said plea and the matters therein contained are not sufficient in law to bar the said Sarah from having and maintaining her aforesaid action against the said Nicholas and Thomas; yet for replication in this behalf the said Sarah saith, that the said forty acres of arable land, twenty acres of meadow, and twenty acres of pasture land, with the appurtenances, in Sutton B. above demanded, are not comprised in the said fine levied by the said William Townley and Elizabeth Townley to the use of the said William Townley and his heirs for ever, as by the said plea is above supposed; and this the said Sarah prays may be enquired of by the country, &c.; and the said N. and John do the like; therefore the sheriff is commanded that he cause to come here in three weeks of the Holy Trinity twelve, &c. by whom, &c. and who neither, &c. to recognize, &c. because as well, &c.

Replication, that premises demanded were not comprised in fine, and issue.

NORTHUMBERLAND, to wit. George Forster, by (a) Count in Richard Lowndes his attorney, demands against George Nelson Formedon. one messuage, six stables, two granaries, two coach houses, one brewhouse, and one garden, with the appurtenances, in the parish of Morpeth, in the county of Northumberland, and also against Isabel Turton one other messuage and one other garden, with the appurtenances, in the parish of Morpeth, in the same county of Northumberland, which Thomas Pye, now deceased, gave to John Orde and John Richardson, their heirs, and assigns for ever, to the use and behoof of the said Thomas Pye, until the solemnization of a marriage then intended between John Pye, only son and heir apparent of the said Thomas Pye, and Ann Marr, spinster, and from and after the solemnization of the said intended marriage to the use and behoof of the said John Pye for and during the term of his natural life, and from and after the determination of that estate then to the use and behoof of the said John Orde and John Richardson and their heirs for and during the term of the natural life of the said John Pye, and from and after the death of the said John Pye to the use and behoof of the said John

(a) All the pleadings in this cause were settled or approved by Mr. G. Wood.

Orde and John Richardson and their assigns for and during the term of one hundred years, if the said Ann Marr should so long live, and from and after the determination of the said term to the use and behoof of the first son of the body of the said John Pye on the body of the said Ann Marr to be begotten and the heirs male of the body of such first son lawfully to be begotten, and for default of such issue then to the use and behoof of the second son of the body of the said John Pye on the body of the said Ann Marr to be begotten and the heirs male of the body of such second son lawfully to be begotten, and for default of such issue to the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, and all and every other son and sons of the body of the said John Pye on the body of the said Ann Marr to be begotten and the heirs male of the body of such third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, and every other son and sons lawfully to be begotten, severally, successively, and respectively, one after another, according to their seniority of age and priority of birth, and in default of such issue to the use and behoof of the heirs female of the body of the said John Pye on the body of the said Ann Marr to be begotten, and in default of such issue to the use and behoof of the right heirs of the said Thomas Pye for ever, which said intended marriage was afterwards duly had and solemnized between the said John Pye and the said Ann Marr, and which reversion of and in the said tenements, with the appurtenances, to hold after the death of the said John Pye, and default of issue male and female of the body of the said John Pye on the body of the said Ann Marr to be begotten as aforesaid, the said Thomas Pye afterwards gave to John Orde and his heirs to the use of his grand-daughter Elizabeth Pye for and during the term of her natural life, and after the decease of the said Elizabeth Pye to the first son of the said Elizabeth Pye and the heirs male of such first son lawfully to be begotten, and for default of such issue then to the second, third, fourth, fifth, and all and every other the sons of the said Elizabeth Pye lawfully to be begotten, and for default of such issue then to the use and behoof of all and every the daughters of the body of the said E. P. as tenants in common, and not as joint tenants, and for default of such issue to Charles Stoddart for the term of his natural life, and failing him to the issue male of his body lawfully begotten, or to be begotten, and failing such issue to the said George Forster for his life, and after his death to the issue male of his body lawfully begotten or to be begotten, and which after the deaths of the said John Pye and Elizabeth Pye, and Charles Stoddart, and Charles Stoddart son and heir male of the said Charles Stoddart, ought to remain to the said George Forster by form of the gifts aforesaid, for that the said John Pye died without heirs male of the body of the said John Pye on the body of the said Ann his wife begotten, and without heirs female of the body of the said John Pye on the body of the said Ann his wife begotten, save and except the said Elizabeth Pye, and for that the said Elizabeth Pye died without issue of her body issuing, and for that the said Charles Stoddart the father left left the said Charles Stoddart his son and heir male of his body lawfully begotten, and died without any other issue male of the body of the said Charles Stoddart the father lawfully issuing, and for that the said Charles Stoddart the son died without any issue male of his body lawfully issuing: And whereupon the said George Forster says that the said Thomas Pye was seised of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, in his demesne as of fee and right in the time of peace in the time of the lord George the Second, late king of Great Britain, by taking the esplees thereof to the value, &c. and being so seised thereof the said Thomas Pye, on the fourth day of March, in the year of Our Lord 1740, at Morpeth aforesaid, in the county aforesaid, by a certain indenture then and there made between the said Thomas Pye of the one part, and the said John Orde and John Richardson of the other part (which said indenture was sealed with the seal of the said Thomas Pye, the date whereof is the same day and year aforesaid), for the considerations therein mentioned bargained and sold (amongst other things) the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, to the said John Orde and John Richardson, to hold to them the said John Orde and J. P. on the body of the said A. M. to be begotten and the heirs male of the body of such first son lawfully to be begotten, and for default of such issue then to the use and behoof of the second son of the body of the said J. 2d Plea.

And the said George Nelson and Isabel, by Thomas Meggison their attorney, come and defend their right, when, &c. and say, that the said Thomas Pye did not give the said reversion of and in the tenements above demanded, with the appurtenances, failing the issue male of the body of the said Charles Stoddart the father, to the use of the said George Forster for his life, and at his death to the issue male of his body lawfully begotten, as the said George Forster hath by his said writ and declaration above supposed; and of this the said George Nelson and Isabel put themselves upon the country, &c.: And the said George Nelson and Isabel, for further plea in this behalf, by leave of the court here to them for that purpose first granted, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, say that the said George Forster ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action against them; because they say, that after the making of the said supposed devise by the said Thomas Pye in form aforesaid, and upon the death of the said Thomas Pye, the said Charles Stoddart the father in the said declaration mentioned, by virtue of the said devise, and by force of the statute for transferring uses into possession, became and was seised of and in the said reversion of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, in fee tail, that is to say, to him

and the heirs male of his body lawfully begotten, and the said Charles Stoddart the father afterwards, to wit, on the first day of June, in the year of Our Lord 1754, at Morpeth aforesaid, died seised of his said estate tail of and in the said reversion of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, leaving Charles Stoddart his eldest son and heir male of his body, and thereupon the said reversion of and in the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, descended and came to the said Charles Stoddart the son as son and heir male of the body of the said Charles Stoddart the father in the said writ and declaration mentioned lawfully begotten, whereupon the said Charles Stoddart the son became and was seised of and in the said reversion of the said tenements, with the appurtenances, in his demesne as of fee tail, and the said Elizabeth Pye in the said declaration mentioned afterwards, to wit, on the tenth day of November, in the year of Our Lord 1771, at Morpeth aforesaid, died without issue, whereupon the said Charles Stoddart the son entered into the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, and became and was seised thereof in his demesne as of fee tail, that is to say, to him and the heirs male of his body lawfully begotten, and the said Charles Stoddart the son being so seised thereof afterwards, to wit, on the thirtieth day of October, in the year of Our Lord 1772, at Morpeth aforesaid, in the county aforesaid, by a certain indenture made between the said Charles Stoddart the son of the one part, and John Letteney, of Gray's Inn, in the county of Middlesex, gentleman, of the other part (one part of which indenture, sealed with the seal of the said Charles Stoddart the son, the said George Nelson and Isabel now bring here into court, the date whereof is the same day and year last above mentioned), for the considerations therein mentioned, bargained and sold unto the said John Letteney (amongst other things) the said tenements above demanded, with the appurtenances, to have and to hold the same unto the said John Letteney, his executors, administrators, and assigns, from the day of the date thereof for and during the term of one whole year from thence next ensuing and fully to be complete and ended; by virtue whereof, and of the statute made for transferring of uses into possession, the said John Letteney was possessed of the said tenements, with the appurtenances, and the said John Letteney being so possessed thereof, and the said Charles Stoddart the son being so seised of and in the reversion of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, he the said Charles Stoddart the son afterwards, to wit, on the thirty-first day of October, in the thirteenth year aforesaid, at Morpeth aforesaid, by a certain other indenture made between the said Charles Stoddart the son of the first part, the said John Letteney of the second part, and Michael Pearson, of Newcastle upon Tyne, esquire, of the third part (one part of which last-mentioned indenture the said George Nelson and Isabel now bring here into court, sealed with the seal of the said Charles Stoddart the son, the date whereof is the same day and year last above mentioned), for the considerations therein mentioned, granted, bargained, sold, aliened, released, and confirmed unto the said John Letteney, his heirs, and assigns (amongst other things), the tenements aforesaid above demanded, with the appurtenances, and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders thereof, to have and to hold the same unto the said John Letteney, his heirs, and assigns for ever, as by the said indenture of release, amongst other things, it more fully appears ; by virtue whereof the said John L. became and was seised of and in the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, in his demesne as of fee, and being so seised thereof one Michael Pearson, esquire, afterwards, to wit, in the term of the Holy Trinity, in the twelfth year of the reign of his present majesty, in the court of our said lord the present king of the bench at Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, before sir William de Grey, knight, and his brethren, then the justices of our said lord the king of the bench, impleaded the said John Letteney in a plea of land of the said tenements, with the appurtenances (among other things), by a writ of our said lord the king of entry sur disseisin en le poist, there returnable in the same court, and duly returned, and the said John Letteney party to the same writ in the same court then duly appearing, and the said John Letteney being tenant of the said tenements, with the appurtenances, as above mentioned, the said Michael Pearson then declaring upon the said writ in his proper person demanded against the said John Letteney (amongst other things) the said tenements, with the appurtenances, in Morpeth, in the parish of Morpeth, as his right and inheritance, and into which the said John Letteney had not entry, unless after the disseisin which Hugh Hunt thereof unjustly and without judgment made on the said Michael within thirty years, &c. and whereupon he then said that he himself was seised of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, in his demesne as of fee and right, in time of peace, in the time of our said lord the present king, by taking the profits thereof to the value, &c. and into which, &c. and therefore he brought suit, &c. and the said John Letteney in his proper person came and defended the right, when, &c. and thereupon vouched to warranty the said Charles Stoddart the son to be summoned in the county aforesaid, and the said C. S. the son had there in eight days of Saint Martin, by the aid of the court, &c. the same day was given there to the parties aforesaid, &c. and upon that the said John L. appointed in his stead Rowland Lickbarrow and William Cuthbert his attornies jointly and severally against the said Michael to gain or lose of the plea aforesaid, &c. at which day there came as well the said Michael in his proper person as the said John Letteney by the said Rowland Lickbarrow his attorney, and the said Charles Stoddart the son being summoned, &c. likewise came by Robert Lewis his attorney, and freely warranted the said tenements, with the appurtenances, to the said John Letteney, &c. thereupon the said Michael demanded against Charles Stoddart the son, tenant by his own warranty, the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, in form aforesaid, &c.

&c. and whereupon he said that he was seised of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, in his demesne as of fee and right, in the time of peace, in the time of our said lord the present king, by taking the profits thereof to the value, &c. and into which, &c. and therefore he brought suit, &c. and the said C. S. tenant by his own warranty, then defended his right, when, &c. and further vouched to warranty Thomas Francis Martin, who was then likewise present in court in his proper person, and freely warranted the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, to him, &c. and thereupon the said Michael demanded against the said Thomas Francis, tenant by his own warranty, the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, and thereupon he said that he himself was seised of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, in his demesne as of fee and right, in time of peace, in the time of our said lord the present king, by taking the profits thereof to the value, &c. and into which, &c. and therefore he brought suit, &c. and the said Thomas Francis, tenant by his own warranty, defended his right, when, &c. and said that the aforesaid Hugh Hunt did not disseise the aforesaid Michael of the aforesaid tenements, with the appurtenances, as the said Michael by his writ and declaration aforesaid above supposed; and of that he puts himself upon the country; and thereupon the said Michael prayed leave to imparl, and he had it, &c. and afterwards the said Michael came again into the same court in the same term in his proper person, and the said Thomas Francis, although solemnly demanded, did not come, but departed in contempt of the court, and made default; it was therefore then considered that the said Michael recover his seisin against the said John Letteney of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, and that the said John Letteney should have of the land of the said Charles Stoddart the son to the value, &c. and that the said Charles Stoddart the son should further have of the land of the said Thomas Francis to the value, &c. and that the said Thomas Francis should be in mercy, &c. and thereupon the said Michael prayed the writ of our said lord the present king to be directed to the then sheriff of the county of Northumberland to cause a full seisin of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, to be delivered to him, and it was then granted to him, returnable in the same court forthwith, &c. afterwards, to wit, on the twenty-eighth day of November, in that same term, came into the said court the said Michael in his proper person, and the sheriff, namely, Francis Blake, esquire, then returned that he by virtue of the said writ to him directed on the twenty-fourth day of the same month of November, did cause full seisin of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, to be delivered to the said Michael, as by the said writ he was commanded, as by the record and proceedings thereupon remaining in the court of our lord the present king of the bench here, to wit, at Westminster aforesaid, it more fully appears: And the said George Nelson and Isabel further say, that recovery was had and suffered as to the said tenements, appurtenances, by the said George Forster above declared to the use of the said Charles Stoddart the son and his heirs, by virtue of which said recovery, and by force of the statute transferring of uses into possession, the said Charles Stoddart became and was seised in his demesne as of fee of and in the said tenements above demanded, with the appurtenances, the whereof which Charles Stoddart the son, of and in the same tenements, with the appurtenances, the said George Nelson and Isabel now have, and on the day of suing out the original writ of the said George Forster had; and this they are ready to verify; wherefore they pray judgment whether the said George Forster ought to have or maintain his aforesaid action against them, &c. And the said George Nelson and Isabel, for further plea in this behalf by leave of the court here to them for this purpose first granted according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, say, that the said George Forster ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against them; because they say, that true it is that the said Thomas Pye was seised of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, in his demesne as of fee, as the said George Forster hath in his said declaration above alledged; and that being so seised thereof, the said Thomas Pye, on the said fourth day of March in the year of Our Lord 1740, bargained and sold the same to the said John Orde and John Richardson, to hold to them the said John Orde and John Richardson for the said term of one year, as the said George Forster hath above alledged; and that by virtue of the said demise, and by force of the statute for transferring uses into possession, the said John Orde and John Richardson became possessed of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, the reversion after the determination of the said term of one year belonging to the said Thomas Pye and his heirs, as the said George Forster hath in his said declaration above alledged; but the said George Nelson and Isabel farther say, that the said John Orde and John Richardson being so possessed thereof, and the reversion thereof belonging to the said Thomas Pye as aforesaid, he the said Thomas Pye afterwards, by a certain indenture bearing date the said fifth day of March in the said year 1740, released the said last-mentioned reversion of the said tenements, with the appurtenances, unto the said John Orde and John Richardson, their heirs and assigns, to the use and behoof of the said Thomas Pye until the solemnization of a marriage then intended between the said John Pye and Ann Marr, and from and after the solemnization of the said intended marriage, to the use and behoof of the said John Pye for and during the term of his natural life, and from and after the determination of that estate, then to the use and behoof of the said John Orde and John Richardson and their heirs, for and during the term of the natural life of the said John Pye, and from and after the death of the said John Pye, to the use and behoof of the said Ann

Ann Marr and her assigns, for and during the term of her natural life, and from and after the determination of that estate to the use and behoof of the first son on the body of the said Ann Marr to be begotten, and the heirs male of the body of such first son lawfully to be begotten, with divers remainders over, by virtue of which last-mentioned release the said John Orde and John Richardson became and were seised of the said tenements, with the appurtenances, in their demesne as of fee to the uses before in that behalf mentioned; And the said Ann Marr was afterwards, to wit, on the seventeenth day of July, in the year of Our Lord 1741, at Morpeth aforesaid, duly had and solemnized between the said John Pye and Ann Marr; and after the solemnization thereof, and by virtue of the said last-mentioned release, and by force of the statute for transferring uses into possession, the said John Pye became and was seised of the said tenements, with the appurtenances, in his demesne as of freehold, to wit, for the term of his natural life, the remainder thereof belonging as aforesaid; and being so seised, the said John Pye afterwards, to wit, on the first day of June 1742, at Morpeth aforesaid, died, leaving the said Ann his wife him there surviving, after whose death the said Ann entered into the said tenements, with the appurtenances, as into her said remainder, and became and was thereof seised in her demesne as of freehold, to wit, for the term of her natural life, the remainder thereof belonging as aforesaid; and being so thereof seised, the said Ann Marr afterwards, to wit, on the fifth day of September in the year of Our Lord 1754, at Morpeth aforesaid, enfeoffed the said George Nelson and Isabel of the said tenements, with the appurtenances, to hold the same to the said George Nelson and Isabel, and their heirs, to the use of the said George Nelson and Isabel, and their heirs, for and during the term of the natural life of the said Ann Marr; by virtue of which feoffment the said George Nelson and Isabel, before and at the time of suing out the said original writ of the said George Forster, were, and yet are seised of the said tenements, with the appurtenances, in their demesne as of freehold for the term of the natural life of the said Ann Marr; without this, that the said indenture of release in the said declaration mentioned is the deed of the said Thomas Pye, in manner and form as the said George Forster hath above alledged; and this the said George Nelson and Isabel are ready to verify; wherefore they pray judgment whether the said George Forster ought to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against them, &c. And the said George Nelson and Isabel, for further plea in this behalf by like leave of the court here to them for this purpose first granted according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, say, that the said George Forster ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action against them; because they say that true it is that the said Elizabeth Pye was seised of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, in her demesne as of fee tail in manner and form as the said George Forster hath in his said declaration declaration above alledged; but the said George Nelson and Isabel further say, that the said Elizabeth being so seised thereof, afterwards, to wit, on the tenth day of February in the year of Our Lord 1771, at Morpeth aforesaid, intermarried with and took to husband one George Munro, by reason whereof the said George Munro and Elizabeth, in right of the said Elizabeth, became and were seised of the tenements aforesaid, with their appurtenances, in their demesne as of fee tail, to wit, to them and the heirs female of the body of the said Elizabeth; and being so thereof seised, the said George Munro and Elizabeth his wife, afterwards, to wit, on the tenth day of November in the year of Our Lord 1771, at Morpeth aforesaid, had issue female between them lawfully begotten, to wit, Munro; and the said George Munro and Elizabeth his wife, being so seised of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, the said Elizabeth afterwards, to wit, on the eleventh day of November in the said year of Our Lord 1771, at Morpeth aforesaid, died so seised of such her said estate, after whose death the said George held himself in the said tenements, with the appurtenances, and was thereof seised in his demesne as of freehold for the term of his life as tenant thereof by the law of England: And the said George Munro being so thereof seised, afterwards, to wit, on the first day of January in the year of Our Lord 1777, at Morpeth aforesaid, enfeoffed the said George Nelson and Isabel of the said tenements, with the appurtenances, to hold the same to the said George Nelson and Isabel and their heirs, to the use of the said George Nelson and Isabel and their heirs, for and during the term of the life of the said George Munro, by virtue of which feoffment the said George Nelson and Isabel before and at the time of the suing out the said original writ of the said George Forster were and yet are seised of the said tenements, with the appurtenances, in their demesne as of freehold for the term of the life of the said George Munro, with this, that the said George Munro still is in full life, to wit, at Morpeth aforesaid; and this the said George Nelson and Isabel are ready to verify; wherefore they pray judgment whether the said George Forster ought to have or maintain his aforesaid action against them, &c.

1st Plea.

And the said George Forster as to the said plea of the said George Nelson and Isabel by them first above pleaded in bar, and whereof the said George Nelson and Isabel have put themselves upon the country, the said George Forster doth so likewise, &c.

Replication to 2d Plea.

And as to the said plea of the said George Nelson and Isabel by them secondly above pleaded in bar, the said George Forster says, that he by reason of any thing by the said George Nelson and Isabel in the said plea alledged, ought not to be barred from having and maintaining his aforesaid action thereof against them, because protesting that the said plea by the said George Nelson and Isabel secondly above pleaded in bar, and the matters therein contained, in the manner the same are above pleaded, are not sufficient

sufficient in law to bar the said George Forster from having and maintaining his aforesaid action thereof against them, to which said plea the said George Forster is not obliged by the laws of the land to answer; protesting also that the said Charles Stoddart the father, and Charles Stoddart the son, were not respectively seised of and in the said reversion of the tenements above demanded, with the appurtenances, as the said George Nelson and Isabel have above in their said plea by them secondly above pleaded in bar supposed; protesting also that the said Charles Stoddart the son did not by the said indenture in the said plea first above mentioned, bargain and sell unto the said John Letteney in the said plea mentioned, the tenements above demanded, with the appurtenances, as by the said plea is above alledged; protesting also that the said Charles Stoddart the son did not by the said indenture in the said plea lastly above mentioned, grant, bargain, sell, alien, release, and confirm unto the said John Letteney, his heirs and assigns, the tenements aforesaid above demanded, with the appurtenances, and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders thereof as the said George Nelson and Isabel have above in their said plea secondly above pleaded alledged; protesting also that the said John Letteney was not at the time of purchasing the said writ of entry sur disseisin en-le post, or at any time afterwards tenant of the tenements above demanded, with the appurtenances, as by the said plea is also above alledged; protesting also that no such recovery of the tenements above demanded, with the appurtenances, was suffered or executed as by the said plea is above supposed; nevertheless for replication in this behalf, the said George Forster as before says, that the said Elizabeth Pye, after the death of the said Thomas Pye, and after the death of the said Charles Stoddart the father, by form of the gift in the said writ and declaration first above mentioned, and by force of the statute for transferring uses into possession, being seised of the tenements above demanded, with the appurtenances, in her demesne as of fee tail as aforesaid, the reversion thereof belonging and remaining as by the said will of the said Thomas Pye is limited as above mentioned, afterwards, to wit, in Michaelmas Term, in the fourth year of the reign of our sovereign lord the present king, in the court of our said lord the king of the bench at Westminster, a certain fine was in due manner levied in the said court of our said lord the now king of the bench before Charles Pratt, Edward Clive, Henry Bathurst, and Henry Gould, justices of our lord the King, and others then and there, to wit, at Westminster aforesaid present, between one Roger Marr, by the name of Roger Marr, gentleman, plaintiff, and the said Elizabeth Pye, by the name of Elizabeth Pye, spinster, deforciant, of three messuages and four acres of land, with the appurtenances, in the parish of Morpeth, whereof the said tenements above demanded, with the appurtenances, were and are part and parcel, whereupon a plea of covenant was summoned between them in the same court, that is to say, that the aforesaid Elizabeth had acknowledged

ledged the aforesaid tenements, with the appurtenances, to be the right of him the said Roger, as those which the said Roger had of the gift of the aforesaid Elizabeth, and those she had remised, and quit claimed from her and her heirs, to the aforesaid Roger and his heirs for ever: And moreover the said Elizabeth had granted for her and her heirs, that they would warrant to the aforesaid Roger and his heirs the aforesaid tenements, with the appurtenances, against her the said Elizabeth and her heirs for ever, for which acknowledgment, remise, quit claim, warranty, fine, and agreement, the said Roger had given to the aforesaid Elizabeth sixty pounds sterling, which said fine in form aforesaid levied was then and there engrossed, and afterwards in the said court before the justices aforesaid, according to the form of the statute in that case made and provided, was publicly read and proclaimed in form following, that is to say, the first proclamation thereupon was made on the twenty-eighth day of November in Michaelmas Term aforesaid, in the fourth year of the reign aforesaid; the second proclamation thereupon was made on the thirteenth day of February in Hilary Term, in the fourth year of the reign aforesaid; the third proclamation thereupon was made on the first day of June in Easter Term in the fourth year of the reign aforesaid; the fourth proclamation thereupon was made on the fourth day of July in Trinity Term, in the fourth year of the reign aforesaid, as by the said fine with the proclamations thereupon in form aforesaid made remaining of record in the said court of our said lord the king of the bench at Westminster aforesaid may more fully and at large appear: And the said George Forster in fact further says, that in the said times of reading the said fine, and making the said proclamations thereupon in form aforesaid made all pleas in the said court of our said lord the king of the bench ceased, according to the form of the statute in that case made and provided, which said fine, with the proclamations aforesaid, so levied as aforesaid, was levied as to the said tenements above demanded, with the appurtenances, to and for the use and behoof of the said Elizabeth Pye, her heirs and assigns for ever, to wit, at Morpeth aforesaid, by virtue of which said fine, with the proclamations aforesaid, the said Elizabeth Pye became and was seised to her and to her heirs of such estate in the said tenements above demanded, with the appurtenances, as by force of the said fine with proclamations aforesaid, in form aforesaid levied, passed to the said Elizabeth Pye and her heirs: And the said Elizabeth Pye being so seised of the tenements above demanded, with the appurtenances, she the said Elizabeth Pye afterwards, to wit, on the eighth day of February in the year of Our Lord 1771, at Morpeth aforesaid, in the county aforesaid, by a certain indenture then and there made between the said Elizabeth Pye of the one part, and one William Orde and John Hepburn of the other part, which said indenture was sealed with the seal of the said Elizabeth Pye, the date whereof is the same day and year last aforesaid, for and in consideration of a certain sum of money therein

therein mentioned, bargained and sold (amongst other things) the tenements aforesaid above demanded, with the appurtenances, to the said William Orde and John Hepburn, to hold to them the said William Orde and John Hepburn, their executors, administrators, and assigns, from the day next before the day of the date of the said indenture, for and during and unto the full end and term of one whole year from thence next ensuing, and fully to be complete and ended, by virtue whereof, and by force of the statute for transferring uies into possession, the said William Orde and John Hepburn became possessed of the said tenements above-demanded, with the appurtenances, the reversion thereof after the determination of the said term of one year belonging to the said Elizabeth Pye and her heirs in form aforesaid; and the said William Orde and John Hepburn being so possessed thereof, and the reversion thereof belonging to the said Elizabeth Pye in form aforesaid, she the said Elizabeth Pye afterwards, to wit, on the ninth day of February in the said year of Our Lord 1771, at Morpeth aforesaid, in the county aforesaid, by a certain other indenture then and there made between the said Elizabeth Pye of the first part, one George Munro of the second part, and the said William Orde and John Hepburn of the third part, which said last-mentioned indenture was sealed with the seal of the said Elizabeth Pye, the date whereof is the same day and year last aforesaid, the said Elizabeth Pye, for the considerations therein mentioned, released the said reversion last mentioned of the said tenements above demanded, with the appurtenances, by the respective names and descriptions of all that messuage, burgage, house or tenement, situate, standing, and being in Morpeth aforesaid, formerly in the tenure or possession of Francis Rumney, and then in the tenure, occupation, or possession of Thomas Harle, inn-keeper, as tenant thereof, and also all that other messuage, burgage, house, or tenement, situate, standing, and being in Morpeth aforesaid, formerly in the tenure or possession of Mary Loraine, widow, and then lately in the possession or occupation of the said John Hepburn, with their respective rights, members, and appurtenances, (subject with other things in the said indenture mentioned, to the said annuity or yearly rent charge of twenty pounds, payable to Ann the mother of the said Elizabeth Pye during her natural life) unto the said William Orde and John Hepburn and their heirs, to hold the same (subject as aforesaid) unto the said William Orde and John Hepburn and their heirs, to the use of the said Elizabeth Pye, her heirs and assigns, until the solemnization of a marriage then intended to be had and solemnized between the said Elizabeth Pye and George Munro, and from and after the solemnization of the said intended marriage, then to the use of the said George Munro and the said Elizabeth his intended wife, for and during their natural lives, and the life of the longer liver of them without impeachment of or for any manner of waste, remainder to the said William Orde and John Hepburn and their heirs for and during the lives of the said

said George Munro and Elizabeth his intended wife, and for and during the life of the survivor of them, upon trust to preserve and support the contingent uses and estates therein-after limited, and from and after the death and decease of the said George Munro and the said Elizabeth his intended wife, and the survivor of them, then to the use and behoof of the first son on the body of the said Elizabeth Pye lawfully to be begotten, and the heirs male of the body of such first son lawfully to be begotten; and for default of such issue then to the use and behoof of the second son of the said Elizabeth Pye lawfully to be begotten, and the heirs male of the body of such second son lawfully to be begotten; and for default of such issue to the third, fourth, and fifth, and all and every other son and sons of the body of the said Elizabeth Pye to be begotten, and the heirs male of the bodies of such sons lawfully to be begotten, according to their seniority of age and priority of birth, severally successively one after another; and for default of such issue then to the use and behoof of the heirs female of the body of the said Elizabeth Pye lawfully to be begotten, and for default of such issue then to the use and behoof of such person and persons, his, her, and their heirs and assigns, as the said Elizabeth Pye, either sole or married, and notwithstanding her coverture by any deed or deeds, writing or writings, or by her last will and testament in writing, or any writing purporting her last will and testament, in the presence of three or more credible witnesses to be respectively executed should direct or appoint, and for want thereof to the use and behoof of the right heirs of the said Elizabeth Pye for ever: And the said George Forster in fact says, that the said marriage between the said George Munro and Elizabeth Pye was afterwards, to wit, on the same day and year last aforesaid, at Morpeth aforesaid, in the county aforesaid, duly had and solemnized, and after the solemnization thereof, the said George Munro and Elizabeth, according to the force and effect of the said indenture of release, and by force of the said statute for transferring uses into possession, became and were seised of the tenements above demanded, with the appurtenances of such estate for the term of their natural lives, and the life of the longer liver of them, as by the said fine with the proclamations aforesaid, in form aforesaid levied to the said Elizabeth Pye and her heirs passed the remainders and reversion thereof in form aforesaid belonging; and being so seised, she the said Elizabeth, afterwards, to wit, on the twenty-eighth day of August in the year of Our Lord 1771, at Morpeth aforesaid, in the county aforesaid, made her last will and testament in writing, executed by her in the presence of three credible witnesses, and thereby, amongst other things, did give and devise the said reversion of the said tenements above demanded, with the appurtenances, unto her said husband George Munro, his heirs and assigns for ever, and afterwards, to wit, on the second day of November in the said year of Our Lord 1771, at Morpeth aforesaid died, without altering or revoking her said will, and without any issue of her body issuing, the said George Munro her surviving, upon whose death the right in and

And the said George Nelson and Isabel as to the said plea of the said George Forster above pleaded by way of reply to the said plea of the said George Nelson and Isabel, by them secondly above pleaded in bar, say, that the said plea of the said George Forster, and the matters therein contained, are not sufficient in law for him the said George Forster to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against the said George Nelson and Isabel; to which same plea in manner and form as the same is above pleaded the said George Nelson and Isabel are not under any necessity, nor in any wise bound by the law of the land to answer; and this they are ready to verify; wherefore for want of a sufficient replication in this behalf the said George Nelson and Isabel pray judgment, and that the said George Forster may be barred from having and maintaining his aforesaid action thereof against them, &c.:

And

And for causes of demurrer in law in this behalf the said George Nelson and Isabel, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, shew to the court here these causes following, to wit, for that the same plea of the said George Forster above in reply pleaded does not either traverse or confess, and avoid the matter alledged in the said second plea of the said George Nelson and Isabel, nor does it directly answer the same, but by way of inference and argument only; and for that the matter aforesaid so pleaded by way of reply is only matter of evidence, and should not be so pleaded; and for that no material or conclusive issue can be taken upon the same plea of the said George Forster, or of any part therein contained; and for that the same plea is in other respects defective, insufficient, and wants form, &c.: And the said George Nelson and Isabel as to the said plea of the said George Forster by him above pleaded by way of reply to the said plea of the said George Nelson and Isabel by them thirdly above pleaded in bar, and whereof the said George Forster prays it may be enquired of by the country; the said George Nelson and Isabel do the like: And the said George Nelson and Isabel as to the said plea of the said George Forster by him above pleaded by way of reply to the said plea of the said George Nelson and Isabel by them lastly above pleaded in bar, say, that the same plea of the said George Forster, and the matters therein contained are not sufficient in law for him the said George Forster to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against the said George Nelson and Isabel, to which same plea in manner and form as the same is above pleaded the said George Nelson and Isabel are not under any necessity, nor in any wise bound by the law of the land to answer; and this they are ready to verify; wherefore for want of a sufficient replication in this behalf the said George Nelson and Isabel pray judgment, and that the said George Forster may be barred from having and maintaining his aforesaid action thereof against them, &c.

And the said George Forster says, that the said plea by him above in reply pleaded to the said plea of the said George Nelson and Isabel by them secondly above pleaded in bar, and the matters therein contained, are sufficient in law for him the said George Forster to have and maintain his aforesaid action thereof against them; which said replication, and the matters therein contained, he the said George Forster is ready to verify and prove, as the court here shall order: wherefore inasmuch as the said George Nelson and Isabel have not denied nor in any wise answered the matters contained in the said replication, but the verification thereof to admit do wholly refuse, he the said George Forster as before prays judgment and seisin of the tenements above demanded, with the appurtenances, to be adjudged to him, &c.: And the said George Forster further says, that the said plea by him above in reply pleaded to the said plea of the said George Nelson and Isabel by them lastly above pleaded in bar, and the matters therein

therein contained, are sufficient in law for him the said George Forster to have and maintain his aforesaid action thereof against them; which said replication, and the matters therein contained, he the said George Forster is ready to verify and prove as the court here shall order; wherefore inasmuch as the said George Nelson and Isabel have not denied, nor in any wise answered the matters contained in the said replication, but the verification thereof to admit do wholly refuse, he the said George Forster as before prays judgment and seisin of the tenements above demanded, with the appurtenances, to be adjudged to him, &c.; but because the said justices here will advise amongst themselves of and upon the premises whereon the said parties have put themselves upon the judgment of the court before they give their judgment thereon, day is given unto the said parties here until in three weeks from the day of the Holy Trinity to hear judgment thereupon, for that the said justices here are not yet fully advised thereon, &c.: And as to the trying of the said issues above joined between the said parties to be tried by the country the sheriff is commanded to cause to come here in three weeks from the day of the Holy Trinity aforesaid, twelve, &c. by whom, &c. and who neither, &c. to recognize, &c. because as well, &c. the same day is given to the parties here, &c.; at which day here come as well the said George Forster, by his attorney aforesaid, as the said George Nelson and Isabel, by their attorney aforesaid; and because the justices here will further advise amongst themselves of and upon the premises whereon the said parties have put themselves upon the judgment of the court before they give their judgment thereon, day is given unto the said parties here until the morrow of All Souls, to hear their judgment of and concerning the premises aforesaid, for that the said justices here are not yet fully advised thereon, &c.; and as to the trying the issues aforesaid above joined between the said parties to be tried by the country, the jury between the parties aforesaid of the plea aforesaid is respited thereupon between them until on the morrow of All Souls aforesaid, unless the justices of the lord the king assigned to take the assizes in the county aforesaid, by form of the statute in such case made and provided, shall before come on the day of August next following, at the of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in the county aforesaid, for default of the jurors, because none came; therefore, &c.

JOHN COOKE, esquire, sheriff,

Make an affidavit before a master in chancery of the value of the lands, which is done by swearing that they do not exceed the yearly value of pounds. Apply to the curfitor of the county where the lands lie, who will make a writ of formedon which must be compounded at the Hanaper Office, No 6, Coney-court, Gray's Inn. Mr. C. is the deputy clerk. You pay at the rate of 1s. 4d. per pound for the value sworn to.

When you have compounded the writ carry it back to the curfitor, who will get it sealed. Care must be taken to have fifteen days between the teste and the return of the writ; but there is no necessity to have four returns between, as generally imagined, by the curfitor, the late Act of Parliament 24. G. 2. for shortening returns rendering it unnecessary.

The statute 13. Ed. 1. gives the writ of formedon, and the subsequent statute 28. Edw. 1. f. 3. and 15 directs that in all summonses and attachments in a plea of land the summons and attachment shall contain at least fifteen days. The statute 31 Eliz. c. 2. f. 2. that after every summons upon the land in any real action a proclamation shall be made at the church door fourteen days before the return of the summons. You must first summons the defendant by real summoners, and on the summoning day following make proclamation at the church door where the lands lie.

You must then get the sheriff's return to the writ, and care must be taken that that he returns the proclamation; for without that you cannot proceed to a distringas in case the defendant does not appear. The sheriff must also return good good summoners, not John Doe and Richard Roe.

Instructions how to proceed previous to and after the issuing the formedon in descender.

If the tenant cannot be found you may fix a summons upon the house or land. At the return of the writ the tenant may call one essoign under the late Act of Parliament, and the demandant must take care to join in the essoign, or a non prof. may be signed.

This essoign was adjourned to the day of E. in the year, &c. The tenant in this case entered his appearance with the filacer at the return day of that essoign, and a declaration was delivered to his attorney, and the common rule to plead was given on the fourth day afterwards. The tenant's attorney pleaded a plea in abatement, that these lands were ancient demesne, but as he did not file an affidavit of the truth of the plea, demandant moved the court (at the expiration of a common rule for a peremptory rule to plead) and the same was drawn up with the secondary, and was served upon the tenant's attorney,

This rule was given on the Thursday and expired on the Monday following. After the service the tenant's attorney took out a summons before sir J. Yates, for time to plead. Demandant opposed the granting any further time, and insisted that a judge had no power at chambers to give the tenant time to plead after the expiration of a peremptory rule, which being an act of the court disabled the judge at chambers to allow further time; but that the tenant was under the necessity of applying to the court for time to plead, and sir J. Yates concurred in that opinion and refused to make an order.

The tenant being thus circumstanced pleaded non dedit, that otherwise demandant would have signed judgment for want of a plea (if tenant had not applied to the court for time), as the first plea of ancient demesne was a plea in abatement, and no affidavit of truth, &c.

The issue was made up by demandant's attorney as in common cases, and gave notice of trial for the next assizes at , but tenant did not venture a trial, withdrew his plea, gave judgment, and demandant took out a writ of seisin, and caused the same to be executed and possession to be delivered by the sheriff to the demandant.

Seisin of lands recovered by formedon in descender.

GEORGE, &c. to, &c. Whereas E. H. lately in our court before our justices at Westminster recovered his seisin against H. C. of one undivided moiety of one messuage, &c. with the appurtenances, in , in your county, by our writ of formedon in descender, therefore we command you that you cause the said E. H. to have full seisin of the moiety of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, without delay; and how you shall execute this our precept make appear to our justices at Westminster in fifteen days of St. Hilary; and have there this writ. WRIT OF RIGHT.

[The following draft and case (with the latter of which Mr. Marryatt's observations and opinion, and a statement of the facts to him are stated) was laid before Mr. Serjeant Hill for his perusal and advice.]

Writ of cozenage
"or of right."

There was no actual garden but a small yard behind each of the houses.

GEORGE the Third, by the grace of God, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, king, defender of the faith, &c. to the sheriffs of London, greeting: Command James Lloyd, that justly and without delay he render unto Richard Hoddesden two messuages, and two gardens, with the appurtenances, in the several parishes of St. Mary Woolnoth, in the ward of Walbrook, and of St. Andrew Undershaft, in the ward of Lime-street, whereof Catherine Hibbins the cousin of the said Richard, whose heir he is, was seised in her demesne as of fee upon the day wherein she died, as he saith, "which he claims to be his right and inheritance, and whereof he complains that the said James unjustly desorces him;" and unless he shall do so, and if the said Richard shall give you security to prosecute his claim, then summon by good summoners the said James that he be before our justices at Westminster, on the morrow of the Purification, to shew wherefore he has not done it; and have you there the summoners and this writ. Witness ourself at Westminster, the fifteenth day of January, in the twenty-ninth year of our reign.

QUERY. Whether any mention should be made of the husband, who had a joint seisin with her in her right, until the time of her death?

ANSWER. This may be proper to be mentioned in the Count, at least I think it can do no hurt there; but the pedigree is I think not necessary to be stated in the writ, much less is this fact necessary.

G. HILL.

NOTE. The tenant or defendant should be really summoned upon the land (1. Mod. 248.) and the summons be proclaimed at the most usual doors of the churches in the respective parishes where the premises are situate (or at least one of them), on a Sunday, fourteen days before the return of the writ, 31. Eliz. c. 3.; the return must therefore be filled up so as to leave sufficient time for that purpose,
S. MARRYATT.

On the twenty-third of August 1758, Mrs. Catherine Culver, being seised in fee of some estates in possession, and of others in reversion, and being about to intermarry with Dr. James Hibbins, the following agreement was entered into, and signed by each of them upon unstamped paper :

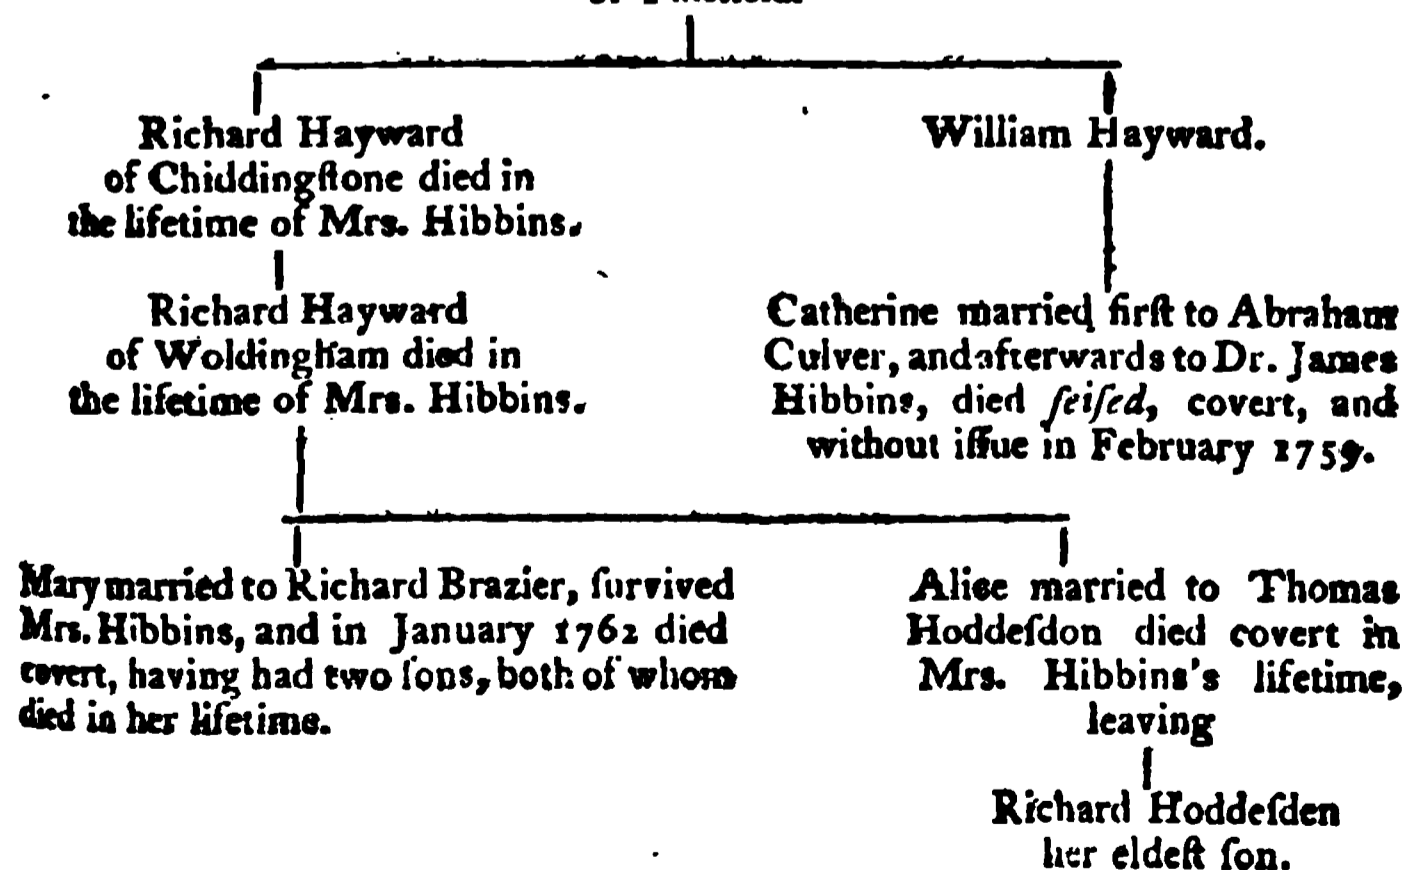

Whereas a marriage is shortly to be consummated between James Hibbins of London, doctor in physick, and Catherine Culver of the parish of Rumford, in the county of Essex, widow, who is entitled to a considerable fortune, consisting of ready money, outstanding debts, stocks in the funds, leasehold and freehold houses, estates in London, in the counties of Middlesex, Essex, &c.; and also plate, linen, china, and jewels: It is therefore agreed between them as follows, viz. That the said Catherine Culver's fortune shall be settled or remain to their joint use, for her life or the life of the longest liver, and if she shall survive the said James Hibbins, her whole fortune, together with her plate, linen, china, and jewels to be settled to her own use, and if the said Catherine Culver shall happen to die first, then the aforesaid fortune to be at her disposal; and both parties do agree that proper settlement deeds to the effect and purport above-mentioned shall be prepared between them when the same can conveniently be got ready. In witness whereof the above parties to the said agreement have set their hands this twenty-third of August 1758.

On the same day Mrs. Culver executed a will, attested by three witnesses, in which she devised the principal part of her property to her intended husband James Hibbins in fee; and immediately after the before-mentioned agreement had been signed and will executed the marriage between Dr. Hibbins and Mrs. Culver was solemnized, by which solemnization her will was in point of law revoked. No deeds were ever executed in pursuance of the above agreement, and in February 1759 Mrs. Hibbins died without issue, leaving Mary then the wife of Rich. Brazier and Mr. Rich. Hoddesden her co heirs at law, as will appear by the following sketch of the pedigree:

In January 1762 Mrs. Brazier died covert and without issue. and Mr. Hoddesden was heir at law, and is now sole heir to Mrs. Hibbins.

Richard Hayward
of Falsfield.

Int.

Immediately on Mrs. Hibbins's death her husband the doctor proved her will (of which he was appointed sole executor), and entered upon such of the real estates she died actually seised of as had been bequeathed to him. In October 1768 her reversion of the other estates (which were also bequeathed to the doctor) fell in, and he thereupon entered upon those also, and continued in possession for many years, without any idea on the part of Mr. Hoddesden of the doctor's title being disputable.

About the year 1772 Mr. Hoddesden having heard that a person who had contracted with Dr. Hibbins for the purchase of one of his wife's estates had refused to complete the contract on account of the doctor's inability to make a proper title, began to enquire what title the doctor claimed. Several meetings between them took place in consequence, and the doctor setting up his claim under the above agreement and will, and Mr. Hoddesden's then attorney expressing his doubts as to the validity of such a title, it was at length, about January 1775, agreed that copies of the agreement and will should be laid before the then Solicitor Gen. (now Lord High Chancellor L.) for his opinion as to their operation upon the freehold estates. Mr. Hoddesden was afterwards informed that the Solicitor General's opinion was that the doctor was entitled to a life estate, but that at his decease the heir at law might claim, and in his judgment would succeed. The doctor was afterwards requested to let the matter be adjusted by an amicable bill but refused. No legal steps however were taken by Mr. Hoddesden during the doctor's lifetime on account of Lord Loughborough's opinion, that the doctor was entitled for life, although the consent of the doctor to take such opinion hardly amounted to an agreement to be bound by it.

In October 1777 Dr. James Hibbins died, having by will, dated March 1774, devised the premises in question to James Lloyd for life, with several limitations over; and the rents that have been paid since the doctor's death have been received for the use of his devisee, who is an infant, by Mr. George Lloyd his uncle, under a power of attorney from the guardians appointed for him in the will of his father who was dead.

After the death of the Doctor Mr. Hoddesden, conceiving that as heir to Mrs. Hibbins or Mrs. Brazier, he was become entitled to the whole of Mrs. Hibbins's real estate, filed a sort of ejectment bill in chancery, praying that he might be let into possession, and the title deeds delivered up, and the rents and profits accounted for and paid to him. A cross suit was instituted by the devisee, praying that the two wills of Mrs. Hibbins and the doctor might be established, and he be quieted in possession. Mr. Hoddesden's heirship being controverted on the one hand, and on the other the agreement and will being insisted to be forgeries, a number of witnesses were examined, and the causes did not come to a hearing till November 1787, when the Chancellor, though strongly of opinion that the will (if actually executed by Mrs. Hibbins) was revoked even in equity by her subsequent marriage, yet as there was considerable evidence to impeach its execution in point of fact and as the heirship of Mr. Hoddesden was disputed, reserved his judgment till the parties should have proceeded to a trial and verdict at law.

In consequence of this direction ejectments were brought in last Hilary term for such of the estates as Mrs. Hibbins had been seised in reversion, the limitations preceding her reversion having determined only in October 1768, which was within twenty years; and Mr. Hoddesden's right of entry not having been taken away by the death of Dr. Hibbins (even supposing that his entry was an abatement), inasmuch as although he died seised the estate did not descend at his death, but passed by the devise in his will, 1. Ro. Abr. 626. l. 30.

One of these ejectments was carried to trial (it having been agreed between the attornies, that the others should abide the event), and a special verdict being found ascertaining the heirship of Mr. Hoddesden, and finding the agreement and will to be genuine, the cause came on to be argued in the court of king's bench last Michaelmas term, and all the judges were of opinion that the marriage was clearly a revocation of the will, and that the previous agreement could not give effect to it at law, and they therefore gave judgment for the lessor of the plaintiff. The case is reported in 2. Durn-

2. Term Reports, 584.—Judgments have also been entered by retraxit of the pleas in the other ejectments, but Mr. Hoddesden has not issued any writ of possession.

It remains to be considered by what means the other freehold estates which Mrs. Hibbins was in actual seisin of at the time of her death are to be recovered by Mr. Hoddesden, she having been dead almost thirty years. The counsel, who was concerned in the ejectments being consulted, at first suggested a writ of right; but considering that neither damages nor costs would be recoverable in that course of proceeding, he was desirous of adopting some other remedy that was free from those objections. It afterwards occurred to him that an ejectment might perhaps be maintained upon an idea (founded principally on some expressions of lord Mansfield, in 5. Burr. 2607) that it is questionable whether the possession of Dr. Hibbins, under the marriage agreement (which gave him a clear equitable estate for life) was such an adverse possession, as the statute of limitations in bar of an ejectment will attach upon. Supposing those expressions of lord Mansfield to be correctly right, the point here seems to resolve itself into this viz. whether the entry of an equitable tenant for life amounts to an abatement; conceiving, however, that an ejectment in this instance would not only be an hazardous experiment in respect of costs, but that even if it prevailed, only six years rent would be recoverable in a consequential action for mesne profits, though more than eleven have elapsed since Dr. Hibbins's death, (previous to which Mr. Hoddesden is advised that he has no equitable pretence to them) the counsel has ultimately recommended a writ of cozenage as the most eligible proceeding for Mr. Hoddesden to have recourse to; the motives for preferring it are not only that Mr. Hoddesden will be at liberty to bring a writ of right afterwards, in case of a failure from any unforeseen cause in the writ of cozenage, but because the statute of Gloucester, c. 1. has expressly damages and costs to a demandant recovering in such a proceeding: and Mr. Hoddesden's relationship seems to be within the degrees to which that writ is limited, Hale on F. N. B.

221. and 3. Black. Com. (9th edition), 186.

If, indeed, the proceedings in a precipe quod reddat would be suspended during the non-age of Dr. Hibbins's devisee, who it is presumed can alone be made tenant to it, an ejectment would be preferred, if it can be prosecuted with any reasonable prospect of success: but it is conceived, that in a real action in this case, the parol shall not demur, because the tenant, though an infant, is in either by purchase or intrusion, and not by descent, 3. Bac. Abr. 159.

The reading in most of the books on the subject of cozenage, (except Fitzherbert, where it forms a separate title) is to be found under title Ayel; and the precedents of pleadings are referred to in Townsend's Tables, under the same head. The principal entries seem to be in Rastall, 28 and 29, and Herne, 258.

Although the premises are situate in London, it is apprehended the writ of cozenage, or even of right, may be made returnable in the Common Pleas; and that neither of those writs is confined to the city court of Hustings, unless the city should demand couzance, F. N. B. 7. D. See Booth, 117. Com. Dig. title Droit. D.

The person who was tenant of one of the houses at Dr. Hibbin's death, finding the title disputable, refused paying rent to any body; and the devisee durst not bring an ejectment. Some years after he quitted it, and let another man into possession, upon receiving a sum of money as for good will, but without making any conveyance; and a third person is now in possession, under a similar purchase of the good will from the second. No rent has therefore been paid for the house (which is a public one) since the doctor's death, either to his devisee or any other person; but the present occupier says he is willing to account and pay rent for the time he has held it, being about five years, to the person legally entitled. Supposing, however, that Dr. Hibbins's devisee having received no rent for this particular house, is therefore not a proper tenant to the precipe in respect of it, there is no person that can be made so; and the devisee will find it difficult to plead non tenure of it in this this instance, as a tenant pleading non tenure of parcel only must shew who else is the tenant; (1. Mod. 181.) and even if he should be able to do so, the writ would abate only pro tanto, 25 Edw. 3. c. 16.

Another of the houses happens at this time to be untenanted, as the late occupiers (who had a lease from the guardians of Dr. Hibbins's devisee) became bankrupts, and the assignees have surrendered up the term to the lessor.

QUERY 1st. Under these circumstances, Mr. Serjeant Hill is requested to advise whether an ejectment, writ of cozenage, writ of right, or any other proceeding, can be maintained by Mr. Hoddesden for the estates that Mrs. Hibbins died in actual seisin of; 2dly, and whether the tenant, after a judgment in cozenage, can enter any suggestion that will preclude the demandant from recovering damages for more than the last six years; 3dly, and whether Mr. Hoddesden's taking a moiety only by immediate descent from Mrs. Hibbins, and the other moiety vesting in Mrs. Brazier, and descending to him afterwards, will make any difference with respect to the remedy, either for the whole or for a moiety; 4thly, if a writ of cozenage or right be proper, he will please to settle the draft of that which he prefers. His opinion is also requested, 5thly, whether a real action for premises in London is necessarily confined to the city courts, or may be brought in the C. B. at the demandant's option; 6thly, whether Dr. Hibbins's devisee, or any other person should be made tenant to the precipe for the public house, which no rent has been paid for since the doctor's death; 7thly, in what manner the summons is to be made respecting the house that is vacant; 8thly, whether if the infant tenant should neglect to appear at the return of the summons, the demandant can enter a ne recipiatur of an essoyn, issue a writ of grand scope, and proceed to judgment until a guardian is appointed for him; 9thly, in what manner, and in what stage of the proceeding (if at all) the demandant should proceed to get such appointment, 10thly, whether if the tenant should duly appear, the parol can demur on account of his non-age; 11thly, and generally to advise upon such matters as may be material.

OPINION—“ I think it far from being clear that the equitable title to the estate in question, as well as to that which has been already recovered by the judgment on the special verdict, 2. Term Rep. 684. is not in those claiming under Dr. Hibbins; for, as observed by lord Kenyon, 2. Term Rep. 695. it is not now to be doubted but that a court of equity will carry into execution to the prejudice of the heir of a feme covert, a disposition made by her by virtue of a bare agreement before marriage for enabling her to make such disposition: before the case of Wright v. lord Cadogan, it was holden that a feme covert could not devise her real estate but in two cases; first, where the same was before marriage conveyed to trustees to such uses as she notwithstanding coverture should appoint; or secondly, where after marriage the same was by her and her husband so conveyed by fine (or recovery); but in that case the legal estate was in trustees, and therefore the agreement previous to the marriage, and the will, operated as a declaration of the trusts of the legal estate, and therefore no need to make a new conveyance, the wife not having any legal estate to convey; and the only difference between that and the common case where the wife, previous to marriage, conveys her estate to trustees to such uses, &c. as she by deed or will, &c. shall appoint; and the case of Wright v. lord Cadogan is that in the former case the legal estate is conveyed, and the trusts declared by one and the same deed; whereas in the case of Wright v. lord Cadogan, the legal estate were trusts conveyed by one deed, and then declared by a different instrument which is in substance no difference at all; this reasoning seems to make a distinction between a woman's agreement previous to marriage respecting a legal and equitable estate, and that distinction was urged by counsel in the case of Rippin v. Harding, twenty-second of November 1769, before lord Camden; but it was over-ruled on this principle, that whatever is agreed for a valuable consideration to be done, is in equity considered as done; therefore I think the agreement in this

" this case was sufficient to enable " Mrs. Hibbins to have disposed of " her estate by will after marriage,
 " and then I think it a doubtful dis" tinction between a will made before
 " and after coverture for two reasons,
 " first, I doubt whether if the agree" ment had been carried into exe" cution, (and the case is in equity
 " to be considered in the same light
 " as if it had been so) the court would " not have declared the trust subject
 " to the life estates to such uses, &c.
 " as Mrs. Hibbins should by deed or " will, &c. notwithstanding, or
 " whether sole or covert appurtenant,
 " in which case I think her will would " have been good; 2dly, whether as
 " all was done in one day they may " not be considered as done at one
 " time, according to the authorities
 " cited by counsel, 1. Burr. 96.
 " though it is true it could not be pre" sumed that the marriage was before
 " the will, and a like presumption
 " was the ground that prevailed in " that case, as appears in page 106.
 " because the contrary of this case
 " appears on the face of the will; but
 " the present case proceeds on a sup" position that the marriage was a
 " revocation of the will, for it is stat" ed that that was the opinion of all
 " the judges, but I have my doubts
 " for the reasons already mentioned
 " and others; however, I shall answer
 " the several queries on a supposition
 " that the will is to be laid out of the " case in equity as well as at law,
 " for otherwise it would be to no
 " purpose to try the legal title; but
 " as lord Kenyon, 2. Ter. Rep. 695,
 " 696. determined the case without " any opinion as to the trusts as he " expressed it, ' without deciding or
 " presuming to think what a court of " equity would do in this case,' I " thought it necessary, previous to
 " answering the queries respecting
 " the proceedings at law to take no" tice of my doubts, whether Mr.
 " Hodgesden may not possibly fail in " equity, though he should succeed at " law.
 " And as to the first Query, as
 " Dr. H. died in October 1777, I " incline to think an ejectment the " most proper way of proceeding,
 " being so vastly preferable if it can " be maintained (as I incline to think
 " it may) to any real action; but
 " then a strict search must be made to
 " Vol. X.

" see whether any fine has been le" vied, for though non-claim be not " incurred, yet to avoid a fine, an " entry must be made previous to the " ejectment, though it need not to " the bringing of a real action. No " doubt such search has been made as " there was opportunity enough since
 " the death of Dr. H. for a fine and " non-claim to bar all real as well as " other actions; but this search
 " should be continued down to the " present time if an ejectment be " brought. And I think there is " great ground for argument in sup" port of the supposed opinion of lord
 " Mansfield in the case that the sta" tute of limitations will not incur
 " unless there be an adverse pos" session, which the possession of Dr.
 " H. cannot be said to be, because " he had an equitable estate for life,
 " and at law. Cestue que trust in " possession has been offered, confi-
 " dered as tenant at will to the trust-
 " tee, or at least there is such a pri-
 " vity between them that the posses" sion of one is the possession of the " other, unless where the possession
 " hath continued so long (which is " not this case) in one of them as to " raise a presumption that the other
 " has conveyed to him; and though
 " formerly cestue que use had no re" medy at common law for recovering
 " the possession, nor has now, except " where the trust is clear, yet the " common law has always took no" tice of trusts, and therefore cestue
 " que use ought to serve upon juries,
 " as observed by Litt. s. 464; so if
 " an assumpsit was made in conside" ration of a release of an equitable
 " claim or trust, the law will take " notice off it, and the assumpsit will " not be nudum pactum, but suffi" cient to support an action on the " assumpsit. This distinction, I think,
 " takes of all the force off Judge B.'s
 " argument in 2. Term Rep. 699.
 " from Litt. 464, and this distinction " is very fully explained, and as
 " standing on clear principles in lord
 " Bacon's Law Tracts, 304. 305. and " is the ground on which he then
 " mentions the opinion of Litt. to " be founded and right, and for " the same reason I think that a court
 " of law ought to take notice of an " equitable estate in Dr. H. during " his life, and that there was a pri-
 " vity between him and his late wife's
 " heir

“ heir at law, and not such an adverse “ possession on which the statute of “ limitations could incur; and it is “ obvious what absurdity would fol“ low from the contrary notion; for “ which reason I think an ejectment “ should be first tried, especially since
 “ if that should fail resort may be af“ terwards had to a real action, and “ in that case I think a writ of cozen“ age is to be preferred to a writ of “ right for the reason mentioned in “ the case.”

ANSWER to 2nd Query.—“ I “ think no suggestion can be entered “ that will preclude the demandant “ from recovering such damages as by “ law he shall appear to be entitled to,
 “ though they shall exceed six years.
 “ Where an action is brought for “ mesne profits, the statute of limi“ tations is a bar to all but the last six “ years, for the action must be either
 “ an action on the case or trespass “ after a recovery in ejectment, both “ which are within the statute, and “ Buller, Justice, said the six years
 “ must be computed from the time
 “ of bringing the action, without re“ gard to the ejectment, Worrall v.
 “ Stewart, Mich. Term, 23. Geo.
 “ III. B. R. but this has no relation “ to a writ of cozenage. The gene“ ral rule is, that damages are to be “ recovered from the death of the im“ mediate ancestor of the demandant,
 “ 2. Inst. 288. but I think, for the “ reasons under the 1st Query, only
 “ in this case from the death of Dr.
 “ Hibbins.”

To 3d Query.—“ I think Mr.
 “ Hoddesden’s taking a moiety only
 “ by immediate descent from Mrs.
 “ Hibbins, and the other moiety rest“ ing in Mrs. Brazier and descend“ ing, will make a difference, for “ Mrs. Brazier’s moiety seems to me
 “ not included in the marriage agree“ ment, for that could not be con“ sidered as any part of Mrs. Culver
 “ (after Hibbins’s) fortune at the time “ of the agreement*, and therefore “ for this moiety the ejectment will be “ perhaps said to be barred, but “ there will be no hurt in bringing

* This part of the Serjeant’s Opinion seems to have been written under a misapprehension of the fact. The entire reversion having been in Mrs. Hibbins at the time of the agreement until her death, when the division of it into moieties first besides those that are there mentioned."

To 5th Query.—"I think no real action for lands or houses in London is maintainable any where but in London, for so in 4. Inst. 247. but the first of the authorities which I have referred to in this case (viz. F. N. B. 7. D.) is express to the purpose for which it is there mentioned, and therefore I think there will be little risque if the action be brought in C. B.

To 6th Query.—"I think Dr. H.'s devisee should be made tenant to the writ of the public house, for if he pleads non tenure it will be optional in the demandant either to join issue on that plea or to sign judgment as for a disclaimer, and he will chuse the last, and that will answer the purpose as well, as I remember the doctrine of non tenure, for in such case I think he might have remedy against the person in possession by ejectment, supposing he could not by habere facias seisinam on the judgment of the writ of cozenage."

To 7th Query.—"As to the summons, where a house is empty or otherwise, very full directions in Booth, Lib. 1. c. 2. to which (as I have already written so much) and to the authorities there recited I shall refer, but in general it must be on the land and the requisites there, and in the 31. Eliz. c. 3. s. 7. be observed."

To 8th Query.—"If a tenant shall not appear, unless a guardian be previously appointed, all subsequent proceedings will be erroneous, for a recovery by default against an infant is erroneous, Bro. default, Pl. 50. and though it is there said to be contrary if he appears and loses by plea or voucher, yet that must be understood if he appears properly, that is, by guardian, for if he appears by attorney the judgment will be erroneous, F. N. B. 27. (H.) Sty. 218. Jenkins, 301. F. Cro. Jac. 641. not aided by any statute of jeofails where he is defendant, nor amendable except under circumstances, Stra. 455. though in some causes where he is plaintiff and recovers it is aided by 21. Jac. 1. c. 13.

To 9th Query.—"I think after the original writ is sued out it will be proper to give notice thereof to the infant and his nearest relations to appoint some person to appear for him as guardian, and if none does to move the court that a guardian may be appointed ad litem, Sty. 369. 2. Will. 50. for which purpose I think it would be proper to make the original writ returnable at a distant return day, so as to give opportunity for making the motion, and for the court considering the point, for an original writ is not erroneous, though returnable at a remote return. The old method is to sue out a dedimus to appoint a guardian, Regist. 164. 2, and a writ to the justices of the court where the action was commenced against him, commanding them to admit the guardian appointed pursuant to the dedimus, Moyles Ent. 55. but now I apprehend the court would do it on motion in a real as well they constantly do in personal actions, 2. Barnes, 326. 334, Str. 1076."

To 10th and 11th Queries.—"As the infant's title is not descent, I think the parol will not demur. Other matters will probably arise hereafter, but at present no others occur to me." G. HILL,

Lincoln's Inn, 12th Jan. 1789.

Two writs of cozenage, the one for premises in Middlesex, the other in London, were sued out (returnable in C. B.) against Lloyd, who appeared, and cast an effoin, but further proceedings at law were rendered unnecessary by the lord chancellor giving his judgment in equity in favour of Mr. Hoddesden. Upon the chancellor's opinion being given, Mr. Hoddesden's opponents relinquished their possession to him, and submitted to account for the profits from Dr. Hibbins's death.

For the public house an ejectment was afterwards brought against the occupier by Mr. Hoddesden on the several demises of himself and Dr. Hibbins's devisees, and the possession was recovered under that ejectment.

ment in writing, duly executed and attested, for disposing of his

with the appurtenances above demanded, unto his wife J. B. for and during her natural life, and after the death of the said J. B.
the testator gave and bequeathed by his said will the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, to his son J. B. for and during his natural life, and from and after the decease of him the said son J. B. the said testator by his said will, gave and bequeathed the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, to his two grandsons M. B. and J. B. to them and their heirs for ever, equally to be divided between them and their heirs, share and share alike: And the said J. D. the demandant further saith, that the said M. B. the said testator having made such his will as aforesaid, to wit, on, &c. in the said second year of the reign of the said late king George the Second, died seised of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, to wit, &c. without altering or revoking his said will; upon whose death

the said J. B. became seised under and by virtue of the said will of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, in her demesne as of freehold and right for the term of her natural life by taking the esplees thereof to the value, &c. : And the said J. D. the demandant further saith, that the aforesaid J. B. afterwards, to wit, on, &c. in the said second year of, &c. died so seised of the said tenements, with the appurtenances, to wit, at, &c.; and thereupon the said J. B. the son, under and by virtue of the said will, became seised of and in the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, in his demesne as of freehold and right, for the term of his natural life, by taking the esplees thereof to the value, &c. : And the said J. D. the demandant further saith, that the said testator's said two grandsons M. B. and J. B. from and immediately after the death of the said testator, under and by virtue of the said will, became seised in common and of right of and in the remainder of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, expectant on the death of the said J. B. and the said J. B. the son; and being so thereof seised of such his state aforesaid, of and in the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, the said M. B. the grandson afterwards, and after the death of the said testator, to wit, on, &c. in the twenty-first year of the reign of the said late lord king George the Second, died seised thereof, without heirs from his body issuing, after whose death his share, to wit, one undivided moiety of the said remainder of and in the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, descended to the said J. B. the grandson, as only brother and heir of the said M. B. the grandson; and by reason of the premises the said J. B. the grandson was seised as of fee and right of the whole of the said remainder of and in the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances : And the said J. D. the demandant further saith, that afterwards, and after the death of the said testator, and after the death of the said M. B. the grandson, and during the life of the said J. B. the said son of the said testator, to wit, on, &c. in the twenty-eighth year of, &c. the said J. B. the grandson being so seised as last aforesaid of and in the said remainder in the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, died seised thereof, to wit, at, &c. without heir from his body issuing; and after the death of the said J. B. the grandson the said remainder of and in the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, descended upon the said J. D. the demandant as cousin and heir of the said J. B. the grandson, he the said J. D. being the son and heir of Ann formerly the wife of J. D. deceased, and the said A. being the daughter and heiress of Jane, who was the wife of J. B. and the said Jane being the daughter of the said M. B. the testator, which said M. B. died leaving issue only one son named J. B. which said J. B. the son died leaving the said M. B. and J. B. and no other issue, which said last mentioned M. B. and the said last-mentioned J. B. are both of them dead without issue : And by reason of the premises the said J. D. the demandant further saith, that afterwards, and after the death of the said J. B. the grandson, the said J. B. the son being so seised in his demesne as of freehold under the said will as aforesaid of and in

in the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, to wit, on, &c. in the thirtieth year of, &c. died, to wit, at, &c. ; and thereupon the estate of the said J. B. the son, as well as the estate of the said J. B. being determined as aforesaid, the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, remained to him the said J. D. who now demands the same as his right and inheritance, and as cousin and heir at law as aforesaid of the said J. B. the grandson, and that such is his right he offers suit, &c.

And the said William King, by A. B. his attorney, comes and defends the right of the said J. D. and his seisin, when, &c. and all, &c. and whatever, &c. and chiefly of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, as of fee and right, &c. and saith that true it is that M. B. was seised in his demesne as of fee and right of and in the premises in the Count mentioned ; and that the said M. B. being so seised thereof, on, &c. in the second year of the reign of the said lord king George the Second, did make and publish his last will and testament in writing, duly executed and attested for disposing of his real estate, and thereby gave and devised the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, unto his wife J. B. for and during her natural life, and that after the death of the said J. B. the said testator by his will gave and bequeathed the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, to his son J. B. for and during his natural life ; and from and after the decease of his said son J. B. the said testator by his said will gave and bequeathed the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, to his two grandsons M. B. and J. B. to them and to their heirs for ever, equally to be divided between their heirs, share and share alike, and that the said M. B. the said testator, having made such his will as aforesaid, died seised of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, without altering or revoking his said will, and that upon his death the said J. B. became seised under and by virtue of the said will of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, in her demesne as of freehold and right for the term of her natural life, by taking the esplees thereof, and that the said J. B. afterwards died so seised of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, and that thereupon the said J. B. the son under and by virtue of the said will became seised of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, in his demesne as of freehold and right for the term of his natural life by taking the esplees thereof ; and that the said testator's said two grandsons M. B. and J. B. from and immediately after the death of the said testator under and by virtue of the said will became seised in common as of fee and right of and in the remainder of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, expectant on the death of the said J. B. and the said J. B. the son, and that being so thereof seised of such estate as aforesaid of and in the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, the said M. B. the grandson afterwards, and after the death of the said testator, died seised thereof without heirs from his body issuing, and that after his death his said share of the said remainder of

and in the said tenements, with the appurtenances, descended to the said J. B. the grandson as only brother and heir of the said M. B. the grandson; and that by reason of the premises the said J. B. the grandson was seised as of fee and right of the whole of the said remainder of and in the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, and that afterwards, and after the death of the said testator, and after the death of the said M. B. the grandson, and during the life of the said J. B. the son of the said testator, the said J. B. the grandson, being so seised as last aforesaid of and in the said remainder in the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, died seised thereof without heir from his body issuing in manner and form as the said J. D. the demandant hath in his Count aforesaid alledged: And the said W. K. further saith, that true it is that the said M. B. the testator died leaving issue only one son named J. B. and that the said J. B. the son died leaving the said M. B. and J. B. and no other issue, and that the said last-mentioned M. B. and the said last-mentioned J. B. are both of them dead without issue, in manner and form as the said J. D. the demandant hath in his Count aforesaid alledged; and the said W. K. further saith, that true it is that after the death of the said J. B. the grandson, the said J. B. the son being so seised in his demesne as of freehold under the said will as aforesaid of and in the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, died, as the said J. D. the demandant hath in his Count alledged; but protesting that after the death of the said J. B. the grandson the said remainder of and in the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, did not descend upon the said J. D. the demandant as cousin and heir of the said J. B. the grandson, in manner and form as is by the said J. D. in his Count aforesaid alledged; protesting also that upon the death of J. B. the son the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, did not remain to him the said J. D. the demandant as his right or inheritance as cousin or heir at law of the said J. B. the grandson, as the said J. D. the demandant hath in his Count aforesaid in that behalf alledged: for plea in this behalf the said W. K. tenant of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, saith that the said J. B. the grandson, being so seised as last aforesaid of and in the said remainder of and in the said tenements, with the appurtenances, after the death of the said M. B. the grandson, to wit, on, &c. in the twenty-eighth year of, &c. made and published his last will and testament in writing duly executed and attested for disposing of his real estate, and thereby gave and devised his said remainder in the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, unto his mother R. B. and to her heirs and assigns for ever: And the said W. K. the tenant aforesaid, further saith, that the said J. B. the grandson, having made such his will as aforesaid, afterwards, to wit, on, &c. in the twenty-ninth year of, &c. died seised of his said remainder of and in the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, and the said R. B. and J. B. the son then and there survived him: And the said W. K. the tenant further saith, that the said R. B. from and immediately after after the death of the said J. B. the grandson, under and by virtue of the said will, became seised as of fee and right of and in the remainder of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, expectant on the death of the said J. B. the son; and being so seised of such her estates as aforesaid of and in the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, the said J. B. the son being so seised in his demesne as of freehold of and in the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, to wit, on, &c. in the thirtieth year of, &c. died, to wit, at, &c. and the said R. B. then and there survived him, and upon his death the said R. B. became seised under and by virtue of the said will of the said J. B. the grandson of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, in her demesne as of fee and right by taking the esplees thereof to the value, &c.: And the said W. K. the tenant further saith, that the said R. B. being so seised of and in the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances as aforesaid, afterwards, to wit, on, &c. A. D. 1769, at, &c. died so seised thereof without heir from her body issuing; and after the death of the said R. B. the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, descended upon J. F. as brother and heir at law of the said R. B. and he the said J. F. then and there became seised in his demesne as of fee and right of and in the said tenements, with the appurtenances, by taking the esplees thereof to the value, &c.: And the said W. K. the tenant further saith, that the said J. F. being so seised thereof he the said J. F. afterwards, and whilst he was so seised, to wit, on, &c. A. D. 1770, at, &c. made and published his last will and testament in writing duly executed and attested for disposing of his real estate, and thereby gave and devised the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, unto his wife E. F. for and during her natural life; and from and after the death of the said E. F. the said J. F. by his said will gave and bequeathed the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, to J. K. to him and his heirs and assigns for ever: And the said W. K. the tenant further saith, that the said J. F. having made such his will as aforesaid, afterwards, to wit, on, &c. A. D. 1771, at, &c. died seised of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, without altering or revoking his said will, and the said E. F. and J. K. then and there survived him; and upon the death of the said J. F. the said E. F. became seised under and by virtue of the said will of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, in her demesne as of freehold and right for the term of her natural life, by taking the esplees thereof to the value, &c.: And the said W. K. the tenant further saith, that the aforesaid E. F. afterwards, to wit, on, &c. A. D. 1773, at, &c. died so seised of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, and the said J. K. survived her; and thereupon the said J. K. under and by virtue of the last-mentioned will, became seised of and in the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, in his demesne as of fee and right by taking the esplees thereof to the value, &c.: And the said W. K. the tenant further saith, that the said J. K. being so seised thereof, he the said J. K. afterwards, and whilst he was so

so seised, to wit, on, &c. A. D. 1777, at, &c. made and published his last will and testament in writing, duly executed and attested for disposing of his real estate, and thereby gave and devised the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, unto his son J. K. and his heirs: And the said W. K. the tenant further saith, that the said J. K. the testator having made such his last will as aforesaid, afterwards, to wit, on, &c. A. D. 1780, at, &c. died seised of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, without revoking or altering his said will, and the said J. K. the son then and there survived him, and upon his death became seised, to wit, under and by virtue of the said will of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, in his demesne as of fee and right by taking the esplees thereof to the value, &c.: And the said W. K. the tenant further saith, that the said J. K. the son being so seised thereof, he the said J. K. the son afterwards, and whilst he was so seised, to wit, on, &c. A. D. 1784, at, &c. made, &c. his last, &c. duly executed, &c. for disposing of his real estate, and thereby gave and devised the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, unto the said W. K. the tenant to him and his heirs: And the said W. K. the tenant further saith, that the said J. K. the son having made such his will as aforesaid, afterwards, to wit, on, &c. A. the last plea.

And the said J. B. the demandant saith, that the said W. K. unjustly defends the right of the said J. D. and his seisin, when, &c. and all, &c. and whatever, &c. and chiefly of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, as of fee and right, &c. because he the said J. D. the demandant as before saith, that upon the death of the said J. B. the son the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, did remain to him the said J. D. the demandant as his right and inheritance as cousin and heir at law of the said J. B. the grandson, as the said J. D. the demandant hath in his Count aforesaid in that behalf above alledged, without this, that the said J. B. the grandson (being seised as in the plea of the said W. K. the tenant is above alledged of and in the said remainder of and in the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, after the death of the said M. B. the grandson) gave and devised his said remainder in the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, unto his mother R. B. and to her heirs and assigns for ever in manner and form as the said W. DIRECTIONS ON PROSECUTION OF A WRIT OF RIGHT.

This writ is what is called a General Writ of Right, and should be delivered to the steward of the manor court in court upon which (after pledges to prosecute given) the steward should make an entry of the demand by the writ, and then deliver back the writ to the demandant.

The bailiff or steward is then to issue process to summons the tenant.

If he does not, the demandant may remove the plea into the county court by a precept called a tolt.

An entry of that must be made also by the steward. That tolt is to be returned.

Upon the return of the plea into the county court the demandant may remove it from thence into the common pleas by a writ called a pone.

This being very troublesome the most eligible method is to sue out a writ of right returnable in the court of king's bench, which must be by the writ called quia dominus remisit curiam.

And after the teste those words quia, &c. must be inserted the writ should be carefully settled.

This writ is close, and directed to the sheriff who is to summons the tenant or defendant, and return the writ accordingly, after which the proceedings are as in other real actions.

The tenant or defendant should be really summoned, and not the common return of fictitious summoners, for was judgment to go by default it might be set aside. Vide Searle and Long, 1. Mod. 248.

On

The adjournment of the tenants' essoign.

On the morrow of the Ascension of the Lord in Easter term, in the year of the reign of king George the Third, the tenants essoign at the instance of the demandant is adjourned until in fifteen days of the Holy Trinity.

R. W. clerk of the essoigns.

Declaration on the above writ.

Tolt made agreeable to the demandant's case.

_____, to wit. W. W. by A. B. his attorney, demands against W. R. &c. four cottages [as in the writ], with the appurtenances, in _____, in the manor of _____, in the county of _____, as his right and inheritance by writ of right of our lord the king; because Richard, bishop of London, the chief lord of that see, hath thereupon remitted unto our lord the king his court, and thereupon he the said W. W. saith, that _____ was seised of the tenements afore said, with the appurtenances, in his demesne as of fee and right, in the time of peace, in the time of our lord late king of Great Britain, &c. within sixty years now last past, by taking the esplees thereof to the value of _____, from which said _____ the right, &c. descended to W. H. as son and heir of the said _____, and from the said W. H. because he died without heir of his body issuing, the right, &c. descended to S. W. now deceased as cousin and heir of the said W. H. that is to say, sister of the said _____, the father of the said W. H. and from which said S. W. the right &c. descended to the said W. W. who demands the tenements afore said, with the appurtenances, as son and heir of the said S. W. deceased; and that such is the right of him the said W. W. he offers to prove, &c.

Plea.

3. Black. Com. 297.

And the said W. R. &c. by C. D. his attorney, come and defend the right of the said W. W. and his seisin of and in the tenements afore said, and say that the said S. H. the grandfather was not seised of the tenements afore said, with the appurtenances, in his demesne as of fee, in manner and form as the said W. W. hath above alledged; and of this they put themselves upon the country, &c.: And for further plea in this behalf the said W. R. &c. by leave of, &c. say, that the tenements afore said, with the appurtenances, &c. &c.

Extracts from the statutes and law books concerning an assize of novel disseisin at common law, grounded on the king's writ of right close.

ASSIZES are used for a jury. Where assizes of novel disseisin, &c. are tried the pannel of assizes shall be arraigned and a copy delivered by a proper officer to the plaintiff of the defendant's demanding the same six days before the sessions, on pain of forty pounds, 6. Hen. 6. c. 2.

Assize is taken for a writ of recovery of things whereof any one, or his ancestors, have been disseised, or signifies an ordinance of Stat. Reg. Orig. 279.

In

In an affize, if defendant fails to make good his exceptions which he pleads he shall be adjudged a disseisor without taking the affize, and shall pay plaintiff double damages, and be imprisoned a year, 13. Ed. 1. c. 25.

In an affize the tenant must plead in bar, and plaintiff make title; but if the tenant neither answers nor traverses the title, the affize shall be awarded at large, Gro. Eliz. 559. Cadogan v. Powell; and if any other title is found for plaintiff he shall recover, Bro. Affize, 281.

If tenant pleads in abatement he must also plead over in bar, and have an imparlance without good cause, and where there are several defendants, and any of them do not appear the first day, the affize shall be taken against them all by default, Pasch. 5. W. 3.

An affize is first to be arrayed, and plaintiff's counsel or agent pray defendant may be called if they appear, then counsel or agent may demand oyer of the writ, which being granted they may pray leave to imparl to a short day, to which the jury may be adjourned; on which day the defendant being again called, and appearing, and pleading to the affize, the parties thereon join issue, then plaintiff's counsel or agent give their evidence; after trial the court gives judgment, and if plaintiff recovers he is to have his writ of seisin, 1. Lill. Abr. 105. 106.

The plaintiff must first prove his title, then his seisin and disseisin.

And the defendants shall not essoign, or cast a protection, or pray aid of any but the king, or vouch any stranger or party to the writ unless they enter into warranty, 8. Rep. 50.

In affize the jurors are called recognitors of the affize, and are to view the premises in question. By writ of affize the proper officer is commanded to summon twelve free and lawful men of the neighbourhood by good summoners to view the premises in question, and after to appear at the sessions and give recognition or verdict.

The judgment being to recover per visum recognitorum, it is sufficient if the plaint be but so certain as the recognitors may put the demandant or plaintiff into possession, Dyer, 84.

DICKINS.

GEORGE the Third, &c. to the sheriff of greeting: Whereas we lately commanded our sheriffs of London, that of the goods and chattels in your bailiwick, of C. D. of your county, grocer, they should cause to be made one hundred pounds, which A. B. esquire, lately in our court before us at Westminster recovered against him for debt, and also twenty-eight pounds which he the said A. B. lately in our said court before us were adjudged for his damages which he had sustained, as well by reason of the detaining the said debt, as for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf expended, whereof the said C. D. is convicted, as appears to us of record; and that they should have that money before us wheresoever we should then be in England at a certain day now past, to render to the said A. B. for his debt and damages aforesaid, and our said sheriffs of London at that day returned to us, that the said C. D. had no goods or chattels in their bailiwick whereof they could cause to be made that money; whereupon on the behalf of the said A. B. it is sufficiently attested in our court before us that the said C. D. hath goods and chattels sufficient in their bailiwick whereof you may cause to be made the same money; therefore we command you, that of the goods and chattels of the said C. D. in your bailiwick you cause to be made the said one hundred pounds of debt, and twenty-eight pounds the damages aforesaid, and have that money before us on wheresoever we shall then be in England, Testatum fieri facias upon original in debt.

B. lately in our court before us at Westminster, by bill without our writ, and by the judgment of the same court, recovered against C. D. was convicted, as appears to us of record; and afterwards the said A. B. came into court before us, and chose all the goods and chattels of the said C. D. except the oxen and beasts of his plough, and also a moiety of all and singular the lands and tenements of the said C. D. in your bailiwick, to be delivered to him according to the form of the statute in that case made and provided, until the said debt and damages should be thereupon fully levied; we therefore command you, that all the goods and chattels of the said C. (a) Elegit is a writ of execution that lies for him that hath recovered debt or damages, or upon a recognizance in any court against one not able in his goods to satisfy the same, directed to the sheriff, commanding him to make delivery of a moiety of the party's lands and all his goods (beasts of the plough excepted) and the creditors shall hold the said moiety of the land until his whole debt and damages are paid and satisfied, and during that term he is tenant by elegit.

This writ ought to be sued out within a year and a day of the judgment. Vide West. 2. cap. 18; and 32. Henry 8. cap. 5.

occasion

occasion of the detention of that debt, whertof the said C. D. is convicted; and afterwards the aforesaid A. B. into our same court, and by virtue of the statute in such case made and provided, elected to be delivered to him all the goods and chattels of the said C. D. (except the oxen and heifers of his plough) and likewise one moiety of all and singular the lands and tenements of the said C. D. in your bailiwick, to hold to him the goods and chattels, and also to hold to him the goods and chattels and the said moiety as his freehold to him and his assigns, according to the form of the statute aforesaid, until the debt and damages aforesaid be thereon fully levied, and therefore we command you, that all the goods and chattels of the said C. D. (except the oxen and the heifers of his plough), and likewise a moiety of all his lands and tenements in your bailiwick, whereof the said C. D. on the aforesaid day of , in the year of our reign, at which day judgment was therein given, or at any time afterwards, was seised or possessed to the aforesaid A. B. without delay you cause to be delivered by a reasonable price and extent, to hold to him the said goods and chattels as his own proper goods and chattels, and also to hold the said moiety as his freehold to him and his assigns, according to the form of the statute aforesaid until the debt and damages aforesaid shall be thereof levied, and in what manner you shall execute this our precept make known to our justices at Lancaster aforesaid the first day of the next general session of assizes there to be holden, under your seal and the seals of them by whose oaths you shall have made that extent and appraisement; and have you there the names of them by whose oaths you shall make that extent and appraisement, and this writ. Witness, &c.

Tested the last day of the last assizes.

There may not be two several sorts of execution out at once, but one after another, Co. Rep. 222.

Two persons recovered against one in debt severally; he who had the first judgment sued an elegit and had a moiety of his lands delivered in execution; afterwards the other sued an elegit; the court gave directions to the sheriff that he should deliver out the moiety which he had at the time of the writ awarded; if a judgment for damages be against two defendants for one cause, and the plaintiff take out execution by elegit against one of them, in this case some say he can have no execution against the other, 23 H. 6. 47.

If two writs of elegit issue at one time, the sheriff ought to extend the half of all the land and give it to the more ancient debt, and then extend the half of the other half, and deliver the one half of all the one, and the other half to the other.

The ancient demesne lands are ex-tendable upon a statute by elegit, Co. Rep. 5.

By virtue of an elegit the sheriff cannot sell a lease for a term of years, Alden's case, Co. Rep. 254.

After a capias one cannot have execution by elegit or other execution, but if after an elegit he be not satisfied, he may have a capias sued forth upon an elegit, Co. Rep. 79.

A capias lieth not after execution sued forth upon an elegit if it be returned served, but if nihil be returned thereon, a capias will lie notwithstanding the elegit sued forth, Hob. Rep. 2.

The plaintiff recovered against the defendant as executor, and upon a fiat facias a destravit was returned, and elegit prayed de terris against executor and granted, Cro. Eliz. Mead, and Cheney's case.

After an elegit a ca. sa. will not lie, Cro. Crowley and Lydfate's case.

If upon an elegit nothing is taken but goods, goods, which are not enough, the plaintiff shall have a feri facias, Hob. 58.

Though the writ of elegit be right, yet if the entry of it upon the roll be wrong, it is error, Hob. 90.

It may be sued forth after a capias or feri facias, Hob. 57.

If a man shall sell his lands, and there shall be a judgment obtained against him before his lands are sold, whosoever hath it, it is liable to an elegit to satisfy that judgment, and to that purpose shall go forth a scire facias against the tenants before the execution.

Observe, that if an elegit be gone out and lands found and returned, you shall never take forth any other execution, nor any other elegit.

That if the sheriff have two elegits against the same man at one time, he may deliver a moiety of all his lands to one of them, and to the other he is only to deliver a moiety of the moiety that is left.

Upon a judgment above a year's standing, you may have an elegit without a scire facias, but not a feri facias, for that on the elegit they enter their continuances all along from the judgment, 7 Mod. 64; Co. Lit. 290; 2 Sha. 235.

(a) Exigent, writ of, observations thereon.

Capias ad satisfaciendum in debt is a judicial writ for execution after judgment, to take the body of a man to imprison him till satisfaction is made. It lies not at common law, but it is given in many cases by statute. There is also capias ad satisfaciendum for plaintiff after fieri facias, and a capias ad satisfaciendum on a writ of enquiry in case.

Capias ut lagatum (a) in the common-pleas at Lancaster.

(a) To a writ of execution after judgment which lieth against one outlawed upon any suit, directed to the sheriff, commanding him upon receipt thereof to apprehend the party outlawed for contempt in not appearing upon the exigent, and to keep him in safe custody, and to bring him into the court at the return thereof, where he is to remain without bail or mainprize.

Capias ut lagatum et inquirendum de bonis is a writ of the same nature as the former, only it gives power to the sheriff (over and beside the apprehension of his body) to enquire also of his goods and chattels, and either of them may be had before or after judgment for debt and damages, Winch. 78. on N. Br. 154.

D. of a plea of debt, if he shall be found in your bailiwick, and him safely keep, so that you may have his body before our justices at Lancaster the first day of the next general session of assizes there to be holden, to do and receive what our court of him shall consider in this behalf; and have, &c.: Witnesses, &c.

George, &c. to the sheriff of Lancashire, greeting: We command you, that you omit not by reason of any liberty within your county, but by the oath of honest and lawful men of your county you diligently enquire what goods and chattels, lands and tenements, A. B. late of, &c. hath or had in your bailiwick, on Tuesday the day of in the year of our reign, or ever afterwards, on which day the said A. was outlawed in your county at the suit of C. D. of a plea of debt, as you returned to our justices at Lancaster at a certain day now past, and the same by their oaths you cause to be extended and appraised of the true value thereof, and those by whom their inquisition you shall find you take into your hands, and cause to be kept, so that you may have to us of the true value and issues thereof, the same being so extended and appraised, and what you do therein make known to our justices at Lancaster the first day of the next general session of assizes there to be holden, distinctly and openly under your seal and the seals of them by whose oath you shall make the extent and appraisement: And for that whereas the aforesaid A. being outlawed lurketh and runneth up and down in contempt of us and in prejudice of our crown, as we understand, we command you, that you take the said A. B. wheresoever he shall be found in your bailiwick, as well within liberty as without, and him safely keep, so that you may have his body before our justices at the day and place aforesaid, to do and receive what our court of him shall consider in this behalf; and have you there the names of them by whose oaths you shall make that extent and appraisement of this writ. Witnesses, &c.

Non omittas writ de inquirendum to above.

Men outlawed shall be put to answer to actions brought against them, but not to be answered in any action brought by them; and if such a man sue another, he that is sued may plead this outlawry in bar of this suit, but then it must be shewn in court sub pede sigilli, Co. Inst. 1. 8.—The original was against Levellin, with a cap. against one, and all the mesne process was against Levellin with a cap. against two; also the process was against two, and the sheriff returned non sunt inventi, but doth not say nec eorum aliquis, for these causes an outlawry was reversed.—Error to reverse an outlawry: the original was Sheffinton, and the mesne process Shffington, and for this variation it was reversed. Outlawry reversed, because cap. was teste E. Anderson, and so it was wanting, for it should have been teste, by the court. Upon a cap. ut la. though on mesne process and at suit of a subject; yet upon that writ they may break open any outlawed doors after demand and refusal. 5. Co.—On information for a riot and forcible entry into a house; defendant entered on pretence of a forfeiture on conviction of murder, being bailiff of Westminster. Court would not admit it in evidence; for let a man's possession be rightful or wrongful, a forcible entry on an house, though with a lawful pretence, is a riot.

GEORGE,

GEORGE, &c. greeting: Take into our hands by the sight of honest and lawful men of your county, the third part of one messuage, &c. with the appurtenances, in P. which A. B. widow, who was the wife of C. B. in our court before our justices at Lancaster claims against D. B. as the dower of the same A. D. and the day of taking make known to our justices at Lancaster, by our letters sealed and summoned by good summoners, the same D. B. that he be before our justices at Lancaster, on Monday next to come in this same session of assizes there to be holden, to answer and shew why he was not in our court before our justices at Lancaster aforesaid on the first day of the same general session of assizes, as he was summoned; and have you there the names of them by whose sight you shall do this, and the names of the summoners, and this writ. Witness, &c.

Tested the first day of the assizes.

(a) Grand cape is a writ which lies before appearance, to summon the tenant to answer the default; and also over to the demandants; and in the Nat. Brev. it is defined to be where a man hath brought a precipe quod red. of a thing touching plea of lands, and the tenant makes default at the day to him given in the original writ, then this writ shall go to the king to take the lands into his hands; and if the tenant come not at the day given him thereby he loseth his land.

Petit cape is where the tenant is summoned in a plea of lands and comes on the summons, and his appearance is recorded; if at the day given him he prays the view, and having it granted makes default, then shall issue this writ for the king, Nat. Brev. 162. The difference between the grand and petit cape is that the grand cape is awarded upon the tenant's not appearing, or demanding the view in such real actions, where the real writ does not mention the particulars demanded. And the petit cape is after appearance or view granted; and whereas the grand cape summons the defendant to answer for the default, and likewise over to the demandant, the petit cape summons the defendant to answer the default only.

GEORGE the Third, &c. to the sheriff of Middlesex, greeting: Whereas by our writ to you directed we lately commanded you, that of the goods and chattels of Mary Goodwin in your bailiwick you should cause one hundred and sixty-six pounds of debt which Thomas Low in our court before us at Westminster recovered against her, as also sixty-three shillings which to the same Thomas in our same court were adjudged for his damages which he sustained as well on occasion of detaining of that debt as for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf laid out and expended, whereof the said Mary was convicted, as appears to us of record; and that you should have that money before us at Westminster on next after last past to render to the said Thomas for his debt and damages aforesaid; and you at that day returned to us at Westminster, that by virtue of the said writ

GEORGE the Third, &c. to the sheriff of Yorkshire; greeting: Whereas we lately commanded Hugh Bethell, esquire, late sheriff of your county, that he should cause to be levied of the goods and chattels of John Addy in his bailiwick one hundred and four pounds debt which John Mort lately in our court before us at Westminster recovered against him as also sixty-three shillings which in our court before us were adjudged to the said John Mort for his damages which he had sustained as well by occasion of the detaining that debt as for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf expended, whereof the said John Addy was convicted, as appears to us of record; and that he should have that money before us at Westminster on next after to render to the said John Mort for the debt and damages aforesaid; and whereas our said late sheriff of our county at that day returned to us, that by virtue of the said writ to him directed he had commanded the chief bailiff of the liberty of the town of Pontefract, in your county, who had the full execution of all writs, precepts, and process to be executed within that liberty, and the return thereof, to whom the execution of the writ wholly belonged, inasmuch as that he could not execute the same in the county out of the said liberty, which said chief bailiff, to wit, Richard Town, gentleman, had returned, that by a certain mandate by our said late sheriff to him directed he had made of the goods and chattels of the within-named John Addy thirty-seven pounds fifteen shillings and twopence, which said sum he had caused to be paid to the said John Mort, and further certified the within-named John Addy had no other goods or chattels in his bailiwick whereof he could at present levy the remainder of the said debt and damages; therefore we command you, that you take the said John Addy if he shall be found in your bailiwick, and him safely keep, so that you may have his body before us at Westminster on next after to

GEORGE the Third, &c. to our chancellor of our county palatine of Lancaster, or to his deputy there, greeting: Whereas Thomas Fielding, lately in our court before us at Westminster, by bill, without our writ, and by the judgment of the same court, recovered against Thomas Rhodes fifty-three pounds for his damages which he sustained as well by occasion of the not performing certain promises and undertakings lately made by the said Thomas Rhodes to the said Thomas Fielding as for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf expended, whereof the said Thomas Rhodes is convicted, as appears to us of record; and afterwards the said Thomas Fielding came in our court before us and chose to be delivered to him all the goods and chattels of the said Thomas Rhodes, except his oxen and beasts of his plough, and also a moiety of all and singular his lands and tenements, to hold to him the said goods and chattels, and also to hold the said moiety of the said lands and tenements to him and his assigns as his free tenements, according to the form of the statute in that case made and provided, until the damages aforesaid should be levied; and whereupon our sheriff of Middlesex hath certified to us at a certain day now past that the said Thomas Rhodes hath no goods or chattels, lands or tenements, in his bailiwick whereof he could cause to be satisfied the damages, costs, and charges aforesaid, whereas it is testified in our said court before us that the said Thomas Rhodes hath goods and chattels, lands and tenements, in our said county palatine whereof you may cause to be made the damages, costs, and charges aforesaid; therefore we command you, that by our writ under the seal of our said county palatine duly to be made out, and to be directed to the sheriff of the same county, you command the same sheriff, that without delay he cause all the goods and chattels of the said T. Rhodes in his bailiwick, except the oxen and beasts of his plough, and also a moiety of all the lands and tenements of the said Thomas Rhodes in his bailiwick, whereof the said Thomas Rhodes, on the twenty-first day of May, in the year of Our Lord 1763, on which day the said judgment was given, or at any time afterwards, was seised, to be delivered to the said Thomas Fielding at a reasonable price and extent, to hold to him the said goods and chattels, and also to hold the moiety of the said lands and tenements as his free tenement to him and his assigns, according to the form of the statute, until the damages, costs, and charges aforesaid shall be thereof fully levied, and that he make appear to us at Westminster on next after under his seal and the seals of those by whose oath he shall make the extent and appraisement, in what manner he shall have executed this our writ; and have there then this writ.  awarded for his damages which he sustained as well on occasion of the not performing certain promises and undertakings made by the said John to the said Isaac as for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf laid out, and that he should have that money before us at Westminster on next after to render to the said Isaac for his damages aforesaid, whereof the said John was convicted, as appears to us of record; forasmuch as our sheriff of Middlesex had thereupon certified to us at a certain day then past that the said John had no goods or chattels in his baili-wick whereof he could cause to be levied the damages, costs, and charges aforesaid, or any part thereof, and forasmuch as it was testified in our said court that the said John had sufficient goods and chattels in our said county palatine whereof the damages, costs, and charges aforesaid might be levied; and you at that day returned to us at Westminster, that by virtue of the said writ to you directed and delivered by another writ under the seal of the said county palatine accordingly directed to the sheriff of the same county, you commanded the same sheriff as by the said writ so to you directed you was commanded, and that the said sheriff, to wit, Thomas Brudyle, esquire, in answer thereto, had returned to you, that by virtue of the said writ to him directed he had caused to be levied of the goods and chattels of the said John one pound three shillings, and that he had the same money ready before us at the day and place therein contained, as by the said writ he was commanded; and that the said John had no goods or chattels in his bailiwick whereby he could levy the residue of the damages and costs therein mentioned, or any part thereof, as by the same writ he was commanded; and the residue of the damages and costs aforesaid still remain unsatisfied: we therefore command you, that by our writ under the seal of our said county palatine duly to be made out, and to be directed to the sheriff of the same county, you command the same sheriff, that he cause to be levied of the goods and chattels of the said John in his bailiwick fifty-five pounds seven shillings, being the residue of the damages and costs aforesaid, and that you have that money before us at Westminster on next after to render to the said Isaac for the said residue of the damages and costs aforesaid; forasmuch as the sheriff of Middlesex hath certified to us at a certain day now past that the said John hath no goods or chattels in his baili-wick whereof he can cause to be made the same, or any part thereof, and forasmuch as it is sufficiently testified in our said court before us that the said John hath sufficient goods and chat-

GEORGE the Third, &c. to, &c. We command you, that you take A. B. late of , if he shall be found in your bailiwick, and him safely keep, so that you may have his body before us , wheresoever we shall then be in England, to satisfy W. F. as well which the said W. F. lately in our court before Alexander lord Loughborough and his companions then justices of our court of C. B. recovered for his damages which he had sustained, as well by reason of the non performance of certain promises and undertakings then lately made by the said A. B. to the said W. F. as for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf expended, whereof the said A. B. was convicted, as appears to us of record, as also , which to the same W. F. in our court before us, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, were adjudged for his damages, costs, and charges which he had sustained and expended by reason of the delay of execution of the judgment aforesaid, by means of prosecuting our writ of error by him him the said A. B. of and upon the judgment aforesaid prosecuted, whereon the said judgment was in our said court before us afterwards affirmed, and whereof the said A. B. is convicted, as by the record and proceedings now remaining in our said court before us more fully appears; and have, &c. Witness, &c.

GEORGE the Third, &c. to, &c. Whereas we lately com- Testatum ca. fa.

 as for his costs and charges by him laid out about his suit in that behalf expended, whereof the said A. B. was convicted, as appeared to us of record; and that the sheriffs of London should have that money before our justices at Westminster at a certain day then past, to render to the aforesaid C. D. for his damages aforesaid; and whereas our said sheriffs of London at that day certified to our said justices at Westminster, that the said A. B. had no goods or chattels in their bailiwick whereof the damages aforesaid, or any part thereof, could be made or levied, and it being testified in our same court that the said A. B. had sufficient goods and chattels in the bailiwick of our sheriff of Middlesex whereof the damages aforesaid might be made and levied, we lately commanded our said sheriff of Middlesex, as we had before commanded him, that of the goods and chattels of the within-named A. B. in his bailiwick, he should cause to be made and levied the damages aforesaid; and that he should have the money before our justices at Westminster at a certain day therein mentioned and now past, to render to the said
 C. D. for the damages aforesaid; and whereupon T. W. esquire, and M. P. esquire, our said sheriff of the county of Middlesex at that day returned to our justices at Westminster, that by virtue of that writ to him directed, he caused to be made of the goods and chattels of the within-named A. B. in his bailiwick, pounds, part thereof, he had necessarily expended in the seizing, appraising, keeping, preparing for sale, and selling the said goods and chattels, and residue thereof he had before his majesty's justices at the day and place within mentioned ready to pay to the within-named C. D. in satisfaction of so much of his damages within mentioned; and he further certified, that the said
 A. B. had not any other or more goods or chattels in his said baili-wick, whereof he could cause to be levied the residue of the said damages, or any part thereof; and whereas we lately commanded our sheriffs of London, that they should take the said A. B. if he might be found in their bailiwick, and him safely keep, so that they might have his body before our justices at Westminster at a certain day now past, to satisfy the said C. D. the residue of the damages aforesaid; and our said sheriffs of London at that day returned to our said justices at Westminster, that the said A. B.
 was not found in their bailiwick; whereas it is sufficiently attested
 in

in our court before our justices at Westminster, that the said A. B. wanders up and down in your said county; therefore we command, that you take the said A. B. if he may be found in your bailiwick, and him safely keep, so that you may have his body before our justices at Westminster in , to satisfy the said C. D. the residue of the damages aforesaid; and have you, &c. Witness, &c.

H. as for his costs and charges by him laid out about his suit in that behalf, whereof the said E. F. hath been convicted, as appears to us on record; and whereupon it hath been considered in our said court before us at Westminster, that the said G. H. should have his execution against the said A. B. and C. D. in our said court before us at Westminster aforesaid, for the damages, costs, and charges aforesaid, according to the force, form, and effect of a certain recognizance, by them the said A. B. and C. D. in our said court before us at Westminster for the said E. F. at the suit of the said G. H. in the suit aforesaid acknowledged by the defendant of them the said A. B. and C. D. as it likewise appears to us on record; and also to satisfy the said G. H. for his damages, costs, and charges which the said G. H. hath had and been put unto on occasion of the said A. B. and C. Directions for superfedeas for not proceeding to judgment, in C. B.

BY rule 8. George I. it is ordered, “that if any plaintiff shall declare against any defendant in the custody of the warden of the fleet, sheriff, or other officer, by virtue of process of this court, and not proceed to judgment in three terms after such declaration delivered, inclusive of the terms in which the declaration shall be delivered, the defendant having appeared.” [This is meant final judgment, always understood to be so.]

This appearance, which must be entered with the prothonotary's, may be entered when you sign the superfedeas, which you make out yourself, (and get signed with the prothonotary); “then such defendant so remaining in prison may be discharged by superfedeas to be allowed by the judge, unless cause be shewn why such plaintiff did not proceed to judgment as aforesaid, upon notice to plaintiff or his attorney, and oath of such notice. In order to obtain such superfedeas, you are to have a copy of the causes, and certificate of the time of the delivery of the declaration from the gaoler, with an affidavit of the gaoler's having signed it; then search the prothonotary's final judgment book of the term the declaration is of, and the two following terms, and then take out a summons from a judge; and if the plaintiff's attorney appears not upon the third summons, an affidavit of three summonses and your attendances thereon, and that no final judgment is signed, the judge will order you a superfedeas.

Superfedeas for not proceeding to judgment in three terms.

GEORGE, &c. to, &c. Whereas we lately by our writ commanded you to take C. D. and safely keep him, so that you might have his body before our court at a certain day now past, to answer to A. B. in a plea of trespass, and also in a certain plea of trespass upon the case upon promises, to the damage of the said A. B. of , and whereas you by virtue thereof did arrest the said C. D. and now detain him thereon in your custody, and also whereas the aforesaid A. B. in Easter term last did declare against him the said C. D. but hath not yet proceeded to judgment thereon in three terms, according to the course and practice of our court of C. B.; and the said C. D. hath appeared in our same court by E. F. his attorney, to answer to the said A. B. in the plea aforesaid;

said; therefore we command you forthwith to discharge the said C. D. from his imprisonment and set him at liberty, if he be detained in your custody on the aforesaid occasion only. Witnesses, &c.

Get a copy of the causes from the clerk of the papers at the K. B. prison, for which you pay , and a certificate from the clerk of the declarations, and pay ; then take out a judge's summons for plaintiff, to shew cause why defendant should not be discharged, plaintiff not having proceeded to judgment within three terms after declaration delivered.

If plaintiff's attorney attends on first summons, and consents to an order for a supersedeas, (for which you pay him three shillings and fourpence) the judge will make an order for his supersedeas upon filing common bail.

Then fill up a bail piece, and deliver it and the judge's order to the clerk of the bails, who thereupon makes out a certificate to the marshal of the K. B.

prison, that common bail was filed for the defendant according to the judge's order, for which pay him deliver the sum to the defendant at the K. B. prison, who will thereupon get discharged without any writ of supersedeas.

If the defendant had been in the sheriff's gaol, a writ of supersedeas must have been made out and delivered to the sheriff.

The certificate from the clerk of the declarations was needless in this case, and would have been necessary in order to get a writ of supersedeas for want of a declaration; but to get a supersedeas for want of a declaration one summons from a judge is only necessary.

W. if he should be found in his bailiwick, and that he should safely keep him, so that he might have his body before us at Westminster, at a certain day now past, to answer J. K. in a plea of trespass; and also to a bill of the said J. K. against the said T. W. for upon promises, according to the custom of our court before us exhibited; and whereas our said late sheriff by virtue thereof did arrest the said T. W. and he is now detained thereon in your custody; and also whereas the aforesaid J. K. in the term of the Holy Trinity last past, did declare against the said T. W. but because the said J. K. hath not proceeded to trial or obtained judgment thereon within three terms next after , declaring against the said T. W. according to the course and practice of our court before us; and the said T. W. having in our same court before us come and put in common bail to answer to the said J. K. of the plea and bill aforesaid; therefore we command you forthwith to discharge the said T. W. from his imprisonment and set him at liberty, if he be detained in your custody on the aforesaid occasion only. Witnesses, &c.

B. esquire, hath put in special bail, who have justified and are ready to answer the aforesaid W. B. of the said plea and bill; therefore we command you, that by our writ under the seal of the said county palatine duly to be made out, and to be directed to the sheriff of the same county, you command the same sheriff that if the said W. B. the elder, for that cause and no other in our prison under his custody is detained, that then without delay the said sheriff cause him the said W. Superfedeas for not proceeding to execution in two terms, in B. R.

GEORGE, &c. to the warden of our prison of the fleet, greeting: Whereas P. L. was committed to the prison of the Fleet aforesaid by sir G. C. knight, one of our justices of the court of the bench at Westminster, by virtue of our writ of habeas corpus cum causa, directed to the marshal of our marshalsea, and by the return thereof was charged with the render made by the said P. L. of Easter term last past, unto the said marshal in discharge of his bail in an action brought in our court before us by W. M. against the said P. T. hath not declared against the said R. U. within two terms; and the same R. U. hath appeared in our same court before our same justices by T. W. his attorney, and his appearance by the court here is recorded; therefore we command you, that you wholly desist from further arresting, imprisoning, or in anywise molesting the aforesaid R. U. for the cause aforesaid, and if you took him for that cause and none other, that you (at your peril) forthwith set him at liberty and let him go at large. Witness, &c.

GEORGE, &c. to our chancellor of our county palatine of Certiorari to remove a cause from the court of C. B. at Lancaster, to the court of K. B. The prothonotary of the court of Lancaster refused to allow this certiorari, and judgment was signed; but it was agreed between the parties not to take out execution till the opinion of the court of B. R. should be known whether a certiorari could issue out of B. R. to remove a cause out of the county palatine in order to bring the matter before the court. An attachment was moved for against the prothonotary for not returning the certiorari. The matter came before the court in Trinity term 1781, when the court said the prothonotary had done wrong in refusing to allow the certiorari, that he should have sent up the record, and then have moved to quash the certiorari as being improperly issued. Lord Mansfield said this certiorari was irregularly issued, that a certiorari would lay from the court of B. R. to a county palatine under certain circumstances; for instance, if the parties wanted a trial at bar, but it by no means issued of course, and could not issue in any case without a special application to the court.

Fi. fa. against bail after judgment by default on sci. fa.

If an executor plead ne unques executor, and if it be found for the plaintiff, the fi. fa. shall be de bonis propriis; but if he pleads plene administravit, and it be found for the plaintiff, then the fi. fa. shall be of the goods of the testator.

If the judgment be against an executor, then you must of necessity first have a fi. fa. de bonis testatoris, so also against an administrator, and if the sheriffs shall return a devastavit thereon, then you may have a ca. fa. against the body of the defendant, or else a fi. fa.

feri facias ac bonis propriis, or an elegit.

But it is used most commonly after a devastavit returned first to take a fi. fa. de bonis propriis, and to cause the sheriff to return upon it nulla habet bona, and then to have a ca. fa. against his body; but the ca. fa. may be first if the plaintiff pleases by law.

It was resolved by the court, that although the sheriff cannot break open a house to take execution by a fi. fa. yet if when the door is open he enters in and is disturbed by his execution by the parties who are within the house, he may break the house, rescue his bailiff, and take execution, Abr. Cro. Rep. 5.

If there be judgment against a man, who sells his goods before execution, these goods are not liable to a fi. fa. otherwise in debt concerning lands aliened, 102. Abr. Co. Lit. Upon judgment against an executor or administrator, the plaintiff cannot have a ca. fa. against the body, but a fi. fa. de bonis testatoris; and if the sheriff do return a devastavit, then a ca. fa. lies against the body of the executor or administrator, or a fi. fa. against the goods, Bulst. 2. 63. 98.

Debt on a bond against an heir, and judgment by nihil dicit, if upon motion, the judgment being entered specially, and on prayer there be a special execution, it will charge the lands from the teste of the original; on a general one they might be aliened before execution, Carth. 90; Tho. 83; 2. Sho. 70; 9. Comb. 162; 7. Mod. 44; 2. Rol. 71. 50; See Co. Lit. 102, 103, 104; stat. W. and M. of frauds by alienation, &c.; 2. Sho. 174.

A year after date of the warrant of attorney to confess judgment, the judgment not to be entered upon in B. R. without proof that parties are alive and debt unsatisfied, 2. Sho. 252; 7. Mod. 2. 94; 5. Salkeld, 87. (or 67.)

Upon a demurrer, it appearing on the pleadings that execution was levied before the judgment was signed, though after the first day of the term, to which the judgment related, and after the teste of the fi. fa. yet held nought, 2. Sho. 494. Agreed by the court, that on fi. fa. that when once the officers are in the house, they may break open any chamber, doors, or trunks, for doing their execution, 2. Sho. 87.

These three writs ought to be sued within a year and a day after judgment issued out within the year, and they may be continued after the year till execution. And to none of these writs defendant can plead to discharge himself of execution, as if plaintiff after judgment released to the defendant all executions, but is driven to his audita querela. 4. Leon. 197. 313; 2. Inst. 471; Dy. 214; 1. Rol. 104; 3. Cro. 10; 3. Cro. 112; Reg. 299; 2. Sho. 235; otherwise as to an elegit because continuances are entered all along from the judgment.

Upon motion for restitution to a possession which the party had been put out of by colour of a fi. fa. and sells a lease or term of a house, you cannot and must not put the person out of possession and the vendee in, but the vendee must bring his ejectment, 2. Sho. 85.

Held, that after a fi. fa. delivered to the sheriff, and executed after the defendant's death, if it be tested before is good, notwithstanding the statute of frauds and perjuries, they being intended only for the benefit of purchasers and strangers, and not of the party or his executors, Skin. 257; 7. Mod. 681; Cro. 159; 2. Sho. 482.

Upon the allowance of an audita querela suggesting a release, the release ought to be produced under seal, and received and approved in court by witness viva voce, Salk. 92. 1. Ro. 133.

No audita querela ought to be allowed but in open court, Idem. 239, 240. It is a rule that you never shall have an audita querela upon any cause whereof you might have taken advantage by plea before judgment.

Fi fa. after sci. fa. in assumpsit

Y. in our same court were adjudged for his damages which he had sustained by reason of the detention of that debt, and that he should have that money before our justices at Lancaster at a certain day now past, to render to the said G. the debt and damages aforesaid, whereof he is convicted; and at that day the same sheriff, to wit, John Atherton, esquire, returned to our justices at Lancaster, that he had caused to be made of the goods and chattels of the said P. the sum of five pounds one shilling and sixpence, which money he had ready at the day and place aforesaid, and that the aforesaid P. hath no more goods or chattels.

GEORGE the Third, &c. to, &c.: Whereas we lately commanded our chancellor of our county palatine of Lancaster, that by our writ under the seal of our said county palatine duly to be made out, and to be directed to the sheriff of the same county, he should command the same sheriff, that of the goods and chattels of F. W. late of in the county of , gentleman; in his bailiwick he should cause to be made, as well a certain debt of , which M. W. and S. W. executrix and executor of the last will and testament of F. W. deceased, lately in our court before our justices, &c. recovered against the said F. W. as also , which to the said M. W. and S. W. in our said court were adjudged for their damages, as well by reason of the detaining that debt as for their costs and charges by them laid out about their suit in that behalf, whereof the said F. W. is convicted, as appears, &c.; and that the said chancellor should have that money before our justices, &c. at a certain day now past, to be rendered to the said M. W. and S. W. for their debt, &c.; and our chancellor of our said county palatine at that day returned to us, that he by virtue of our said writ to him directed had by another writ under the seal of our said county palatine duly made out, and directed to the sheriff of the same county, commanded the same sheriff, as by the said writ he was commanded, who returned to our said chancellor that the said F. W. had not any goods or chattels in his bailiwick whereof he could cause to be made the debt, &c. or any part thereof; whereupon on the behalf of the said M. W. and S. W. it is sufficiently attested in our said court before our justices, &c. aforesaid, that the said F. W. hath sufficient goods and chattels in your said county whereof the debt and damages aforesaid may be made and levied; therefore we command you, that of the goods and chattels of the said F. W. in your bailiwick you cause the debt and damages aforesaid to be made and levied; and that you have that money before our justices, &c. on , to render to the said M. W. and S. delivered to the said O. X. by a reasonable price and extent all the goods and chattels of the said Q. Z. in his bailiwick (except the form of the statute, until he shall have levied thereof the said debt and damages; and in what manner the said sheriff shall have executed this our writ make appear to us at Westminster on, &c. under extent and appraisement; and have you, &c. Witness, &c.

GEORGE the Third, &c. to, &c.: Whereas A. B. widow, An elegit in as- judged to the said A. B. for her damages which she sustained by reason of the not performing, &c. made to the said A. B. by the said S. S. at in your county, whereof the said S. S. is convicted; and afterwards the said A. B. came into our said court according to the form, &c. and chose to have delivered to her all the goods and chattels of the said S. S. (except his oxen and beasts of his plough), and in like manner a moiety of all his lands and tenements in your bailiwick, to hold the same goods and chattels as her own proper goods and chattels, and also to hold the said moiety as her freehold to her and her assigns, according to the form of the aforesaid statute until the said damages shall be thereof levied; therefore we command that all the goods and chattels of the said S. GEORGE, &c. to our chamberlain of our county palatine of Chester, or his deputy there, greeting: The tenor of a certain record which is depending in our court before us at Westminster between A. B. plaintiff, and C. D. defendant, of a plea, &c. we send you inclosed in these presents, commanding you, that by our writ under the seal of our said county palatine duly to be made out you cause the said record to be sent to the mayor of the city of

of Chester and county of the same city, commanding the said mayor, that for trying the issue in the said record specified the said mayor do command the sheriffs of the said city of Chester and county of the same city, that they cause to come before the said mayor at a certain day and place by the said mayor to be appointed after the record shall be delivered to him twelve free and lawful men of the body of the city aforesaid and county of the same city, each of whom to have ten pounds a-year at least in lands, tenements, or rents, by whom the truth of the matter in question may be the better known and enquired into, and who are in nowise of kin either to the said A. B. or to the said C. D. to recognize and make a certain jury of the county between the said parties in the plea aforesaid, because as well the said A. B. as the said C. D. between whom the variance is, have put themselves upon that jury, and lastly, that the said mayor make such further process against the said jurors to be impanelled between the said parties as according to the law and custom of the said city and county of the same city in this behalf are used and commonly made until the issue aforesaid between the parties aforesaid shall be fully tried, and when the verification of the issue aforesaid shall have then been made and tried, then the said mayor shall send to you the record of the plaint aforesaid, with every thing that shall have been done thereupon before him, so that you have the said record before us at Westminster and this writ at a certain day which the said mayor shall appoint to the said parties to be in our said court here to hear judgment thereupon. Witness, &c.

GEORGE, &c. to our justices of our county palatine of Lancaster, greeting: The tenor of a certain record before us at Westminster between A. B. plaintiff, and C. D. defendant, in a plea of trespass on the case, we send you inclosed herein, commanding that you, having inspected the same by our writ of our said county palatine, do command the sheriff of the same county, that he cause twelve free and lawful men of the body of the same county palatine to come before you at the next sessions then to be holden after this writ shall be delivered to you, each of whom to have ten pounds per year at least of lands, tenements, or rents, by whom the truth of the matter may be the better known and enquired into, and who are in nowise related to the said C. D. or the said A. B. to recognize and make a certain jury of the county between the said parties of the plea aforesaid, because as well the said C. D. as the said A. B. between whom the controversy is, have put themselves, &c. and also that you make such further proceedings against the said jurors so to be impanelled between the said parties as are in this behalf used and commonly made, according to the law and custom of the said county until the issue aforesaid between the said parties shall be fully tried, and when the verification and issue aforesaid be then made and tried before us, then do you send the record of the plaint aforesaid, together with

As the case is.

AND now at this day, that is to say, next after in this same term, until which day C. D. and E. F. had leave to imparl to the aforesaid bill, and then to answer the same as they should be advised, come before our said lord the king at Westminster, as well the said A. B. by his attorney, as the said C. D. by his attorney; and the said (a) C. D. defends the force and injury laid to his charge by the said A. B. in his declaration aforesaid, which he will be ready to defend when, where, and in such manner and form as the said A. B. above thereof complains against him; and of this he puts himself upon the country; and the said A. B. doth the like: And the said E. F. although on the same day solemnly called comes not, nor says any thing in bar or denial of the aforesaid action of the said A. B. whereby the said A. B. remains therein against the said E. F. without defence; therefore it is considered that the said A. B. ought to recover against the said E. F. his damages by reason of the trespass aforesaid, because the said court of our said lord the king now here doth not know what damages the said A. B. hath in this behalf sustained, and also because it is necessary and convenient that only one assessment of damages shall be made for the whole trespass specified in the declaration, and that those damages ought to be set by the same jury of the county; and if it shall happen that a verdict should be given against the said (b) C. D. for the said A. B. upon the issue above joined between them; therefore as well to try the said issue between the said A. B. and the said C. D. above joined to be tried by the country as to enquire what damages the said A. B. hath sustained by reason of the trespass aforesaid above committed by the said E. F. let a jury come before our said lord the king at Westminster, on , who are in no wise related or of kin either to the said A. B. or to the said C. D. and E. F. to recognize on their oath the full truth of and concerning the premises, because as well the said C. D. as the said A. B. between whom the aforesaid matter in variance is, have put themselves upon that jury. The same day is given to the said A. B. and C. D. there, &c.

(a) The defendant who pleads. This is in trespass if in case (See post.)

(b) The person first taking issue.

[If in assumpsit, and non-assumpsit pleaded, then as follows:]

[As above till.] And the said C. D. defends the wrong and injury laid to his charge by the said A. B. in his declaration aforesaid, which he will be ready to defend when, where, and in such manner as this court shall award, and says, that he the said C. D. and the the said E. F. did not promise and undertake in manner and form as the said A. B. hath above complained against them; and of this he the said C. D. puts himself upon the country, &c. [only instead of the word "trespass," say, "not performing the several promises and undertakings."]

Entry of a bill of Middlesex on the roll to save the statute of limitations.

At which day, before our lord the king at Westminster came the said A. B. and C. D. the plaintiffs, in their proper persons, and offer themselves against the said E. F. the defendant, in the plea and bill aforesaid; and the sheriff of Middlesex, to wit, William Peers, esquire, and William Nash, esquire, returned that the aforesaid E. F. is not found in his bailiwick.

AFTERWARDS, that is to say, on the third day of April in this same term, the said J. P. if he be found in his bailiwick, and him safely keep, so that he may have his body before our said lord the king at Westminster on Wednesday next after one month from the day of Easter to satisfy the said J. A. the damages aforesaid, and it is granted to him; the same day is given to the said J. A. at the same place; at which day, before our said lord the king at Westminster, comes the said J. A. by his attorney aforesaid, and the sheriff, to wit, sheriff of Middlesex aforesaid, thereupon returns to our said lord the king at Westminster aforesaid that the said J. P. is not found in his bailiwick; [whereupon the said J. A. prays another writ of our said lord the

A. prays the writ of our said lord the king of testatum capias ad satisfaciendum to be directed to the sheriff of Gloucestershire, commanding him in form aforesaid, and it is granted to him, returnable before our said lord the king at Westminster on next after ; the same day is given to the said J. given to the said J. and R. at the same place; at which day, before our said lord the king at Westminster, come the said J. and R. by their attorney aforesaid, and the sheriff of Middlesex thereupon returns to our said lord the king aforesaid that he hath caused to be made of the goods and chattels of the said Peter in his bailiwick the sum of ninety-six pounds thirteen shillings and sixpence, which sum of money he has paid to the said J. and R. in part satisfaction of the damages aforesaid, and that the said Peter hath not any other or more goods and chattels in his bailiwick whereof he can cause to be made the residue of the damages aforesaid, or any part thereof.

And the said M. in his own proper person comes and defends the wrong and injury when, &c. and says nothing in bar or preclusion of the aforesaid action of the said Richard whereby the said Richard remains against the said M. thereof undefended; wherefore the said Richard ought to recover against the said A. his damages by reason of the non-performance of the said several promises and undertakings; but because it is not known what damages the said R. hath sustained by reason of the non-performance of the said promises and undertakings, the sheriff is commanded that he diligently enquire, by the oath of honest and lawful men of his county, what damages the said R. hath sustained as well by reason of the non-performance of the said promises and undertakings as for his costs and charges expended about his suit in this behalf, and that he make a return to the justices here of the inquisition which he shall take thereupon from the day of, &c. under his own seal and the seals of, &c. he shall take that inquisition; at which day the said Richard cometh here by his attorney aforesaid, and the sheriff, namely, J. P. knight, now returneth here a certain inquisition taken before him at , in the county aforesaid, on Monday, &c. in the year of , by the oaths of twelve, &c. by which it is found that the said Richard hath sustained damages by reason of the non-performance of several promises and undertakings, besides his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf laid out, to seven pounds nine shillings, and for the said costs and charges to sixpence; therefore it is considered that the said Richard do recover against the said M. his damages aforesaid to seven pounds nine shillings and sixpence by the inquisition aforesaid in form aforesaid found, and also nine pounds and sixpence to the said Richard at his request by the court here of increase adjudged, which said damages amount in the whole to sixteen pounds ten shillings; and the said M. in mercy, &c.

Afterwards, to wit, on , in the same term, before our lord the king at Westminster, cometh the said M. P. by J. R. his attorney, and saith, that in the record and process aforesaid, and also in giving the judgment aforesaid, there is manifest error in this, for that by the record and process thereof it appears that the judgment aforesaid in the plea aforesaid is given for the said Richard against the said M. P. when according to the law of this realm the said judgment ought to have been given for the said M. P. against the said R. G. therefore in this there is manifest error; there is also error in this, for that it appears by the record aforesaid that the said R. G. appeared in the said court of the bench bench by B. R. his attorney, yet the said B. R. had no warrant of attorney to appear for the said R. G. against the said M. P. in the plea aforesaid of the said court of the bench filed on record; therefore in this there is manifest error; and the said M. P. prays his majesty's writ to be directed to the chief justice of his said majesty's court of the bench more fully to certify the truth thereof to his said majesty's, &c. and it is granted to him, &c.

And the said R. by W. his attorney, comes voluntarily here into court, and having heard the said errors forthwith says, that neither in the aforesaid record and proceedings, nor in the giving the judgment aforesaid, is there any error; and also prays that the court of our said lord the king now here may likewise proceed to examine as well the record and proceedings aforesaid and the judgment thereon given as the aforesaid matters above assigned and alledged for error, and that the said judgment may be affirmed in all things, &c.; but because the said court of our said lord the king before our said lord the king hath not considered of a judgment to give of and concerning the premises, a day therefore is given to the parties aforesaid before our said lord the king until five weeks, &c. wheresoever, &c. to hear their judgment of and concerning the premises, the said court of our said lord the king having not as yet considered what judgment to give thereupon, &c.; at which day come before the lord the king at Westminster the aforesaid parties by their attornies aforesaid, and because the court of our said lord the king before the king himself hath not considered yet of a judgment to give of and concerning the premises, a day is therefore given to the parties aforesaid before our said lord the king until the morrow, &c. wheresoever, &c. to hear their judgment of and concerning the premises, &c. the court of our said lord the now king before the king himself not having as yet considered what judgment to give of and concerning the premises, &c.; at which day, before the said lord the king at Westminster, the aforesaid parties come by their attornies aforesaid, upon which all and singular the premises being seen, and by the court of our said lord the king now here fully understood and diligently examined, and as well the record and process aforesaid as the judgment thereon given, as also the aforesaid causes and matters by the aforesaid M. above assigned for error being inspected, for that it appears to the said court of our said lord the king now here that neither in the record and process aforesaid, nor giving of the judgment aforesaid, is any thing erroneous or defective, and that there is no error in the record aforesaid; it is considered that the judgment aforesaid be in all things affirmed and do stand in full force and effect, the aforesaid causes and matters above assigned for error in anywise notwithstanding; and it is further considered by the court of our said lord the king now here that the aforesaid R. R. do recover against the said M. to the said R. by the said court of our said lord the king now here adjudged accord-

The transcript examined and furnished.—Attend the prothonotary, have it examined and signed, and pay the clerk two shillings and sixpence, which he expects for expediting the transcript, though he cannot claim it; and when examined, leave it with him to be filed with the signer of the writs in the K. B. office.

The transcript filed with the signer of the writs, receive it from him to copy, and pay him fourpence for delivering it; and when copied, return it to him for the defendant to copy.

Then return the original (as below), and file it with the custos brevium of the C. B. and execute the warrant of attorney at the warrant of attorney's office. See that they were filed agreeably to judgment.

This entry and motion may be made only with making a short inscription on the roll.

Confilium.—Draw up the record for counsel, and set down the cause in the paper, for which pay one shilling to the clerk of the papers, and make four books for the judges, and another for the counsel to argue it. The plaintiff makes up two books, and delivers them to the senior judges, and pays two shillings a piece with them.

I then delivered in nullo est erratum to the adverse attorney, and paid him two shillings and fourpence for the entry of it. This being done, I immediately entered the whole proceedings with with an award of a certiorari and a non nisi breve (though no certiorari was sued out), and paid him as for common entries, and I made the entry as of Easter Term last, which was the more proper than this term, in regard only that the rule to return the certiorari was of that term, having entered two or three lines only on the roll. I then moved the court of K. B. and got it made a consilium, and paid the clerk of the papers one shilling for reading the record in court. I then drew up the rule, and sent down the cause as before, and made four books, and delivered one to each judge, the plaintiff in error not delivering any; and the cause coming on, the judgment was affirmed, and I drew up the rule for the affirmance with the clerk of the rules. I then entered up the affirmance, and filed the rolls, but the rolls not being filed till Trinity Term following, I got the master to go into the Treasury at Westminster, who taxed the costs in the margin of the roll, and also on the rule for judgment (taxable sixpenny stamp). I paid fourpence for the post term, and one shilling to his clerk for filing the roll; and to the master three shillings for taxing the costs.

This was a judgment on an issue to the bishop on the defendant's plea, that plaintiff and her deceased husband were never married, and the bishop certifying the marriage to a writ de maritagio inquirendo, the writ of error was returnable the last return of this term, so that the defendant had by the course of the court till the end of next Trinity Term to transcribe. But had the writ of error been returnable sooner in the term, it would have been otherwise; and there being in this case a dispute whether the defendant the plaintiff in error should not put in special bail, and not take out a rule to transcribe till that could be determined, which we agreed to refer to Mr. J. Fortescue, who in Trinity Term was attended on a supposed summons for plaintiff to shew cause why execution should not be stayed, a writ of error being sealed, and the act of parliament directing that in dower after verdict special bail should be given for three years value. It was insisted for plaintiff, that the bishop's certificate being founded on an issue to him, and a writ de maritagio inquirendo thereon, and he having by his return to that writ found the marriage that was properly a verdict in this cause equal to the finding of a jury, as the trial of a marriage was only cognizable by the bishop: but the other side insisted that the act of parliament by the word verdict meant a finding of twelve men; and the judge was of that opinion; and that the defendant was not obliged to put in special bail.

I then took out a rule to transcribe; but before the transcript came in the defendant died, by which the writ of error abated.

 BONE AND OTHERS. }

Writ of error was returned in B. R. the last return of this term. I left a precipe with the curfitor of the county of Devon, and got a writ of error sealed, and then allowed. Then served defendant in error's agent with a copy, and served the allowance. On the eleventh I put two persons in as bail for plaintiff in error before Judge Buller, and gave defendant's agent notice (the four days to put in bail being both inclusive.) The twelfth I was served with a rule for better bail, and the same evening gave the attorney notice to justify in court of C. B. on the fifteenth instant. As soon as Trinity Term came, the defendant in error got an order in chancery to proceed to affirm the judgment in error, and served me with a rule to certify the record in eight days, whereupon I left some money in order to transcribe, and afterwards paid the whole transcript money. In Trinity Term defendant sued out two sci. fa. to assign errors, and had then returned nihil, and afterwards served me with an eight days rule in Michaelmas Term to assign errors on record.

INSTRUCTIONS.—When you are served with an allowance of a writ of error, you get a rule from the clerk of the errors (in case bail is required) to put in better bail, and serve copy on the attorney for the plaintiff in error, and when the bail have justified, you have another rule from the clerk of the errors for plaintiff in error to transcribe the record in eight days. You pay four shillings for each rule.

NOTE.—That you may meet with as little delay as possible, enter up your final judgment on the roll, and docket it, and carry it to the clerk of the errors to be by him transcribed, and he will file it with the clerk of the effoins;

essoins; and when the record is transcribed, and you have examined the transcript carefully, the clerk of the errors files it with the writ of error and the chief justice's return annexed with in the K. B. office, and then, and not before, you make out a writ of scire facias quare executionem non, &c. which is signed by M. H. pay one shilling and eightpence, and the plaintiff in error must either be summoned in this writ by the sheriff or an alias must issue. This writ must lie four days in the sheriff's office before the return; and in case of an alias scire facias, each must be four days there before the return, and there must be fifteen between the teste and return of the scire facias, with notice, or in case of an alias scire facias, then fifteen days between the teste of the first scire facias and the return of alias scire facias. On the return of the first scire facias with notice, or in case of two alias scire facias, a rule is given with the clerk of the rules for the plaintiff in error to appear and assign errors; but no formal appeal is entered, for in fact the appeal is by signing error; and if errors are not assigned, you may sign non prof. for want thereof; but then you have no costs. Many times the plaintiff's agent in error gives the defendant's agent a notice that he will appear for plaintiff, and then a rule is given by the master on part of the proceedings, and entered with the clerk of the rules to assign errors. If the plaintiff assigns, and alleges the want of an original, or warrant of attorney, you get a rule from the master to return the writ or writs of certiorari, which being entered with the clerk of the errors, you serve it on the plaintiff's attorney to return the same; and if you find none returned and filed with when the rule is out you return in nullo, &c. and pay therewith two shillings and fourpence for the entry; and if the writ is brought merely for delay, you make an entry of the proceedings on a treble penny stamp, and also on the roll, and enter the same with on producing the roll marked for a confession, which you draw up, and set down the cause with the clerk of the papers, and enter your proceedings on the roll, and make up the paper books for the judges. The defendant in error delivers to the two puisne judges four days before day of argument, and if more delivered by the plaintiff to the senior judges, you also deliver them a copy two days before the day for which the cause is set down to be argued. N. B. If you deliver all the books, the other side cannot be heard by counsel. When the court has given judgment, draw up the rule, and get it stamped with double two shilling and sixpenny stamps, and carry it and your roll to the Master, and he signs the affirmance and taxes the costs by the delay of execution.

LITCHFIELD against SMITH.

The plaintiff in error having assigned several frivolous special errors merely for delay, I therefore stayed till the end of the vacation, and then served the plaintiff with a four day rule to return the certiorari, which he had prayed for in the assignment of errors.

The certiorari not being returned within the time, I made an entry that the chief justice had not returned the writ, &c. And I filed a general replication of in nullo, &c. By this means the plaintiff was prevented from arguing the special errors aforesaid, and the judgment was affirmed of course.

The plaintiff took out a summons for time to return the certiorari, but Baron Perrot refused to allow a moment's time. The plaintiff upon the affirmance day moved that it might stand over, but this the court also denied.

Conclusion to a declaration in B. R. by bill.

(a) Pledges to prosecute { John Doe
and Richard Roe.

(a) Pledges are put to declarations in B. R. and in the exchequer (and in the common pleas where proceedings are for or against privileged persons), because originally, by the common law, no person was entitled to bring an action till he had first found pledges to prosecute such writ; and then those pledges to prosecute were not fictitious but real persons. Wisdom and experience have found it necessary to excuse finding these real pledges, but as the law is still the same, the fictitious names of John Doe and Richard Roe are used instead of real pledges formerly found. Therefore a proceeding in the king's bench or exchequer, as also in the common pleas when for or against privileged persons, being brought by bill (and not by original), which is supposed to be the commencement of a suit, the pledges are first shewn on the bill, and consequently on the declaration as being an exact copy of the bill. In proceedings by original the pledges are omitted in the declaration, because the original is the first process and is sued out of the court of chancery, where pledges are supposed to be found before the original is sued out; and the original mentions, that because the plaintiff hath found pledges to prosecute his suit, therefore the sheriff commanded, &c.

MIDDLESEX, to wit. C. D. late of Westminster in the county of Middlesex, yeoman, (b) was attached [or summoned] to answer unto A. Beginning of a declaration in C. B. by original.

(b) In the common pleas you must always put the defendant's addition, that is, by place of abode, his degree, profession, or trade. For the reason, see Doctrina Placitandi, ed. 1771, in English, fo 65.

Wherefore the said A. B. saith he is injured, and hath sustained damage to the amount of pounds, for which he brings his suit, &c. [Omit pledges.]

he owes to his majesty's exchequer; and therefore he brings his suit, &c. [Add pledges.] (a)

(a) The reason of this form is because the court of exchequer is supposed to be a court only in aid of the king's debtors, and all proceedings there conclude in the same manner.

Conclusion.

[Conclusion same as in B. R. adding a similar profert and conclusion to ditto of the letters of administration, omitting the pledges, &c.]

Beginning of a declaration against an administrator, in B. R. or C. P.

[THE beginnings and endings of declarations against administrators are the same both in B. R. and C. P. as those against executors in the respective courts, only substituting the description, "administrator of all the singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits which were of G. H. deceased, at the time of his death, who died intestate," instead of executor of the last will and testament of G. H. deceased.

It is sufficient in B. R. to describe defendant as administrator without specially averring the administration was committed. Sed qu. in C. P. Vide 2. Vent. 84; 2. Ld. Raym. 1511; 2. Stra. 781.

For the reason, 3. Will. 1.; as to the manner and form of granting administration in all cases by the ecclesiastical court. Vide Wankford and Wankford, Salk. 299. 309.

There are several sorts of administration besides administrations of goods and chattels of the intestate, viz. administration of the goods, &c. (of a deceased person) with the will annexed, which is committed when a man makes a will without appointing an executor, or when he appoints an executor who dies before him or refuses to act. There is likewise an administration of the goods of a person deceased during the minority of another,

(a) An administrator durante minore etate of an administratrix may act and sue till the person in whose right he acts be which is committed when the next of kin is not of proper age to take the probate of the will or the administration of the intestate. There are also other kinds of administration, in all which the beginning of the declaration varies according to the fact, and if the administration be granted during a limited time, or for a particular purpose, you must in the conclusion of the declaration aver that the time is not expired, or the purpose executed, for which the administration is granted. The following is the averment to be annexed to a declaration at the suit of an administrator durante minore etate which will give some idea of the rest, with this, that the said A. B. will verify that the said Z. Z. is still within the age of (a) seventeen years, to wit, of the age of years and no more, to wit, at, &c. aforesaid.

of the age of twenty-one years, 1. Salk. 39; and therefore in such case the averment must vary accordingly.

Easter Term, 7. Geo. III.

BE it remembered, that of Hilary term last past before our lord the king at Westminster came James Roughly, by Thomas Weston his attorney, and brought into the court of the said lord the king then there his certain bill against Mary Martin, being in the custody of the sheriff of Denbigh, by virtue of his majesty's writ of latitat issued out of the court of our said lord the king, before the king himself, at the suit of the said J. R. directed to the sheriff of the county of Denbigh, of a plea of trespass on the case, and there are pledges for the prosecuting, to wit, John Doe and Richard Roe, which said bill follows in these words, that is to say, city of Chester, to wit: John Roughly complains, &c. and now at this day, that is to say, on Wednesday next after fifteen days from Easter day in this same term, until which day the said Mary Martin had leave to imparl to the bill aforesaid, and then to answer, &c. before the lord the king at Westminster, come as well the said John Roughly by his attorney aforesaid, as the said Mary Martin by John Leache her attorney, and the said Mary Martin defends the wrong and injury when, &c. and says that she did not take upon herself and promise in manner and form as the said John Roughly above complains against her, and of this she puts herself upon the country, and the said John Roughly doth the same likewise; therefore let there be a jury made thereof, and because the men of the city of Chester and county of the same city ought not nor have been used to come out of the same city and county of the same city to try an issue joined in the same city and county of the same city, let the record of the plaint aforesaid be sent to the chamberlain of our said lord the king of his county palatine of Chester, or his deputy there, so that the said chamberlain or his deputy there, by writ of our lord the king under the seal of our said county palatine duly to be made out, do cause the record to be sent to the mayor of the said city of Chester, commanding the said mayor, that for trying the issue aforesaid, the said mayor do command the sheriffs of the same city and county of the same city, that they cause to come before the said mayor at a certain day and place by the said mayor to be appointed after the said record shall have been delivered to him, twelve free and lawful men of the city and county aforesaid, each of whom having ten pounds a year at least of lands, tenements, or rents, by whom the truth of the matter in question may the better be known and inquired into, and who are in no wise a kin either to the said John Roughly or the said Mary Martin, to recognize and make a certain jury of the country between the said plaintiff in the plea aforesaid, because as well the said J. R. as the said M. M. between whom the variance is, have put themselves upon that jury, and when the verification and issue shall have been there made and tried, then the said mayor shall send the record of the plaint aforesaid, with every thing that in the court of our said lord the king there hath been done to the said chamberlain or his deputy, so that the said chamberlain or his deputy may remit the said record into the court of our said lord the king, before the king himself here, at a certain day which the said mayor shall appoint to the said parties to hear judgment thereupon.

MR. LEACHE,

Notice.

TAKE notice, that this cause will be tried at the portmote court to be holden for the city of Chester and county of the same city in the common hall of pleas there on Monday the ninth day of June next. Dated this twenty-seventh day of May 1768.

I. WESTON, agent for the plaintiff.

Issue in a county
palatine.

THEREFORE let there be a jury made thereof, and because the issue aforesaid between the parties above joined ought to be tried by men of the county palatine of Lancaster, that is to say, of the body of the same county where his said majesty's writ doth not run, and not elsewhere; therefore as to trying the issue aforesaid between the parties above joined, let the record of the plaint aforesaid be sent to his majesty's justices of the said county of Lancaster, so that the same justices by his majesty's writ of that county duly to be made out, do command the sheriff of the same county, that he cause twelve free and lawful men of the body of the said county of Lancaster to come before the said justices at the next general sessions of assize for the said county after the said record shall be delivered to them, each of whom having ten pounds a year at least on lands, tenements, or rents, by whom the truth of the matter may the better be known and inquired into, and who are no wise related either to the said A. or to the said C. to recognize and make a jury of the country between the said parties in the plea aforesaid, because as well the said C. as the said A. between whom the controversy is, have put themselves upon that jury; and when the verification and issue aforesaid shall be there jury;

made and tried, then the said justices shall send the record of the plaint aforesaid, together with every thing that shall be done thereupon before them in his said majesty's court there to our said lord the king at Westminster, at a certain day which the same justices of the said county palatine shall appoint to the said parties to be in the same court there to hear judgment thereupon, &c.

THEREFORE let a jury come thereupon before our lord the king at Westminster on next after , who are in no wise related either to the said A. B. or to the said C. D. to recognize upon their oath the full truth of and concerning the premises, because as well the said C. D. as the said A. B. between whom the matter in variance is, have put themselves upon that jury, the same day is given to the said parties to be there, &c. Issue in Middlesex.

AND of this he puts himself upon the country; and the said A. B. doth so likewise; therefore the sheriff is commanded, that he cause to come here twelve, &c. by whom, &c. and who neither, &c. to recognize, &c. because as well, &c.; and this he prays may be inquired of by the country, &c. therefore, &c. Issue by the defendant.

AND the said C. by A. B. his attorney, comes and defends the wrong and injury when, &c. and says nothing in bar or denial of the aforesaid action of the said A. whereby the said A. remains therein undefended by the said C. therefore it is considered that the said A. ought to recover his damages against the said C. by reason of the not performing the several promises and undertakings before mentioned, but because the court of our said lord the king now here doth not know it is not known what damages the said A. hath in this behalf sustained; therefore the said sheriff of the said county is commanded that he diligently inquire by the oath of good and lawful men of his bailiwick, what damages the said A. hath sustained, as well by reason of the not performing the promises and undertakings aforesaid, as for his costs and charges laid out by him about his suit in this behalf: and that he make appear the inquisition which he shall take thereof to the justices of our said lord the king at Westminster, on , under his seal, and the seals of those by whose oath he shall take such inquisition, together with the king's writ to him thereupon directed, &c. Nil dicit in case on promises.

AND now at this day, that is to say, on next after , in this same term, until which day the said T. P. had leave to imparl to the aforesaid bill, and then answer the same as he should be advised, come as well the said J. D. by his said attorney as the said T. P. by R. S. his attorney, before our said lord the king at Westminster, and the said T. P. defends the wrong and injury, when, &c. and saith that he is in no wise guilty of the trespass above laid to his charge in manner and form as the said J. D. hath above , Form of an issue into the county palatine of Lancaster, and imparlance.

above complained against him; and of this he puts himself upon the country; and the said J. D. doth the like; therefore let a jury come thereupon; and because the issue aforesaid between the parties above joined ought to be tried by men of the county palatine of Lancaster, that is to say, of the body of the same county, where his said majesty's writ doth not run, and not elsewhere; therefore as to trying the issue between the parties above joined let the record of the plaint aforesaid be sent to his majesty's justices of the said county palatine of Lancaster, so that the same justices by his majesty's writ of that county duly to be made out do command the same sheriff of the same county, that he cause twelve free and lawful men of the body of the said county palatine of L. to come before the said justices at their next general sessions of assize to be holden for the said county after the said records shall be delivered to them, each of whom to have ten pounds a-year at least in lands, tenements, or rents, by whom the truth of the matter may the better be known and enquired into, and who are in no wise related either to the said J. D. or to the said T. P. to recognize and make a jury of the country between the said parties in the plea aforesaid, because as well the said T. P. as the said J. D. between whom the controversy is, have put themselves upon that jury; and when the verification and the issue aforesaid shall have been there made and tried, then the said justices shall send the record of the plaint aforesaid, together with every thing that shall be done thereupon before them in his said majesty's court there to our said lord the king at Westminster at a certain day which the same justices of the said county palatine shall appoint to the same parties to be in the same court there to hear judgment thereupon, &c.

Issue into the portmote court of the city of Chester. Therefore let a jury be made thereof, and because the men of the said city of Chester ought not, nor have been used to come out of the said city of Chester and county of the same city to try any issue joined in the same city and county of the same city; therefore for the trying the issue aforesaid between the parties above joined triable in the said city of Chester in the county of the

the same city, let the record of the plaint aforesaid be sent to the chamberlain of the said lord the king of his county palatine of Chester, or his deputy there, so that the said chamberlain or his deputy there, by writ of the said lord the king under the seal of the said county palatine duly to be made out, do cause the record aforesaid to be sent to the mayor of the said city of Chester, commanding the said mayor, that for the trying the issue aforesaid the said mayor do command the sheriffs of the said city of Chester and county of the same city that they cause to come before the said mayor at a certain day and place by the said mayor to be appointed after the said record shall have been delivered to him twelve free and lawful men of the body of the city aforesaid and county of the same city, each of whom to have ten pounds per year at least in lands, tenements, or rents, by whom the truth of the matter in question may the better be known and enquired into, and who are in no wise related either to the said T. the defendant or the said H. the plaintiff, to recognize and make a jury of the country between the said parties in the plea aforesaid, because as well the said H. as the said T. between whom the controversy is, have put themselves upon that jury; and when the verification and issue aforesaid shall be there made and tried, then the said mayor shall send the record of the plaint aforesaid, together with every thing that in the court of the said lord the king there hath been done to the said chamberlain or his deputy, so that the said chamberlain or his deputy may remit the said record into the court of the said lord the king before the king himself here at a certain day which the said mayor shall appoint to the same parties to be in the same court here to hear judgment thereupon, &c.

Take notice of trial in this cause for the next portmote court to be held by adjournment on the day of , in the common hall of pleas in and for the city of Chester. Dated, &c.

THE KING

against

WM. JEFFERYS.

The examination and answer of William Jefferys to certain interrogatories exhibited against him in his majesty's court of king's bench at Westminster for a contempt supposed to be by him committed against the said court. To the first interrogatory this examinant answereth and saith, that he this examinant was never before any person whatsoever examined, sworn, and admitted to act as an attorney or solicitor in any court of law or equity: This examinant did not ever assume, or appear to be, of act or practice as or in the office or business of an attorney or solicitor, otherwise than as an articled clerk to James Read, attorney at law, herein after mentioned, either alone, or in conjunction with, or by the assistance or connivance of any sworn attorney or solicitor whatsoever, otherwise than by this examinant's incautiously publishing cards hereinafter mentioned: This examinant denies that he this examinant did ever so act or practice in conjunction with or by the assistance or connivance of Thomas Pellatt, against whom together with this examinant the attachment of this honourable court has issued, and which said Thomas Pellatt is admitted an attorney of this honourable court, as he this examinant has been informed, and verily believes. To the second interrogatory this examinant answereth and saith, that he this examinant did some time in or about the month of March 1791, at the request and by and with the permission of James Read, then an attorney of this honourable court, as this examinant verily believes; and to whom he this examinant was then an articled clerk, live and reside in a certain messuage or dwelling-house, with the appurtenances, in the town of Chatham, in the county of Kent, in a certain street or row there, called or known by the name or description of Fair Row, and which the said James Read held as tenant to one Guy, the owner thereof, and for about seven months previous to the said time had let out several rooms thereof to persons at low rents, reserving the offices in the said house for the purpose of conducting his business there; and this examinant did live and reside in such said messuage or dwelling-house at the request of the said James Read, in order that he this examinant might be enabled to answer the enquiries of the clients of the said James Read, and to conduct the business of the said James Read there as his clerk, and for which said messuage or dwelling-house the said James Read did then and has since paid the rent, as the said James Read informed

this examinant: This examinant positively denies that he this examinant did ever insinuate, give out, or pretend, or cause, or procure to be given out, insinuated, or pretended that he this examinant had become the successor to the said James Read in the said business or profession of an attorney: That in or about the month of March 1791, the said James Read being indebted to this examinant in a sum of money which the said James Read, as this examinant believes, was unable to pay, as from repeated applications to the said James Read this examinant could not obtain the same, did give leave and permission to this examinant to prepare and execute such conveyancing business as the particular friends of this examinant should call upon him to do, and for this examinant to receive the profits thereof in or towards satisfaction of such money so owing to this examinant as aforesaid; and in consequence of such permission he this examinant did incautiously, and without the knowledge of the said James Read, cause some cards to be printed to the following effect, "that is to say," Mr. Jefferys, attorney at law, Fair Row, Chatham;" and this examinant did give a few of such cards to some of this examinant's particular friends, but on the said James Read's informing this examinant that he this examinant had done wrong, he this examinant discontinued to deliver any more: The reason why he this examinant styled himself upon such cards attorney at law was, that the preparing and executing conveyances was in general understood by this examinant's friends and the inhabitants in general to be the business of an attorney only, and that he this examinant might not be considered as disqualified to transact such conveyancing business; but notwithstanding which this examinant still continued to transact the business and affairs of the said James Read as his clerk, until the expiration of this examinant's clerkship: That some time in or about the month of March 1791, the name of the said James Read was erased from the door of the house in consequence of the said house being new painted, and that soon after the name of "Jefferys" only was placed upon the door thereof; but this examinant did not order this examinant's said name to be placed thereon, as the successor of the said James Read: This examinant did deliver to a few of this examinant's particular friends in or about the town of Chatham a few of the said printed cards, and no other printed or written cards, letters, or hand-bills whatsoever, alledging, intimating, suggesting, or insinuating that this examinant has become, or was qualified, or enabled to practice as an attorney or solicitor: This examinant does not recollect that he this examinant did deliver such printed card to the said Samuel Sherwood, but admits that the same might possibly come to his knowledge: This examinant was some time, in or about the month of June 1791, applied to by the said Samuel Sherwood to become or be employed by or for him in or about the recovery of a certain sum of money due to him from one Christopher Fisher, and this examinant did thereupon undertake at the request of the said Samuel Sherwood to write a letter to the said Christopher Fisher,

requesting payment of the said debt: This examinant believes that he this examinant might in the course of the conversation which took place inform the said Thomas Sherwood that he this examinant had done business for the said Mr. Troy and other gentlemen in Chatham aforesaid, but not as an attorney; that afterwards the said Samuel Sherwood informed this examinant that the said Christopher Fisher had not paid the debt agreeable to the request of the said letter, the said Samuel Sherwood thereupon requested this examinant to commence an action against Fisher for the recovery of the debt; and this examinant thereupon informed the said Samuel Sherwood that it was not in this examinant's power to bring any action, he this examinant not being an attorney; and this examinant did also inform the said Samuel Sherwood that this examinant had a friend (Mr. Pellatt), an attorney in London, to whom he this examinant would recommend the said Samuel Sherwood as an attorney, to bring an action against the said Christopher Fisher, and if the said Samuel Sherwood would sign an authority to Mr. Pellatt for that purpose, he this examinant would prepare one, which this examinant accordingly did a few days afterwards, at the request of the said Samuel Sherwood, which the said Samuel Sherwood did then read and sign; and this examinant did then, at the request of the said Samuel Sherwood, send the same to the said Mr. Pellatt: This examinant did not produce to the said Samuel Sherwood for his signature any paper writing prepared by this examinant or any other person whatsoever, purporting to be a warrant or authority for this examinant to sue or be employed in recovering from the said Christopher Fisher the money so due to the said Samuel Sherwood as aforesaid, or to secure to this examinant such costs and expences as might be incurred upon that occasion, nor did the said Samuel Sherwood sign and deliver to this examinant any other paper writing whatsoever, save and except the said paper writing purporting to be an authority for the said Thomas Pellatt to bring the said action against the said Christopher Fisher: This examinant did accordingly send the said warrant to the said Thomas Pellatt, and informed him that if he would send a writ agreeable to such warrant, he this examinant would serve the same; and on or about the second day of October 1791, this examinant did receive from the said Thomas Pellatt a letter enclosing a writ of latitat under the seal of this honourable court against the said Christopher Fisher, at the suit of the said Samuel Sherwood, for the purpose of recovering and compelling payment of the said money so due as aforesaid; the said Thomas Pellatt at the time of his suing out and sending such writ did not know the said Samuel Sherwood, to the best of this examinant's knowledge and belief: This examinant at the time of sending the said warrant and of receiving the said writ from the said Thomas Pellatt was clerk to, and in the service of the said James Read; the said Thomas Pellatt sent the said writ to this examinant for the purpose of serving a copy of the same on the said C. Fisher; the said J. Read did not at that that time know that such writ was ordered by or sent to this examinant, or of the purpose for which such writ was sent, as this examinant verily believes; the said Thomas Pellatt was not employed by or on behalf of the said James Read as his agent in London, in and about the doing and transacting, or assisting in the business of the said James Read as an attorney at law, at the time of sending the said warrant and receiving the said writ from the said Thomas Pellatt, to the best of this examinant's knowledge and belief; but the said Thomas Pellatt had some time previous thereto been such agent to the said James Read, but had then declined, as this examinant had been informed and believes: This examinant did deliver and serve upon the said Christopher Fisher a printed copy of the said writ of latitat filled up in this examinant's own hand-writing, and purporting to be a copy of the said writ of latitat against him the said Christopher Fisher at the suit of the said S. Sherwood; that sometime on or about the time when he this examinant so served the copy of the said writ of latitat on the said Christopher Fisher, he this examinant informed the said Samuel Sherwood of the receipt and service thereof, and that the said Thomas Pellatt had sent an account of the debt and costs in such action, and had thereby authorized this examinant to receive the same for the use of the said Thomas Pellatt, provided the said Christopher Fisher should apply and be willing to pay the same; this examinant believes that the said Christopher Fisher did call upon and apply to the said S. Sherwood to settle, accommodate, and end the said action and suit, and that the said Christopher Fisher was referred to this examinant by the said Samuel Sherwood, as being authorized by the said Thomas Pellatt to receive the debt and costs for the use of the said Thomas Pellatt: This examinant doth not recollect that the said Christopher Fisher did inform this examinant that he had made such application to the said Samuel Sherwood, and that he had been referred to this examinant for the purpose aforesaid: This examinant saith that the said Christopher Fisher did apply to this examinant to know the amount of the debt and costs, and this examinant did then produce to the said Christopher Fisher the letter this examinant received from the said Thomas Pellatt enclosing the said writ of latitat, and pointing out to the said Christopher Fisher the said Thomas Pellatt as the attorney in the cause, and his residence as indorsed on the back of the writ, as this examinant had also done on the service of the copy of the said writ, and in which letter was written a bill of the debt and costs in the hand writing of the said Thomas Pellatt, with an authority for this examinant to receive the same for the use of the said Thomas Pellatt; and this examinant did then inform the said Christopher Fisher that this examinant was not employed as the attorney in the said cause; but that he this examinant would receive the said debt and costs agreeable to the authority of the said Thomas Pellatt, or that the said Christopher Fisher might pay the same to the said Thomas Pellatt in London; the said bill of costs was not made

out in the hand-writing or in the name of this examinant, except filling up a blank with the sum of five shillings, and the total amount of the bill: This examinant says, that the items in the said bill were, warrant and instructions to sue, four shillings and fourpence; latitat, twelve shillings and sixpence; copy and service, five shillings; accommodation fee, six shillings and eightpence; letters, two shillings, amounting in the whole to the sum of one pound ten shillings and sixpence: This examinant also says, that the whole of such items charged in the said bill or account were not, nor was any or either of them meant or intended to be received by this examinant, to or for this examinant's own proper use, and that the whole of the said costs mentioned in the said bill was meant and intended to be received for the sole use of the said Thomas Pellatt: This examinant did inform the said Christopher Fisher that the amount of the said debt was seven pounds nine shillings and sixpence, and that the debt and costs together came to nine pounds, as mentioned in such bill; this examinant did then inform the said Christopher Fisher that he this examinant did then expect to be paid the sum of three shillings and sixpence for this examinant's application to the said Christopher Fisher, requesting the payment of the said debt as aforesaid previous to the said action being brought; to the best of this examinant's knowledge and belief the said Samuel Sherwood was not in any respect acquainted with or had he ever seen or corresponded, or been in any wise connected with the above named Thomas Pellatt previous to the said first day of October 1791, except by the said Samuel Sherwood executing such authority as aforesaid, or except that the wife of the said Samuel Sherwood had formerly been acquainted with the said Thomas Pellatt as this examinant has been informed and believes: This examinant believes that the said Thomas Pellatt was first introduced to and known by the said S. Sherwood sometime in or about the beginning of the month of November last past, when the said Thomas Pellatt, being at that time on a visit at Chatham, he this examinant did then accompany the said Thomas Pellatt to the house of the said Samuel Sherwood, when the said Thomas Pellatt conversed with the said Samuel Sherwood as his attorney concerning the said action against Fisher; the said Thomas Pellatt was not so introduced as being, nor was he at such the time of his said introduction understood by the said Samuel Sherwood, as this examinant believes, to be an agent to this examinant, or a person who permitted or suffered his name to be made use of upon the account or for the profit of this examinant, but the said Thomas Pellatt was introduced by this examinant to the said Samuel Sherwood as the attorney of the said Samuel Sherwood; and that the said Samuel Sherwood, as this examinant believes, did consider the said Thomas Pellatt as his attorney, and in respect to this examinant in no other light than as the friend and acquaintance of this examinant: This examinant denies that the said Thomas Pellatt did ever permit and suffer this examinant to use the name of him

the said Thomas Pellatt upon any occasion whatsoever in order to enable this examinant to carry on business as an attorney or solicitor. To the third interrogatory this examinant answereth and saith, that he this examinant has heard and believes that the said James Read heretofore of the town of Chatham aforesaid but now of Rochester in the said county of Kent, for some years previous to Hilary term 1791, was a sworn attorney of this honourable court, and of the court of common pleas, and also a solicitor of the court of chancery; this examinant has also heard and believes that the said James Read did cease or discontinue to renew his licence or certificate required by a late act of parliament to be annually taken out by attorneys or solicitors in or about Hilary term 1791, but continued to retain and employ this examinant in his business and affairs as his clerk and in his service; that some time in or about the month of January 1791, to the best of this examinant's recollection and belief, he this examinant did mention to the said James Read this examinant's suspicions that the omission or neglect of the said James Read to take out or renew such licence or certificate might affect the services of this examinant as clerk to the said James Read, and prevent this examinant's admission as an attorney; and he this examinant did thereupon request the said James Read to take out and renew such licence or certificate; the said James Read then informed this examinant that he did not mean to renew such licence or certificate unless business of some importance in the common law should offer itself, as it was that kind of business he wished to avoid as much as possible, and to confine himself to the conveyancing business only, and that this examinant might not be uneasy on that account as it would not affect or prevent the admission of this examinant as an attorney on the expiration of this examinant's clerkship; and thereupon this examinant continued to act as the clerk of the said James Read; but this examinant does not recollect that he this examinant did ever request the said James Read to permit and suffer this examinant to act or practice as an attorney or solicitor in the name of the said James Read, otherwise than as the clerk to the said J. Read: This examinant says, that sometime in or about the month of April 1791, this examinant then being employed to prepare an assignment of certain premises in Chatham against the then or then late owner; whereof a judgment was entered up in this honourable court at the suit of John Simmons, which affected the said premises; and William J. Anson then being concerned on behalf of the purchaser requiring that satisfaction should be entered on the said judgment previous to the execution of the said assignment; this examinant did then request the said James Read to sign an undertaking that satisfaction should be entered as aforesaid, which the said James Read refused to do, alledging the want of such certificate, whereupon this examinant did then propose to the said James Read that he this examinant would pay for such certificate, provided the said James Read would renew such certificate and sign such undertaking, which the said James Read refused fufed to do: This examinant did in or about the month of March 1791 apply to the faid Thomas Pellatt who is a relation to the wife of the faid James Read, and mentioned to the faid Thomas Pellatt the omission of the faid James Read to renew fuch licence and practice common law, did request the faid Thomas Pellatt to tranfact fuch bufinefs as an attorney, as the friends of this examinant might apply to this examinant to do, he this examinant not being an attorney (this examinant's clerkship being then nearly expired), and which this examinant might recommend to the faid Thomas Pellatt in order to retain fuch friends; this examinant did not obtain from the faid Thomas Pellatt any leave, permission, or confent whatfoever that the name of the faid Thomas Pellatt might be made ufe of upon the account of or for the profit of this examinant either folely or jointly with the faid Thomas Pellatt, or to fend this examinant any procefs iffuing out of or from this honourable court, or any other court whatfoever, whereby to enable this examinant to appear, act, or practice as an attorney or folicitor: This examinant to the beft of his remembrance and belief did not make, or caufe, or procure to be made any other application to the faid Thomas Pellatt for any permission to ufe the name of the faid Thomas Pellatt in or about the bufinefs or practice of an attorney or folicitor, otherwife than in recommending fuch friends as aforefaid: This examinant was not permitted or fuffered in any manner, or for any purpofes whatfoever, or upon any terms or conditions, to ufe the fame, other than in recommendation of this examinant's friends to employ the faid Thomas Pellatt as their attorney: This examinant fays, that the profits of any fuch bufinefs fo recommended by this examinant to the faid Thomas Pellatt were to be received by the faid Thomas Pellatt folely, and for his ufe: This examinant fays, that he this examinant did recommend feveral of this examinant's friends to employ the faid Thomas Pellatt as an attorney, at the fame time mentioning this examinant's incapacity to act as an attorney, he this examinant not being admitted in order to retain them, and that this examinant might be employed by them when admitted, this examinant's clerkship being then nearly expired; and thereupon the faid Thomas Pellatt became the attorney to fuch perfons. To the fourth interrogatory this examinant answereth and faith, that he admits that a number (but what number this examinant cannot recollect) of printed cards, fimilar to the printed card produced and fhewn to this examinant at the time of his examination, were printed by the direction of this examinant, and fome few of them difperfed to this examinant's friends, but that the greater part of fuch printed cards now remain in this examinant's poffeffion, he this examinant having forbore to deliver the fame, being informed by the faid James Read that he had done wrong: This examinant fays, that fuch cards were not printed and difperfed for the purpofe of notifying, circulating, or fuggesting that this examinant had become and was, or that he this examinant was duly qualified to appear, and be, and to act as an attorney and folicitor; but that this examinant's aminant's reason and purpose for putting his name as an attorney at law on such cards was, that the preparing and executing conveyances, which this examinant had the leave and permission of the said James Read to do, and to receive the profits thereof towards the payment of a sum of money due from the said James Read to this examinant as aforesaid, was in general understood by this examinant's friends and the inhabitants in general to be the business of an attorney only, and that this examinant might not be considered as disqualified to transact such conveyancing business: This examinant admits that he this examinant did acknowledge to several persons that the same was this examinant's card; and this examinant says, that to the best of this examinant's remembrance he this examinant was asked by Mr. John Smerdon and Mr. William J'Anson, or one of them, on or about the fifteenth day of April 1791, whether he this examinant was admitted to be or act as an attorney, or to that or the like effect; this examinant believes that he this examinant did reply, acknowledge, aver, and declare to the said Mr. John Smerdon and Mr. William J'Anson, or one of them, at the time last above-mentioned, that he this examinant was not an attorney; but this examinant having about that time met the said John Smerdon (as clerk to John Simmons), and the said William J'Anson concerning the execution of an assignment in which this examinant, as also the said John Simmons and William J'Anson were concerned, he this examinant, in respect of that business, on signing this examinant's name, being requested by the said William J'Anson and John Smerdon, or one of them, to add attorney or clerk to the said James Read thereto, this examinant refused, knowing the intentions of the said William J'Anson and John Smerdon to entangle this examinant in the committing an offence by adding attorney to this examinant's name, and did to the best of this examinant's recollection then declare, that he this examinant was not concerned therein as an attorney or an attorney's clerk; and this examinant believes that he this examinant did thereupon inform the said John Smerdon and William J'Anson, or one of them, that in respect of a judgment affecting the premises mentioned in the said assignment which the said William J'Anson requested on the behalf of the purchasers of the premises, for whom the said William J'Anson was concerned, might be discharged, he this examinant did inform them, or one of them, in order to prevent any objection concerning such judgment, and to prevent the delay of the execution of such assignment, that this examinant would find means that such judgment should be discharged; but to the best of this examinant's recollection and belief, he this examinant did not say that he this examinant would find means to practice as an attorney otherwise than that such judgment should be discharged as aforesaid; but this examinant says, that some altercation having taken place between this examinant and the said William J'Anson, he this examinant was provoked to say that he this examinant had a right to assume any character he this examinant pleased, as well as he (meaning

(meaning the said William J'Anson, and alluding to the said William J'Anson's having, as this examinant understood, acted a certain character in a play in the barracks at Chatham). To the fifth interrogatory this examinant answereth and saith, that he this examinant did not, to the best of this examinant's remembrance and belief, ever, upon any occasion, or for any purpose whatsoever, represent, declare, or insinuate to the said Samuel Sherwood, or to any other person or persons whatsoever, that he this examinant had been employed by, or acted for divers persons in divers suits and businesses, except business and matters of conveyancing, and recommending such friends to employ the said Thomas Pellatt as their attorney: This examinant did not represent, declare, or insinuate to the said Samuel Sherwood, or to any other person whatsoever, to the best of this examinant's remembrance or belief, that he this examinant had been so employed by one Jacob Cazeneuve Troy of Chatham aforesaid, wine merchant, except as aforesaid; and this examinant denies that he this examinant was ever at any time, or in any manner whatsoever on his this examinant's own account, except as aforesaid employed by, or did he this examinant ever, or in any manner act for the said Jacob Cazeneuve Troy, or for any other person or persons whatsoever in or about, or touching or concerning any suits or businesses, excepting the recommending the said Jacob Cazeneuve Troy and other persons to employ the said Thomas Pellatt as their attorney, and also except the conveyancing business as aforesaid, and as herein after mentioned; this examinant was not employed by, nor did he this examinant act for the said Jacob Cazeneuve Troy, in or about the recovery of any debt or sum of money due to the said Jacob Cazeneuve Troy from the said John Barney, of Hoo in the said county of Kent, nor from any other person or persons whatsoever, except by recommending the said Thomas Pellatt to be employed by the said Jacob Cazeneuve Troy, as his attorney, and whom the said Jacob Cazeneuve Troy before knew, except as hereinafter mentioned: This examinant says, that the said Jacob Cazeneuve Troy did apply to this examinant to commence an action against the said John Barney for the recovery of a debt, when this examinant informed the said Jacob Cazeneuve Troy, as this examinant had before done, that this examinant was not in a capacity to do so, and recommended the said Thomas Pellatt as aforesaid; but this examinant denies that the said Jacob Cazeneuve Troy did give this examinant any authority, directions, or instructions to sub, or in any other manner whatsoever to act towards or respecting the said John Barney, otherwise than as aforesaid; and as hereinafter mentioned; the said John Barney was sued by the said Thomas Pellatt for the recovery of a debt or sum of money due to the said Jacob Cazeneuve Troy, and as he this examinant has been informed and believes, a writ of latitas or some other process did issue from this honourable court against the said John Barney, at the suit of the said Jacob Cazeneuve Troy, and that the said writ was bailable: This examinant says, that on the application of the said Jacob Cazeneuve Troy to this examinant to recover the said debt, he this examinant wrote a letter to the said Thomas Pellatt, informing him of such application, and requesting his attendance on the said Jacob Cazeneuve Troy, and to receive instructions, and to do what was necessary for the recovery of the said debt, when this examinant received a letter from the clerk, or person who transacted the business of the said Thomas Pellatt in his absence, informing this examinant that the said Thomas Pellatt was at Ramsgate, or he would have attended, and requesting this examinant to prepare an affidavit of the debt for the said Thomas Pellatt, and to desire the said Jacob Cazeneuve Troy to swear to the same before a commissioner, which said affidavit he this examinant did accordingly prepare, and left the same with the said Jacob Cazeneuve Troy, informing him of the reason why the said Thomas Pellatt did not attend, and that it was necessary he should swear to the same as aforesaid, which said affidavit the said Jacob Cazeneuve Troy returned to this examinant sworn, and which this examinant sent to the clerk of the said Thomas Pellatt as aforesaid, and that thereupon such writ or process did issue: This examinant has been informed, and believes that the said John Barney was arrested and held to bail for the said debt; the sheriff's warrant for that purpose was sent to this examinant, and this examinant did receive the same by letter from the said clerk of the said Thomas Pellatt, and thereupon he this examinant did give the same to Edmund Baker, a bailiff or officer of the sheriff of Kent, at the same time producing to such officer the letter enclosing the said warrant, and informing him how this examinant became possessed of the same, and desired him to execute the same for the said Thomas Pellatt: This examinant says, that the said action against the said John Barney, at the suit of the said Jacob Cazeneuve Troy, is not now subsisting and depending, but that sometime in November last the same was accommodated and settled by the said Thomas Pellatt and Edmund Baker in this examinant's presence, and that the said Thomas Pellatt informed the said said Jacob Cazeneuve Troy that he had received from the said Edmund Baker a cheque on the bank for a sum of money in which the debt and costs of the action against the said John Barney were included, and that being then in a hurry to leave Chatham he would leave the amount of the debt in the hands of this examinant if the said Jacob Cazeneuve Troy approved of the same, which the said Jacob Cazeneuve Troy did; and that he this examinant on the same day did pay the amount of the said debt to the said Jacob Cazeneuve Troy, and took a receipt for the said Thomas Pellatt for the same; but this examinant positively denies that he this examinant did derive any benefit or advantage whatsoever to himself from the proceedings which had been taken against the said John Barney touching or concerning the said debt. To the sixth interrogatory this examinant answereth and saith, that the said Thomas Pellatt, who is an attorney of this honourable court, was not ever employed by or for this examinant in or about the instituting, prosecuting, or defending any actions or suits whatsoever, at law or in equity, nor did he this examinant ever, or at any time instruct or direct, or cause, or procure, or prevail on the said Thomas Pellatt to commence, prosecute, or defend any actions or suits at law or in equity whatsoever, otherwise than by recommending the said Thomas Pellatt to several of this examinant's friends to act as their attorney till such time as this examinant should be admitted, and in sending proper instructions to the said Thomas Pellatt, to enable the said Thomas Pellatt to commence any actions on behalf of this examinant's said friends, and all the costs and charges of any such actions and suits, if received by this examinant (the amount of which he this examinant cannot particularly recollect and set forth) he this examinant always paid or remitted to the said T. Pellatt: This examinant denies that he this examinant did ever receive any emolument or profit whatsoever from any business transacted by the said Thomas Pellatt through the recommendation of this examinant, and this examinant has not received, nor does he expect to receive any sum or sums of money from the said Thomas Pellatt in respect thereof, save and except such sums of money as he this examinant had been out of pocket, and actually paid on the account of the said Thomas Pellatt in such business. To the seventh interrogatory this examinant answereth and saith, that he this examinant, being employed in preparing an assignment in which the said William J. Anson and John Simmons were concerned, and the time allowed for the execution of the same being nearly expired, and a judgment affecting the said premises obtained in this honourable court by Simmons against Colvill, the then or late owner thereof, being requested by the said William J. Anson to be discharged, he this examinant, to prevent any suit at law or in equity arising concerning the said judgment, or the execution of the said assignment, the said William J. Anson informing this examinant, that if this examinant would sign an undertaking, that satisfaction should be entered on the said judgment within one month from the date thereof, according to the warrant of attorney executed by the said John Simmons for that purpose, the said William J. Anson would be satisfied, and admit the execution of such assignment on the behalf of the purchaser who did thereupon write and sign the paper writing now produced and shewn to this examinant at the time of the examination of him this examinant, and that afterwards this examinant did send to the said Thomas Pellatt such warrant executed by the said John Simmons as aforesaid, together with an authority from the said Edward Colvill, directed to and empowering the said Thomas Pellatt to follow the directions of such warrant, and to enter and acknowledge satisfaction on such judgment as aforesaid: That such warrant of attorney was prepared by this examinant at the request of the said Edward Colvill, John Hooker, and John Leith, or some or one of them, who were concerned in the assignment of such premises, and that such warrant of attorney, at the solicitation of this examinant, was executed

cuted by the said John Simmons, and this examinant believes that this examinant and John Smerdon the clerk of the said John Simmons attested the execution thereof: This examinant did receive the sum of fifteen shillings for the preparing and attending the execution of such warrant of attorney, as also fifteen shillings for the preparing and attending the execution of a certain other warrant of attorney, executed by the said John Simmons, for the purpose of entering such satisfaction as aforesaid, but which proved, as this examinant was informed, insufficient for the purpose: This examinant did charge in a certain bill in which such warrants were charged the sum of one pound and nineteen shillings, or thereabouts, as money paid by this examinant to the said Thomas Pellatt, on account of the said Edward Colvill, for entering and acknowledging satisfaction upon record on such judgment as aforesaid: This examinant did, to the best of this examinant's remembrance and belief, on or about the twenty-seventh day of M. 1791, mark on a certain bill made out by this examinant on the said J. H. and John Leith for the preparing such assignment, and for the money paid by this examinant to the said Thomas Pellatt as aforesaid, the date and initials of this examinant's name on being paid by the said John Leith a moiety of the amount of such bill, and no other. [These are all the parts of the answer material for the the form].

R. executor thereof, and afterwards there died, the debt and damages aforesaid, or any part thereof, not being satisfied; and although the said judgment was rendered in form aforesaid, yet execution for the debt and damages aforesaid doth yet remain to be made, as on the behalf of the said William in his majesty's said court his said majesty hath received information; whereupon the said W. prayeth his said majesty to grant him a fit remedy in this behalf, and his said majesty being willing that those things which are rightly acted in his said majesty's said court should be put in execution, therefore his said majesty commanded the sheriff of the said county of B. that by honest and lawful men of his bailiwick he should make known to the said C. that he should be before his said majesty's justices at Westminster on to shew if he had or knew any thing to say for himself why the said W. ought not to have execution against the said G. for the debt and damages aforesaid, according to the form and effect of the said recovery, if it should seem meet for him so to do; and now here at this day the said W. cometh here by G. C. her attorney, and offered herself the fourth day against the said G. of the plea aforesaid, &c. and the said G. although solemnly called, doth not come, and the sheriff, namely, A. B. esquire, now returneth that the said G. P. hath not any thing in his bailiwick by which he can cause him to know as by the said writ is commanded him, nor is he to be found in the same; and hereupon the said W. brings here in court as well the letters testamentary of the said James as the letters testamentary of the said M. whereby it sufficiently appears to the said court here that the same W. is executor of the said will of the said M. and thereof hath administration, &c. and that she the said M. was executrix of the will of the said J. and thereof had the administration, &c.; and the said W. prays execution against the said G. for the debt and damages aforesaid recovered in form aforesaid to be adjudged to him, &c.; therefore it is considered that the said W. have execution against the said G. for the debt and damages aforesaid by the default of the said G. &c.

Judgment on withdrawing a plea in ejectment against a real defendant. AT which day, as well the said A. as the said C. by K. B. his attorney, come before our said lord the king at Westminster, and the sheriff of the county did not return the said writ, nor did he do any thing thereupon, and upon this the said C. relinquishing his plea by him above pleaded, says that he cannot deny the action of the said A. nor but that he is guilty of the trespass and ejectment aforesaid in manner and form as the said A. hath above complained against him; nor but that he the said A. hath sustained damages by reason of the said trespass and ejectment to one shilling, and thereupon the said A. prays that as well the possession of the said term yet to come of and in the tenement aforesaid, with the appurtenances, as also the damages so acknowledged, together with the costs and charges laid out by him about his suit in this behalf may be adjudged to him; therefore it is considered, that the said A. recover against the said C. his said term yet to come of and in the tenement aforesaid, with the appurtenances; and thereupon the sheriff of the said county is commanded that without delay he cause the said A. to have his possession of his said term yet to come of and in the tenement aforesaid, with, &c. and in what manner he shall execute that precept he make appear to our said lord the king at Westminster on next after ; the same day is given to the said A. there, &c.; and it is also considered that the said A. recover

W. his attorney before our lord the king at Westminster, and the sheriff of the county did not return that writ, nor did he do any thing thereupon; and upon this the said B. relinquishing his several pleas by him above pleaded, saith, he cannot deny the action of the said A. nor but that he the said B. did promise and undertake in manner and form as the said A. hath above complained against him; therefore it is considered that the said A. ought to recover against the said B. his damages sustained by reason of the not performing the promises and undertakings before mentioned; but because, &c. as in a common judgment by nil dicit.

C. late of the University of Oxford, in the county of Oxford, clerk, as well a debt of four hundred pounds as fifty shillings which in the same court were adjudged to the said J. for his damages which he had sustained by reason of the detaining the said debt, whereof is convicted, as by the record and proceedings thereof now remaining in his said majesty's said court before his said majesty's justices justices at W. aforesaid manifestly appears: And whereupon the said J. after the said judgment was in form aforesaid recovered, at R. in the county of B. aforesaid, made his last will and testament in writing, and thereof did appoint and ordain M. his wife, since deceased, sole executrix, and afterwards died (the debt and damages aforesaid, or any part thereof, being not satisfied), after whose death said M. took upon herself the, &c. of the will of the said J. &c. proved the same in due form of law, and afterwards the said M. there made her last will and testament in writing, and by the same constituted W. C. her attorney, and offered herself the fourth day against the said G. of the plea aforesaid, &c. and the said G. although solemnly called, doth not come, and the sheriff, namely, A. B. esquire, now returneth that the said G. And the aforeaid J. S. esquire, now returns here a certain inquisition taken before him at , in the said county of Middlesex, on the day of , in the year of, &c. the now king, by the oath of twelve good and lawful men of his bailiwick, by which it is found that the said M. and J. have sustained damages by reason of the premises, besides their costs and charges by them laid out about their suit in this behalf, to two hundred and four pounds fifteen shillings, and for those costs and charges to twenty shillings; and thereupon the said J. gives the court here to understand and be informed that the said M. since the last continuance of the plea aforesaid, and before this day, to wit, on the , in the ninth year, &c. at Westminster aforesaid died; wherefore it is considered by the court here that there be no further proceedings in this plea at the suit of the same M. and thereupon the said J. prays judgment of and upon the premises aforesaid; it is therefore considered in and by the court here that the said J. do recover against the said R. the damages aforesaid, by the inquisition aforesaid in form aforesaid found to two hundred and five pounds five shillings, and also nine pounds fifteen shillings awarded to the said J. and with his assent by the court here for the costs and charges aforesaid by way of increase, which said damages amount in the whole to two hundred and fifteen pounds; and the said R. is in mercy, &c.

Charles,

Charles, although solemnly demanded in open court to appear and bring forth the said record, cometh not, nor bringeth forth the same, but therein wholly maketh default; and thereupon the said James gives the court here to understand and be informed that the said M. since the last continuance of the plea aforesaid, and before this day, to wit, on _____, in the ninth year, &c. at Westminster aforesaid died; wherefore it is considered by the court here that there be no further proceedings in this plea at the suit of the said M. and thereupon the said James prays judgment of and upon the premises aforesaid; wherefore it is considered by the said court of our said lord the king now here that the said James ought to recover against the said C. his damages sustained by reason of the premises; but because the said court of our said lord the king now here doth not know what damages the said James hath in this behalf sustained, therefore the sheriff of the said county of Middlesex is commanded that by the oath of twelve honest and lawful men of his bailiwick he diligently enquire what damages the said James hath sustained, as well by reason of the said Charles not performing the several promises and undertakings aforesaid as for his costs and charges laid out by him about his suit in this behalf; and that the said sheriff should cause the inquisition which he should take thereon to be before his majesty on the morrow, &c. wheresoever his said majesty should then be in England, under his seal and the seals of those by whose oaths he should take such inquisition; at which day, before our said lord the king at Westminster, cometh the said J. by his attorney aforesaid, and the said sheriff, namely, _____ esquire, and _____ esquire, now returns a certain inquisition taken before him at _____, the, &c. at Westminster, in the said county, on the, &c. in the ninth year, &c. by the oaths of twelve good and lawful men of his bailiwick, by which it is found that the said James hath sustained damages by reason of the premises, besides his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf laid out to _____ pounds, and for those costs and charges to twenty-one shillings; therefore it is considered that the said James recover against the said Charles his damages aforesaid to _____ pounds, by the inquisition aforesaid in form aforesaid found, and also _____ pounds adjudged by the court here to the said James at his own request for increase of his said costs and charges, which said damages amount in the whole to _____ pounds; and the aforesaid, &c. in mercy, &c.

maintaining her aforesaid action thereof against them the said John and Sarah; because as to the said plea of the said J. and Sarah above pleaded, the said Mary says, that on the day of exhibiting of the said Mary, to wit, on the sixth day of November, in the year of Our Lord 1798, the said Sarah had besides, and above the goods and chattels aforesaid, to the value of the said five pounds, divers goods and chattels which belonged to the said William Rose deceased, at the time of his death, in the hands of the said Sarah to be administered, to the value of the residue of the said debt above demanded, whereby the said Sarah might have satisfied the said Mary thereof, to wit, at London aforesaid, in the parish and ward aforesaid; and this the said Mary prays may be enquired of by the country; and the said John and Sarah do so likewise, &c.; and because it is convenient that there be but one taxation of damages in this behalf if judgment should be given for the said Mary for the residue of the said debt above demanded, therefore let the taxation of damages for the non-payment of the said five pounds which the said John and Sarah acknowledge to be in the hands of the said Sarah, stay until the issue aforesaid between the parties aforesaid above joined be tried and determined; and to try that issue let a jury come before the lord the king at Westminster, on next after , and who neither, &c. to recognize, &c. because as well, &c. the same day is given to the parties aforesaid there, &c.

Acceptance and satisfaction entered on record on payment of money into court.

Before the Mayor and Aldermen, in the chamber of the Guildhall, in the city of London.

SAMUEL Bowring and Samuel Triste, by William Nash their attorney, demand of Rossiter Hoyle, surviving partner of John Small, deceased, two hundred and thirty-four pounds three shillings and elevenpence of lawful money of Great Britain, which he owes to and unjustly detains from the said plaintiffs; for that whereas on the first of October in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of his present majesty king George the Third, at the parish of St. Helen, London, for and in consideration of divers sums of money before that time due and owing from the said Rossiter Hoyle and John Small to the said plaintiffs in the lifetime of the said John Small, and then in arrear and unpaid to the said Rossiter Hoyle and John Small, granted and agreed to pay to the said plaintiffs the said sum of two hundred and thirty-four pounds three shillings and elevenpence where and when the said R. Hoyle and J. Small should be be thereunto requested ; yet the said R. H. (the now defendant) and J. Small, or either of them, in the lifetime of the said J. Small, nor the said now defendant since the death of the said John Small, (although often required) have not, nor hath either of them paid the said two hundred and thirty-four pounds three shillings and elevenpence, or any part thereof, to the said plaintiffs or either of them, to the damage of the said plaintiffs of twenty shillings, and therefore they bring their suit, &c. Pledges, &c.

And the said plaintiffs by their said attorney pray process according to the custom, &c. and it is granted, &c. and thereupon it is commanded by the court to Leslocke Peacock, one of the serjeants at mace of the said court, that he, according to the custom of the said city, summon by good summoners the said defendant to appear here in this court to answer the said plaintiffs in the plea aforesaid, and that he return and certify what, &c. ; and afterwards, to wit, at the same court, the said serjeant at mace returned and certified to the said court according to the custom, &c. that the said defendant had nothing within the said city or the liberties thereof, whereby he can be summoned, nor was to be found within the same, and at the same court the said defendant was solemnly called, and did not appear, but made default ; and now at this same court it is alleged by the said plaintiffs, by their said attorney, that Samuel Chollett owes to the said Rossiter Hoyle, surviving partner of J. Small, deceased, two hundred and thirty-four pounds three shillings and elevenpence, in monies numbered, as the proper monies of the said defendant, and now has and detains the same in his hands and custody ; and therefore the said plaintiffs by their said attorney pray process, according to the custom, &c. to attach the said defendant by the said two hundred and thirty-four pounds three shillings and elevenpence, so being in the hands and custody of the said Samuel Chollett as aforesaid, so that the defendant may appear in this court here to be holden, &c. to answer the said plaintiffs in the plea aforesaid, whereupon it is commanded by the court to the said serjeant at mace, that he, according to the custom, &c. attach the said defendant by the said two hundred and thirty-four pounds three shillings and elevenpence so being in the hands and custody of the said Samuel Chollett as aforesaid, and the same in his hands and custody defend and keep, so that the said defendant may appear in this court here to be holden, &c. to answer the said plaintiffs in the plea aforesaid, and that the said serjeant at mace return, &c. ; and afterwards, to wit, at a court holden, &c. on Friday the sixth day of November aforesaid, the said plaintiffs, by their said attorney, appear, and the said serjeant at mace returned and certified to the same court that he by virtue of the said precept, on the fifth day of November, between the hours of four and five in the afternoon, had attached the said defendant by the said two hundred and thirty-four pounds three shillings and elevenpence so being in the hands and custody of the said Samuel Chollett, and the same defended, &c. according to the custom, &c. so that the said defendant might appear to this court to answer the said plaintiffs in the plea aforesaid; and thereupon the said defendant at the same court was solemnly called and did not appear, but made a first default, which said first default at the same court is recorded, according to the custom, &c. and a further day is given by the court to the said defendant to appear at the next court, to be holden, &c. on Saturday the seventh day of November, at which said next court, holden, &c. the said plaintiffs, by their said attorney, appear and offer themselves against the said defendant in the plea aforesaid, and thereupon at the same court the said defendant was again solemnly called and did not appear, but made a second default, which said second default is recorded, &c. [a third and fourth default similar on the ninth and tenth of Nov.] which said fourth default is recorded, &c. ; and thereupon after the said four defaults recorded by the court against the said defendant in the plea aforesaid, according to the custom, &c. the said plaintiffs, by their said attorney, pray process, according to the custom, &c. to warn the said Samuel Chollett, the garnishee, to be and appear in this court to shew cause, &c. ; whereupon at the same court holden, &c. it is commanded by the same court to the said serjeant at mace, that he, according to the custom of the city, warn and make known to the said garnishee to be and appear in this court to be holden, &c. on Wednesday the eleventh day of November aforesaid, to shew cause, &c. why the said plaintiffs ought not to have execution of the said two hundred and thirty four pounds three shillings and elevenpence, so attached in his hands and custody as aforesaid, and that the said serjeant at mace return and certify at the same court what, &c. the same day is given by the said court to the said plaintiffs to be there, &c. ; at which said court, holden, &c. the said plaintiffs, by their said attorney, appear, and the said serjeant at mace hath returned and certified to the said court that he, by virtue of the said precept to him directed, and according to the custom, &c. had warned and made known to the said garnishee to be and appear at this same court to shew cause, &c. as above commanded; and thereupon, at this same court the said garnishee was solemnly called, and appears, and appoints in his stead Thomas Emerson his attorney.

Before the Mayor and Aldermen in the chamber of the Guildhall of the city of London.

AND the said Samuel Chollett the garnishee, by Thomas Emerson his attorney, on the twenty-third day of November, in the year above said, comes and says that the said plaintiff ought not to have execution against him of the said two hundred and thirty-four pounds three shillings and elevenpence in monies numbered, so attached as aforesaid, or of any part thereof, because he says that at the time of the making the said attachment or at any time since, he had not owed to or detained from, or yet has

has, owes to, or detains from the said Rossiter Hoyle, surviving partner of the said John Small deceased, the defendant named in the bill, original, and attachment aforesaid, the said two hundred and thirty-four pounds three shillings and elevenpence, or any part thereof in manner and form as the said plaintiffs by their bill, original, and attachment aforesaid have above supposed; and of this he puts himself upon the country, &c. And for a further plea in this behalf the said Samuel Chollett by leave of the court here to him for that purpose granted according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided says, that the said plaintiffs ought not to have execution against him of the said two hundred and thirty-four pounds three shillings and elevenpence so attached as aforesaid, or of any part thereof, because he says that the said plaintiff heretofore, to wit, on the sixth day of August, in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of his present majesty, at a court then holden before the mayor and alderman of the city of London, in the chamber of the Guildhall of the city of London, according to the custom of the said city, affirmed their certain bill original against the said Rossiter Hoyle, as such surviving partner of the said John Small deceased, in a plea of debt upon demand for two hundred and thirty-four pounds three shillings and elevenpence, and then and there found pledges to prosecute the said bill original, and such proceedings were thereupon had in the said court before the said mayor and alderman of the said city in the chamber aforesaid, according to the custom of the said city, at the prayer of the said plaintiffs; that the said Samuel Chollett was duly warned according to the custom aforesaid to be and appear at a court to be holden before the said mayor and alderman on Wednesday the eleventh day of November, in the year aforesaid, to shew cause why the said plaintiffs ought not to have execution of the sum of two hundred and thirty-four pounds three shillings and elevenpence attached in his hands and custody as the proper monies of the said Rossiter Hoyle, as such surviving partner as aforesaid, upon and by virtue of the bill original in this plea mentioned: And the said Samuel Chollett further says, that having duly appeared at the said last-mentioned court as garnishee upon the bill, original, and attachment aforesaid, he the said Samuel Chollett, on the third day of October now last past pleaded, that at the time of the making the said attachment, or at any time since, he had not owed to or detained from the said Rossiter Hoyle, as such surviving partner as aforesaid the said sum of two hundred and thirty-four pounds three shillings and elevenpence, or any part thereof, and that the said plaintiffs having joined issue upon the said plea, such proceedings were thereupon duly had in the said court, according to the custom of the said city, that issue so joined afterwards, to wit, on Wednesday the fourth day of November now last past at a court then holden before the mayor and alderman of the said city of London, in the chamber of the Guildhall of the said city, came on to be and was tried by a jury duly impanelled and sworn for that purpose, who upon their oaths found a verdict for the said Samuel

Samuel Chollett upon the said issue, whereupon it was considered by the court there that the said plaintiffs should take nothing by their bill, original, and attachment as aforesaid, but that the said Samuel Chollett should go acquitted thereof without day, &c. as by the record of the proceedings aforesaid still remaining in the said court in full force and effect may more fully appear: And the said Samuel Chollett further says, that since the time of his having so pleaded as aforesaid no monies whatsoever have come to his hands or custody, the property of the said Rossiter Hoyle, as such surviving partner as aforesaid; and this he is ready to verify; wherefore he prays judgment if the said plaintiffs ought to have execution against him of the said two hundred and thirty-four pounds three shillings and elevenpence so attached as aforesaid, or any part thereof: And for a further plea in this behalf the said Samuel Chollett by like leave of the court here to him for this purpose granted according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided says, that the said plaintiffs ought not to have execution against him of the said two hundred and thirty-four pounds three shillings and elevenpence so attached as aforesaid, or of any part thereof, because he says, that before the making of the said attachment, to wit, on the fifth of November in the thirtieth year of the reign of his present majesty, between the hours of eight and nine in the forenoon of the same day, the said R. H. by the name of R. H. surviving partner of John Small, deceased, at a court then holden before the mayor and aldermen of the city of L. in the chamber of the Guildhall of the city of London, according to the custom of the said city, affirmed a certain bill original against the said Samuel Chollett, at the suit of him the said R. H. in a plea of trespass upon the case to his damage of three thousand pounds of lawful money of Great Britain, and then and there found pledges to prosecute his said bill original, that is to say, John Doe and Richard Roe: And the said Samuel Chollett further says, that the said sum of two hundred and thirty-four pounds three shillings and elevenpence so attached as aforesaid, in part of the said sum of three thousand pounds, for which the said bill original was affirmed against him at the suit of the said R. Hoyle as aforesaid; and this he is ready to verify; wherefore he prays judgment if the said plaintiff ought to have execution against him of the said two hundred and thirty-four pounds three shillings and elevenpence so attached in his hands and custody as aforesaid, or any part thereof.

stated and set forth are not sufficient in law for the said William to have his aforesaid action thereof maintained against him, and that he the said Robert is not under any necessity nor in anywise bound by the law of the land to answer the same; and this he is ready to verify; wherefore for want of a sufficient declaration in this behalf he prays judgment, and that the said William may be barred from having his aforesaid action thereof maintained against him; and for causes of demurrer in law the said Robert, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, sets down and shews to the court here the causes following, that is to say, for that although the said declaration is intituled generally of Hilary term in the thirtieth year of the reign of his present majesty, which refers and relates to the first day of that term, being the twenty-third day of January in the same year, yet the several trespasses in the said declaration mentioned are thereby alledged to have been committed on the tenth day of February in that year, which is subsequent to the said time of the exhibiting of the declaration of the said William against the said Robert, and for that it appears by the said declaration that the pretended cause of action therein specified had not, nor had either of them accrued to the said William at the time of the exhibiting of his said bill in manner aforesaid, and also for that the said declaration is in various other respects uncertain, defective, and informal, &c.

FISHER, ADMINISTRATRIX. } AND for causes of demurrer in law according to the form of the statute, &c. the said Thomas sets down and shews to the court here the causes following, that is to say, for that although the said Ann has brought this action as administratrix of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits which were of the said John Fisher, deceased, at the time of his death, yet she has not in or by her said declaration alledged that the said John Fisher died intestate, or shewn under what other circumstances administration thereof was granted to her, and for that it is not in or by the said declaration alledged or shewn by whom such administration was committed to the said Ann, or that the same was committed to her by any person having authority so to do; and for that it is not stated at what time or at what place such administration was granted; and also for that the said declaration is in various other respects uncertain, insufficient, and informal, &c.

The declaration in this cause is certainly objectionable on at least one of the grounds pointed out by the demurrer; if the plaintiff should get a judge's order to amend, the defendant must plead de novo within two days after the making of the amendments and payments of costs.

GEORGE WILSON } AND the said G. by A.B. his attorney,

ROBERT WILSON. } when, &c. and says, that the said declaration aforesaid, and the matters therein contained, in manner and form as the same are above stated and set forth, are not sufficient in law for the said Robert to have his aforesaid action thereof maintained against him, and that he the said George is not under any necessity, nor in any wise bound by the law of the land to answer the same; and this he is ready to verify; wherefore for want of a sufficient declaration in this behalf he prays judgment, and that the said Robert may be barred from having his aforesaid action thereof maintained against him: And for causes of demurrer in law, the said George, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, sets down and shews to the court here the causes following, that is to say, for that although the said Robert hath declared against the said George, as being in the custody of the sheriff of the county of Middlesex, yet the said Robert hath not by his said declaration shewn by virtue of what writ or process the said George was in the custody of the said sheriff as he ought to have done, neither doth it by the said declaration appear out of what court or at whose suit such writ or process issued; and also for that the said declaration is in various other respects uncertain, insufficient, and informal, &c.

Demurrer, for that declaration alleges defend-ant to be in cus-tody of the she-riff of Middlesex, but does not shew by virtue of what writ or process as he ought to have done.

The case of Williams against Wilks, 2. Will. 119 is a direct authority in sup-port of the demurrer, though I should think it clearly maintainable upon the statute 4. & 5. W. & M. c. 21. inde-pendently of any authority.

LONDON, to wit. William Cook puts in his place Samuel Fosket his attorney against Joseph Irish, as executor of the last will and testament of John Irish, deceased, in a plea of trespass upon the case.

Warrants for plaintiff.

London, to wit. The said Joseph Irish puts in his place James Newland his attorney, at the suit of the said William in the plea aforesaid.

For defendant.

London, to wit. Be it remembered that in Easter term last past, before our lord the king at Westminster, came William Cook, by Samuel Fosket his attorney, and brought in the court of our said lord the king then there his bill against Joseph Irish, executor of the last will and testament of John Irish, deceased, being in the custody of the marshal of the lord the king, before the king himself, of a plea of trespass on the case; and there are pledges for the prosecution, to wit, John Doe and Richard Roe, which said bill follows in these words, to wit. London, to wit: Wil-

Memorandum.

William Cook complains against Joseph Irish, executor of the last will and testament of John Irish, deceased, being in the custody of the marshal of the Marshalsea of our lord the now king, before the king himself; for that whereas the said John Irish in his lifetime, &c. &c. [Several counts on an indebitatus assumpsit, by the testator in his lifetime to the plaintiff, and breach in non-payment of the money, either by the testator or by the defendant after his death as his executor.]

Plea after imparlance, protesting that John J. did not promise, &c. that he defendant was never executor.

And now at this day, that is to say, on Saturday next after eight days of St. Hilary in this same term, until which day the said Joseph had leave to imparl to the said bill, and then to answer the same, &c. as well the said William by his said attorney as the said Joseph by James Newland his attorney, do came before our lord the king at Westminster, and the said Joseph defends the wrong and injury when, &c. and says that the said William ought not to have or maintain his aforesaid action against him the said Joseph; because protesting that the said John J. deceased, in his lifetime, did not make any such will or testament; nevertheless for plea in this behalf the said Joseph saith that he was not nor is executor of the last will and testament of the said John J. deceased, nor ever administered any goods or chattels which were of the said John J. deceased at the time of his death, as executor of the will of the said John J. deceased, after the death of the said John J. deceased, and this the said Joseph is ready to verify; wherefore he prays judgment if the said William ought to have or maintain his aforesaid action thereof against him.

H. RUSSEL.

Replication, and issue,

And the said William says, that he by reason of any thing by the said Joseph in his said plea above alledged, ought not to be barred from having his aforesaid action thereof maintained against the said Joseph; because he the said William says, that the said Joseph, as executor of the last will and testament of the said John J. after the death of the said John J. did administer divers goods and chattels which were of the said John J. at the time of his death, to wit, at L. in the parish and ward aforesaid; and this the said William prays may be enquired of by the country, and the said Joseph doth the like; therefore let a jury come before our lord the king at Westminster on Wednesday next after from the day of Easter, by whom, &c. who neither, &c. to recognize, &c. because as well, &c. the same day is given to the said parties there, &c.

Continuance.

Afterwards the process being continued between the parties aforesaid of the plea aforesaid, by the jury between them being respited before our lord the king at Westminster until Wednesday next after three weeks from the day of Easter, unless the king's right trusty and well-beloved Lloyd lord Kenyon, his majesty's chief justice to hold pleas before the king himself, shall first come on

on Tuesday, the twenty-seventh of April, at the Guildhall of the city of London, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided for default of the jurors, because none of them appear: And now at this day, that is to say, on the said Wednesday next after three weeks from the day of Easter before our said lord the king at Westminster, come the parties aforesaid by their attornies aforesaid, and the said chief justice, before whom the said issue was tried, sends him the record before him had in these words, to wit: Afterwards, that is to say, on the day and at the place Postea. within mentioned, before the right honourable Lloyd lord Kenyon, the chief justice within named, Roger Kenyon, esquire, being associated unto him according to the form of the statute, &c. come as well the within-named William Cook as the within-named J. by their respective attornies within written; and the jurors of the jury whereof mention is within made being impanelled and drawn by ballot, according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided and called over, come, and to speak the truth of the matters within contained being tried and sworn, on their oath say, that the within-named Joseph J. as executor of the last will and testament of the within-named John J. after the death of the said John J. did administer divers goods and chattels which were of the said John J. at the time of his death, in manner and form as the said William Cook hath within in replying alledged, and they assess the damages of the said William Cook on occasion of the within contents, besides his costs and charges by him expended about his suit in this behalf to eight pounds eight shillings, and for those costs and charges to forty shillings; therefore it is considered by the court here that the said William Cook recover against the said Joseph J. as such executor as aforesaid, the damages and costs by the jury in form assessed, and also pounds for his costs and charges by the said court here adjudged, of increase to the said William Cook with his assent, which said damages, costs, and charges, amount in the whole to pounds, to be levied of the goods and chattels which were of the said John J. deceased, at the time of his death in the hands of the said Joseph J. to be administered, if he hath so much thereof in his hands to be administered, and if he hath not so much thereof in his hands to be administered, then to be levied of the proper goods and chattels of the said Joseph J. and the said Joseph J. in mercy, &c.

Mercy.

If the plaintiff should have occasion to sue out execution, I think that it should not be in the common form, but that it should pursue the language of the judgment.

Michaelmas Term, 26. Geo. III.

LONDON, to wit. Catherine Symmonds puts in her place William Mills her attorney, against Hannah Woodward, executrix of the last will and testament of William Woodward her late husband, deceased, of a plea of trespass on the case. Warrants for plaintiff.
H h 3 London,

for defendant. London, to wit. The said Hannah Woodwardⁿ puts in her place John Barber her attorney, at the suit of the said Catherine of the plea aforesaid. London, to wit. Be it remembered that on Monday next after the morrow of All Souls in this same term, before our lord the king at Westminster, comes Catherine Symmonds, by W. M. her attorney, and brings into the court of the said lord the king, before king himself now here, her certain bill against Hannah W. executrix of the last will and testament of W. W. her late husband, deceased, being of a plea of trespass on the case; and there are pledges for the prosecution, to wit, J. D. and J. R. which said bill follows in these words, to wit, London, to wit. Catherine S. complains of H. W. executrix of the last will and testament of William W. her late husband, deceased, being, &c.; for that whereas the said William W. in his lifetime, to wit, on the first of December 1781, at L. aforesaid, in the parish, &c. was indebted to the said Catherine in the sum of one hundred and ninety-eight pounds fifteen shillings of lawful, &c. for divers goods, wares, and merchandizes by the said C. before that time sold and delivered to the said W. W. at his special instance and request, and being so indebted, he the said W. W. in his lifetime, in consideration thereof afterwards, to wit, on the same, &c. against, &c. [Second Count, for one hundred and ninety-eight pounds fifteen shillings for money lent by plaintiff to testator]; yet the said William W. in his lifetime, and the said Hannah, executrix as aforesaid since his death, not regarding the said several promises and undertakings so made by the said William W. in his lifetime as aforesaid, but contriving and fraudulently intending craftily and subtilly to deceive and defraud the said Catherine in this behalf, have not, nor hath either of them, although often requested, paid the said several sums of money or either of them, or any part thereof to the said C. but to pay the same or any part thereof to the said C. the said W. W. in his lifetime, and the said Hannah, executrix as aforesaid since his death, have, and each of them hath hitherto wholly refused, and the said H. executrix, still refuses, to the damage of the said C. of one hundred and ninety-eight pounds fifteen shillings, and therefore she brings suit, &c.

Plea, plene administravit.

And the said Hannah, by J. B. comes and defends the wrong and injury when, &c. and says that she cannot deny the said action of the said C. nor but that the said William W. in his lifetime, did undertake and promise in manner and form as the said C. hath above thereof complained against her, nor but that the said Catherine hath sustained damage by reason of the non-performance of his said promises and undertakings to one hundred and ninety-eight pounds fifteen shillings, as the said Catherine hath above in her declaration alledged; nevertheless the said Hannah saith that the said C. ought not to have or maintain her aforesaid action thereof against her to recover her said damages, except as to the goods goods and chattels which were of the said William W. at the time of his death to the value of fifty shillings; because she saith, that she has fully administered all and singular the goods and chattels which were of the said William W. at the time of his death, and which have ever come to the hands of her the said Hannah to be administered, except goods and chattels to the value of fifty shillings, and that she hath not, nor on the day of exhibiting the bill of the said C. nor at any time since had any goods or chattels which were of the said William W. at the time of his death in her hands to be administered, except the said goods and chattels to the value of fifty shillings aforesaid; and this the said Hannah is ready to verify; wherefore she prays judgment if the said C. ought to have or maintain her aforesaid action thereof against her to recover damages aforesaid, except as to the goods and chattels to the value of fifty shillings, &c.

And hereupon forasmuch as the said Hannah hath not denied the said action of the said Catherine, nor but that the said William W. in his lifetime did undertake and promise in manner and form as the said C. hath above thereof complained against her, nor but that the said C. hath sustained damages by reason of the non-performance of the said promises and undertakings in the said declaration mentioned to one hundred and ninety-eight pounds fifteen shillings, but hath admitted the same to be true, and hath above acknowledged that she hath goods and chattels which were of the said W. W. at the time of his death in her hands to be administered to the value of fifty shillings; and forasmuch as the said C. doth not deny but that the said Hannah hath not, nor on the day of the exhibiting of the bill of the said C. nor at any time since had any goods and chattels which were of the said W. W. at the time of his death in her hands to be administered, except the said goods and chattels to the value of fifty shillings as aforesaid, she said C. prays judgment and her damages aforesaid in form aforesaid acknowledged against the said Hannah, executrix as aforesaid, that is to say, fifty shillings, part thereof to be levied of the goods and chattels so remaining in the hands of the said Hannah to be administered as aforesaid, and the residue of the same damages to be levied of the goods and chattels which were of the said W. W. at the time of his death, and which shall hereafter come to the hands of the said Hannah to be administered, together with her costs and charges by her about her suit in this behalf expended, to be adjudged to her, &c.; therefore it is considered by the said court here that the said C. recover against the said Hannah her damages aforesaid to one hundred and ninety-eight pounds fifteen shillings in form aforesaid acknowledged, that is to say, fifty shillings parts thereof to be levied of the goods and chattels so remaining in her hands to be administered, and the residue of the said damages to be levied of the goods and chattels which were of the said W. W. at the time of his death, and which shall hereafter come to the hands of the said

Hannah to be administered, and also six pounds for her costs and charges by her about her suit in this behalf expended by the court of our said lord the king now here, adjudged to the said C. with her assent, to be levied of the goods and chattels which were of the said W. W. at the time of his death in the hands of the said Hannah to be administered, if she hath so much thereof in her hands to be administered, and if she hath not so much in her hands to be administered, then the said costs and charges to be levied of the proper goods and chattels of the said Hannah; and the said Hannah in mercy, &c.

S. MARRYAT.

The above judgment was confessed by the executrix pending an adverse action against her at the suit of a Mrs. Skutt, in order to give her a preference to the demand of the plaintiff Mrs. Woodward, by pleading her judgment to Skutt's action. The judgment was regularly docketed as for one hundred and ninety-eight pounds fifteen shillings damages, and six pounds costs, although the roll was not carried in but by a mistake of the serjeant, who drew the pleas to the adverse action, or of the attorney in filling up the blanks in the serjeant's draft it was pleaded as a judgment for six pounds only. The executrix having also pleaded the general issue to Skutt's action, he took judgment of future assets after satisfaction of the judgment pleaded, and having proceeded to trial on the general issue obtained a verdict thereon. In the year 1789, the executrix having possessed assets sufficient to satisfy the six pounds, and also the damages recovered by Skutt (though not sufficient for the one hundred and ninety-eight pounds fifteen shillings), Skutt brought a second action on the first recovery, suggesting a devastavit, until the which time the mistake in the plea had never been discovered, and it is therefore become a material question whether the consequence of such mistake to the executrix could then be obviated.

OPINION. With regard to entering the proceedings on the roll now, I do not see any particular purpose it is to answer, unless it be that of Mrs. Symmons's personal security against Mrs. Woodward; for I should think the entry in the book at the judgment office would be a sufficient document to authorize the court of common pleas to amend the pleadings in the action

at the suit of Mrs. Skutt, if they are disposed to allow of the amendment. I have, however, very little hopes of the court giving such indulgence as it seems from the report of the case of Robinson and Raley, 1. Burr. 316. and the quotation of it in 1. Term. Rep. 783, that the courts will not amend pleadings with all the acts of the parties themselves after trial. In the case of Boniface and Walker, 2. T. Rep. 126. an amendment was indeed allowed after verdict, but there it was done on occasion of the verdict being set aside. At any rate, the amendment here can be only on the terms of paying Skutt's costs at the time of pleading in the action at his suit, because he has proceeded to substantiate his demand by a trial, on account of there appearing upon the plea of this judgment to be a charge of only six pounds on the assets, and he probably would not have thought it worth his while to have been at the expence of the trial, had a prior judgment to the amount of above two hundred pounds been pleaded. The affidavits in support of the intended motion to amend should state if the facts are so, that Mrs. Symmons's is a bona fide debt, that her judgment was in fact signed for one hundred and ninety-eight pounds fifteen shillings, besides six pounds costs, and so entered in the books at the judgment office; that Woodward's effects are not sufficient to satisfy such judgment; that the substitution of the one sum for the other in the plea to the first action at the suit of Skutt, was a mistake of the attorney then concerned, who is since dead, insolvent, and that the mistake was not discovered until the delivery of the declaration in the present action, suggesting a devastavit.

B. their attorney, do challenge the array of the panel aforesaid, because they say, that the said Samuel lord bishop of Chester, the plaintiff is, and at the time of arraying the panel aforesaid, was one of the peers of the realm of Great Britain, having a voice and place in every parliament of Great Britain, and that the array of the panel aforesaid, was arrayed by R. D. esquire, sheriff of the county of Lancaster, no knight being named and returned on the same panel of the array aforesaid, as ought to have been done according to the law of the realm; and this they are ready to verify; wherefore they pray judgment and that the same panel may be quashed, &c.

And the said Samuel, bishop of Chester, by A. B. his attorney, saith, that the said challenge of the said defendants to the array of the panel aforesaid is not sufficient in law to quash the said array of the panel aforesaid; and that there is no necessity for him, nor is he obliged by the law of the land of this part of the kingdom of Great Britain called England, to answer to the said challenge in manner and form as it is above alledged; and this he is therein contained, are not sufficient in law to compel them the said defendants to answer thereto; and that no process upon the said indictment ought by the law be made against them the said defendants; and this they are ready to verify; wherefore they pray the judgment of the court here, and that they may be dis-

attorney, and having heard the indictment she saith, that she did not think that our said lord the king ought any further to impeach or trouble her the said defendant any further on occasion of the premises aforesaid, because she saith that the said indictment, and the matters therein contained, are not sufficient in law, and that she need not, nor is she bound by the law of the land to answer thereto; wherefore for the insufficiency thereof she prays judgment, and that she may be dismissed and discharged by the court

72. Demurrer to rejoinder, with causes, for that defend-and ant hath not by his rejoinder confessed, traversed, or 467. denied the replication, but hath offered an issue upon a collateral and foreign point, and only traversed the evidence of the fact and not the fact itself; and concluded to the country; for as the point and issue can only be the record of the writ mentioned, rejoinder should have been concluded with a verification to the court, or should have merely negatived the fact in the replication, and in other respects, &c. Joinder, cur. adv.
vult.

346. Demurrer to surrejoinder, with causes, for that the surre- joinder does not sustain the replication, but is a departure therefrom, in this, that plaintiff's replication in order to maintain priority of suit hath pleaded that he sued out a latitat on the thirteenth of June, in the second year, &c.; and by his surrejoinder insisted, that latitat was sued out at a different time, to wit, on the first of July; and for that plaintiff hath not traversed or denied service of latitat sued out by C. L. to be before service of latitat by plaintiff, and in other respects. Joinder, and judgment of respondeas ouster.

6. Demurrer to rejoinder in replevin, with causes, for that although plaintiff has concluded his replication with a direct traverse of a material fact alledged in plea in bar, yet has not tendered an issue on the fact traverse-ed, but attempted to put in issue matter of induce- ment, and to put in issue matter altogether unnecessary, stating particularly what does not maintain plea, but is
7. a departure; and although he has denied only one of the matters alledged in replication, hath concluded to the country instead of with a verification; with notes and cases.

Special demurrer to rejoinder to replication, that plaintiffs traversed a material and issuable point, and so tendered a material issue, but the defendant hath not taken issue upon that traverse, or joined an issue with them thereupon, but hath passed by and taken no notice thereof, and hath denied another part of the said replication, and hath attempted to put another point in issue; and that the said rejoinder concludes with putting himself upon the record, which is inconsistent with the allegation contained in the said rejoinder, that there is no such record, whereas the said defendant ought to have concluded his rejoinder by offering to verify the negative allegation. GEORGE

GEORGE the Third, &c. to the sheriffs of London, greeting: Whereas John Chuttle lately in our court before us at Westminster, by bill, without our writ, impleaded William Robinson, being in the custody of the marshal of our Marshalsea, before us in a plea that he should render to him the said John the sum of five hundred and fifty pounds of lawful money of Great Britain, which he owed to and unjustly detained from him; for that whereas theretofore, to wit, on the twelfth day of April, in the year of Our Lord 1790, at, &c. by certain articles of agreement indented, made, concluded, and agreed upon the day and year afore said, between the said William by the name of, &c. of the one part, and the said John by the name of, &c. of the other part, which said articles of agreement, sealed with the respective seals of the said John and William, the said John brought into court there, the date whereof was the day and year afore said, reciting, amongst other things, that the said William had concluded and agreed with the committee for letting the lands and tenements of the city of London for a lease of the ground therein and hereinafter-mentioned (amongst others) to be granted by the mayor and commonalty and citizens of the said city to the said William, his executor or administrator, for sixty-one years, from the twenty-ninth day of September then last past, at a pepper corn rent for the first year, and under such a yearly ground rent for the residue of the term, and under and subject to such conditions and agreements as in the said contract or agreement were particularly mentioned, and that the said William had at his own costs and charges erected the brickwork or carcase of a messuage or tenement upon the ground therein and hereinafter-mentioned for the considerations in the said articles of agreement particularly mentioned, he the said William had let unto the said John all that piece or parcel of ground, with the said carcase or brickwork of a messuage or tenement then lately erected by him the said William thereon, and intended for a tavern or coffee-house, situate, lying, and being as in the last-mentioned articles of agreement was particularly mentioned and described, to hold the said ground and buildings thereby let as afore said, with the appurtenances, unto the said John, his executors, administrators, and assigns, from the day of the date of the said articles of agreement at the rate of one pepper corn until the twenty-fourth day of June then next ensuing, and from thenceforth at and under the yearly rent of fifty-two pounds ten shillings, to be payable as in the said articles of agreement was particularly mentioned and described; and the said William for himself, his executors, administrators, and assigns, had covenanted, promised, and agreed to and with the said John, his executors, administrators, and assigns, by the said articles of agreement, that he the said William, his executors, and administrators, should and would at his and their own costs and charges completely finish and make fit for habitation the said messuage or tenement agreeable to the order and approbation of the committee for letting the lands and tenements of the city of

(a) Writ of enquiry before the chief J. of B.R. in debt on articles of agreement upon a suggestion pursuant to 8. & 9. Wm. 3. c. 11. s. 8. for breaches of covenant assigned.

Declaration in debt on articles of agreement for not completely finishing and making fit for habitation a messuage or dwelling-house.

(a) See p. cxxxv. ante.

London and the clerk of the works of the said city for the time being, and in all respects conformable to the conditions of the said original contract, and should and would deliver the possession of the said messuage or tenement so finished and completed as aforesaid unto the said John, his executors, administrators, or assigns, on or before the twenty-fourth day of June next ensuing the date of the said articles of agreement; and that for the true performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements thereinbefore contained, and each and every of them, according to the true intent and meaning of the said articles of agreement, each of the said parties thereto had bound himself, his executors, or administrators, unto the other of them his executors and administrators in the penal sum of five hundred pounds of lawful money of Great Britain, firmly by the said articles of agreement, reference being thereunto had, would amongst other things more fully and at large appear: And the said John in fact further said, that although he the said John from the time of making the said articles of agreement hitherto had well and truly performed and fulfilled every thing therein contained on his part and behalf to be performed and fulfilled according to the true intent and meaning of the said articles of agreement; yet protesting that the said William had not performed or fulfilled any thing in the said articles of agreement contained on his part and behalf to be performed and fulfilled, the said John in fact further said, that the said William had not at his own costs and charges completely finished and made fit for habitation the said messuage or tenement agreeable to the order and approbation of the said committee for letting the lands and tenements of the said city of London and the said clerk of the works of the said city for the time being, and in all respects conformable to the conditions of the said original contract on or before the twenty-fourth day of June next ensuing, the date of the said articles of agreement, according to the tenor and effect, true intent and meaning of the said articles of agreement, but on the contrary that the said John said that always from the time of making the said articles of agreement until the twenty-fourth day of June, and from thence hitherto, the said William had wholly omitted and neglected to completely or in any other manner finish and make fit for habitation the said messuage or tenement according to the tenor and effect of the said articles of agreement, and the said messuage or tenement during all the time aforesaid had been, and then was unfinished and out of repair in many and different parts thereof, to wit, in the roof, doors, door cases, stairs, stair cases, and windows, window cases, chimnies, chimney pieces, floors, shutters, closets, cupboards, locks, and bolts thereof, contrary to the tenor and effect, true intent and meaning of the said articles of agreement, and of the covenant of the said William therein contained, and in breach and violation thereof, and whereby he the said John had lost and been deprived of the use of the said messuage or dwelling-house for a long time, to wit, for the space of four months, and of all benefit

benefit and advantage which would otherwise have arisen and accrued to him from the same, to wit, at, &c. aforesaid, whereby and according to the tenor and effect of the said articles of agreement the said William had forfeited and became liable to pay to the said John the sum of five hundred pounds in the said articles of agreement mentioned, and thereby and by reason of the said articles of agreement an action had accrued to the said John to demand and have of and from the said William the sum of five hundred pounds, parcel of the said sum of five hundred and fifty pounds therein above demanded: And that whereas, &c. &c. [Count for a mutuatus]; yet the said William, although often requested, had not then rendered the said sum of five hundred and fifty pounds above demanded, or any part thereof, to the said John, but he so to do hath hitherto wholly refused, and then refused so to do, to the damage of the said John of twenty pounds; and therefore he brought his suit, &c.; and such proceedings were thereupon had in our said court before that the said John afterwards recovered against the said William his debt aforesaid, and also twenty pounds for his damages which he had sustained as well by reason of detaining the said debt as for his costs and charges by him about his suit in that behalf expended, whereof the said William is convicted, as appears to us of record; and the said John having prayed our writ to enquire of the truth of the said breach of covenant above assigned, and to assess the damages which he the said John hath sustained thereby, therefore according to the form of the statute in such case made and provided we command you that you cause to come before the right honourable Lloyd lord Kenyon, our chief justice assigned to hold pleas in our court before us at the Guildhall of the city of London, on Wednesday the first day of October next, twelve honest and lawful men of your bailiwick, to enquire diligently on their oath of the truth of the premises, and to assess what damages the said John hath sustained by reason of the said breach of covenant, and that you have on that day before our said chief justice this writ; we likewise command our said chief justice that he certify the inquisition before him taken to us at Westminster on Monday next after eight days of St. Hilary, together with the names of those by whose oath that inquisition shall be taken; and that he have there this writ. Witness Lloyd lord Kenyon, at Westminster, the twenty-ninth day of November, in the thirty-first year of our reign.
